

Chapter 2328 What Is There to Be Afraid Of?

Although they entered the Martial League Ground Force through connections and bribery, Samuel's martial strength was not bad, and he was also a few years older than Rylan, so Samuel was naturally stronger than Rylan.

On the other hand, Rylan couldn't dodge in time and received a strong punch from his opponent, making him instantly see stars. The excruciating pain made him squat down while covering his eyes and taking deep breaths.

However, Samuel was not done yet and delivered several kicks and punches, which gave Rylan no choice but to protect his head with both hands. By the time Samuel and the others stopped, Rylan was already covered in bruises.

Looking at Rylan silently lying on the ground, Samuel smirked and then stepped on the other's face with his foot. "You're a loser, so you should act like one. Stop pretending before me. Ptui! What a joke. Remember to stay away from me when you see me. Otherwise, I'll beat you up every time I run into you."

At this moment, Rylan's entire face was nearly pressed against the ground, and a strong smell of mud rushed up his nostrils with every breath he took. Compared to the humiliation in his heart and the pain in his body was nothing.

While Samuel was stepping on Rylan, Rylan's hands sank into the soil. At the same time, tears welled up in his eyes, and he didn't know if it was because of the humiliation or pain.

Just as he was feeling extremely humiliated, a shout suddenly entered his ear. "Get your legs off of him!"

It was Emma. When she noticed Rylan hadn't returned after a long time, she became impatient and came over to see what he was up to.

Unexpectedly, she hadn't walked far from the classroom when she saw someone stepping on Rylan and humiliating him. Even though they weren't on good terms, they were still classmates. How could she allow an outsider to bully him?

In the meantime, Samuel sneered when he saw the newcomer. "Isn't it the Ice Witch from Class 3? What's the matter? Are you going to stand up for this loser? I'll let him go if you agree to my request from before. How about that?"

Before, he had noticed Emma's exceptional beauty and expressed his intentions openly and secretly. However, the reply he received was, "You're nothing but trash. How dare you have such outrageous thoughts?" Due to that incident, he became the laughingstock of the Ground Force for a long time, and their grudge had been set since then.

This was the perfect time to settle both old and new accounts. Seeing the mocking smile on the other party's face, Emma didn't plan to waste any time negotiating.

The Butterfly Step! With light steps on the ground, she swiftly rushed over. Her agile movements were so fast that the others only saw a blurry figure. This was the first time Samuel saw Emma attacking. Before this, he thought the other was just a pretty face.

Since he wasn't expecting the attack, he could only use both fists to shield himself. The next second, he felt a huge pain in his knee and couldn't help but scream in pain before falling to the ground, completely powerless.

"You like stepping on people, don't you?" Emma asked as she lifted her foot and stomped on his face.

As for Samuel's lackeys, they did want to help when they saw Samuel getting beaten up, but just as they were about to make a move, Emma turned toward them and gave them a cold stare. "Do you want to end up like him?"

While she spoke, she pointed at Samuel below her feet. The group of lackeys glanced at their leader's twisted left leg and couldn't help but shudder. For a moment, no one dared to step forward.

On the other hand, Samuel was already sweating from the pain as he lay on the ground. Although he couldn't see his injuries, judging from the intense pain, he could tell that his left leg was definitely broken.
