

Chapter 2398 Their Heads Are Shining

The venue was not as magnificent as imagined. With its simple decoration style and the traditional layout of the Martial League, it exuded a faint solemn atmosphere.

As soon as Ella took the main seat, all attention instantly went to her.

"I didn't expect to see the Orleans in the conference after so many years."

"She's adorable, but I wonder how strong she is?"

"You're quite curious. Why don't you try your luck during the upcoming election? You can give it a shot."

"Is Orleans finally going to show themselves to the world?"

In fact, Orleans was not weak in strength. The previous Charm Master of Orleans was one of the top experts in the entire Cathay. Moreover, although the territory of Orleans was barren, it occupied one-sixth of the land in Cathay.

Unfortunately, Orleans declined rapidly and was left without a leader after the tragic death of the previous Charm Master.

Under Lord Voodoo's reign, Orleans not only met a stagnant but even regressed. Now, with the emergence of a new generation of Charm Master, Orleans was finally on the right track.

Sitting on the big chair, Ella scrutinized around with curious eyes. Everything in front of her was full of novelty.

However, every time she wanted to get up and play, Asuna would desperately stop her. After several unsuccessful attempts, she could only pout his cheeks and ask in boredom, "Uncle Asuna, when can we go back? Matthew said he will cook something delicious for me tonight."

Asuna broke into a cold sweat at that. "Just wait a little longer. Didn't you promise Matthew? You can have delicious food after you finish this conference."

Bitterness got the better of him. The glory of our esteemed Orleans is actually second to that of a foreign young man?

Of course, this cannot be asked. Asking would only make it more painful. Just as Asuna was mentally exhausted. Two bald monks slowly walked toward them from the huge gates.

Ella's eyes lit up upon seeing them. "Wow! Asuna, look! Look! Their heads are shining—"

Before she could finish, Asuna covered her mouth. "My dear master, those are representatives of the Fo Sect. You must not offend them."

Although the people of the Fo Sect were open-minded and thought of pure goodness, the spit of their billions of followers could drown one as long as he crossed them. Asuna was worried about getting in their bad books.

Just as Asuna was worriedly reminding Ella, the two monks had come up to them.

"Greetings, I am Master Kurt. I have seen you before. You must be the new Charm Master, right?" With a calm tone and the scent of sandalwood emanating from him, he gave people an extraordinary sense of tranquility.

On the contrary, it was the disciple behind Kurt showing an irritated face.

Hence, Asuna could only smile apologetically. "Nice to meet you, Master Kurt. Our Charm Master is still young. If we offended you in any way, I hope you can forgive us."

Kurt smiled lightly. "It's alright. Children tend to speak their minds often. I have also heard of the reputation of the Charm Master for a long time. It is fortunate to be able to meet her today."

Asuna secretly nudged Ella, indicating for her to greet them. She took the hint and revealed his two small tiger teeth, smiling. "Hello, Uncle Bald!"

Asuna froze right at that spot. Uncle Bald? Oh, my days! Have you forgotten what I told you a moment ago? Geez, I'm freaking tired! If I had known this would happen, I wouldn't have taken the task of accompanying the Charm Master. I should've taken a break like the other seventy-one cave masters. My life could've been easier that way!
