

Chapter 2448 Winona's Doubts

Watching the figure of that person leaving, none of the dozens of people present dared to stop him as they could only watch as that person took Matthew away.

This person is too strong!

Just with the momentum of that casual strike, it made everyone unable to catch their breath.

Chad asked while swallowing his saliva, "Miss Sandoval, should we pursue?"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone focused on the black-robed servant.

"Hmph...If you are confident enough to stop this person, then go ahead and pursue."

After giving Chad a resentful glance, the black-robed servant turned and left directly.

If it weren't for Chad's flashy actions, he could have easily eliminated Matthew with the momentum of thunder without all these subsequent events at the beginning.

She couldn't help but feel even more annoyed when thinking about how the mission arranged by the master in Cathay had failed.

"What are you standing there for? My Spirit Concealing Army is about to disappear. The patrol members of the Martial League have already noticed the situation here. It's really a case of you guys not being good enough to accomplish anything but are capable of ruining everything."

After speaking, the black-robed servant leaped directly, stepping on the tree branches under her feet and disappearing into the night.

As for those standing at the original location, everyone looked at each other, followed suit, and left together.

Meanwhile, at the base arranged by the Damrons Family, as soon as they entered the hall, Winona, who was sitting on top, looked at the group of dispirited young men with a mocking expression on her face.

"Did you fail?" Her ethereal voice echoed throughout the hall.

As soon as she finished speaking, the black-robed servant immediately knelt and admitted her mistake. "Master, I am incompetent as I allowed Matthew to be rescued."

Upon hearing this result, Winona did not get angry, but instead, she asked with interest, "Who is the other person?"

The black-robed servant hesitated for a moment and respectfully replied, "This person's identity is unknown, but he was wearing a straw hat and a green robe and with a wave of his black cloak, he easily dispersed the Black Sky Curtain under his command."

After recounting the incident in detail, Winona first glanced at Chad and the young members of the Abe Family.

These young men who returned in disappointment felt a chill all over their bodies for a moment.

Fortunately, this terrifying woman from the Spiritualist Clan did not pursue them.

After retracting her gaze, she fell into contemplation.

The actions of these dozens of young men were covered by her and concealed their tracks unless someone was deliberately watching.

Otherwise, they wouldn't be easily discovered and she knew the strength of her subordinates best.

According to the description of Miss Sandoval, all the remaining experts in Emsgate quickly flashed by in Winona's mind.

An expert with a good relationship with Matthew.

Thinking of this, the first face in her mind was Old Mr. Bane from the Banes, but at this moment, he was guarding the Bane Mansion personally and focused on Aspen.

He couldn't possibly be distracted.

As for the experts of the Martial League, they were busy dealing with the re-election of the Martial League.

As she continued to ponder, she wondered whether it was the person she had in mind.

She instinctively shook her head when thinking of that old fisherman.

If that person is still alive, he would be the biggest suspect. However, that person died in battle years ago, so it can't be him.

After analyzing without any results, Winona took several coins from the war period of Emsgate from her pocket.

Under the gaze of everyone, the coins scattered on the table.

After careful observation, her furrowed brow relaxed. "It really is someone with great luck since he managed to find a way out even in a situation where death was certain."

"Alright, let's stop here for today's matter. Coincidentally, I haven't tasted the young men protected by great luck." She greedily licked her lips while saying that.

Meanwhile, at the scene of the incident, the patrol members of the Martial League, who sensed the commotion here, immediately rushed over.

The leader's face changed after inspecting various traces. "Please report this matter quickly to the Elder Council as a formidable force from Emsgate may have arrived!"
