

Chapter 2467 Winona's Arrangement

His fellow companions were dissatisfied, but Chad Talone had no idea.

But even if he knew, he didn't care at all.

At this moment, he only had one thought in his mind.

Hurry to Emsgate and quickly search for the treasures that Matthew mentioned could heal his hara.

There were no greetings whatsoever.

Under the gaze of his fellow companions, Chad was quickly ushered away by the elders of the family.

Even the other disciples of the sect were ignored.

They had been left behind, attracting the cold eyes of others.

And in the back was the VIP viewing room where Chad watched the two matches, but he was not interested in the results.

After all, her main purpose in coming to Cathay was not for this.

Participating in the Martial League was just for the sake of convenience.

If it weren't for the incompetence of the Great Octavian, she would not have bothered to meet this person.

"I originally thought that the Octavian Sect was just a waste. I never expected that these two fighters from the Talone Sect and the Anbe Family would be even worse."

Just as she was complaining, a black figure quietly walked out of the shadow in the corner.

"Miss St. Clair, I have found the information you asked me to investigate. The last contender is Charley Henderson and he is the man's grandson."

As Aspen spoke, he handed over a piece of paper.

After receiving it, Winona glanced at it casually.

"So, that is the case. No wonder I felt a sense of familiarity when I saw this young man. I really want to see how that person would react if this Charley Henderson is defeated."

At that, Winona slowly turned her head toward Miss Sandoval beside her.

"I don't need to teach you what to do next, right?"

"I understand, Miss St. Clair."

Miss Sandoval gave a respectful answer and left for the arena.

After she left, Aspen continued speaking.

"My apologies for my incompetence, Miss St. Clair. Ever since I was discovered by Old Mr. Bane, the defense of the entire Bane Manor has been raised to the highest level. It may take some time for us to infiltrate."

Upon hearing this news, Winona first tapped the coffee table.

Then, she said calmly.

"After all, the Banes are part of the Ten Greatest Families of Cathay. Let's take it slowly for now. If it's not possible, you can try to start with Fabien Blanc. But now that the King of the South and the King of Rivenia are always with him, it won't be easy to make a move. Consider which is more convenient for you to attack and start with that side. By the way, keep an eye on Matthew Larson's actions. His sneak attack just now reminded me of an old friend. When the time comes, I will personally visit her."

After Winona finished speaking, Aspen bowed and raised his hands.

"Yes, I understand."

As he said that, he slowly retreated until the shadow completely covered him and disappeared from the room.

As time passed slowly, the final match between Cathay and Emsgate also came to an end.

For this competition, Cathay had already gained a lot.

Even if they lost the final match, they won twenty islands from Emsgate.

But how could people's hearts be so easily satisfied?

Even if the Martial League could accept the defeat, the tens of thousands of spectators on the scene couldn't accept it.

Forty islands. Even if the islands were barren, there were still seas around them.

If Charley won this final match, it meant that Cathay's territory was as good as being added to a province's sea area.

This was a great achievement in expanding their territory.

As a person of Cathay, who wouldn't be moved?

It was especially so for the elders of the Martial League.

The old men were already happily stroking their beards.

The topic of their conversation was about holding the celebration banquet instead.

They didn't pay much attention to Charley. If the kid lost, they would resign as the elders on the spot.

That was how confident they were!
