

Chapter 2468 First Encounter

As Matthew fell into a coma and was taken to the infirmary, Ella followed with a worried expression on her face. When she saw Matthew lying on the hospital bed, Ella almost lost control. If it weren't for Asuna desperately stopping her, Ella would have insisted on keeping Chad in Bainbridge forever.

Meanwhile, Matthew was still in a deep sleep, recovering.

On the other side of the arena, the final battle had already begun.

With his hands crossed in front of his chest, Charley concealed a brown longsword within them. His face remained calm, showing no emotional fluctuations.

Facing him, Miss Sandoval slowly stepped onto the stage.

Unlike the scene of besieging Matthew yesterday, the information revealed by her master, Winona, indicated that this seemingly calm young man in front of her was undoubtedly a formidable opponent.

To deal with him, she specially brought her weapon, the giant scythe, Shriek Sword.

The weapon was pitch black, about four meters long, with a blade at the top measuring over two meters.

In contrast, the servant herself was only about 1.7 meters tall.

Holding such a giant scythe made her look particularly conspicuous.

As a martial arts expert, Blake could tell at a glance that both sides of the battle on the stage were extraordinary.

"It seems that the rising stars of Emsgate are not bad in recent years."

Rhett Wyatt nodded in agreement.

Although these two individuals did not display any nimbus, they were both top-level experts hiding their true strengths.

"If it weren't for Charley Henderson's return, it's hard to say who would win this round."

Upon saying that, Rhett's gaze swept toward the young geniuses from Cathay who were waiting to fight.

Then, he shook his head lightly.

Even among them, Albus Nolan, who was the strongest, still had a considerable gap compared to Miss Sandoval.

"Indeed, this battle should be the ultimate showdown of the younger generation in the re-election of the Martial League."

"After this battle, you will have to work hard, Mr. Wyatt."

"The competition among the ninety-nine trainee instructors of Ground Force will continue."

"Freya, Albus Nolan, Kian Damron, Jarren Lullaby, Queenie Morris, and Xenia Sandel will move advance to the next round!"

After Blake finished speaking, Rhett immediately agreed.

"If these people advance directly, will the other participants be dissatisfied?"

Blake stroked his long beard and said with a faint smile, "If they are dissatisfied, let them challenge these people directly. Young people must have a sense of self-awareness."

"I understand."

Just as the two old men were talking, the battle in the center of the stage officially began.

Nimbus flowed around the stage.

Miss Sandoval tightly clenched her hands as she brandished the weapon in her hands.

The black light on the blade continuously surged, carrying an overwhelming momentum as it fiercely chopped at Kian's shoulder.

But wherever the scythe passed, the air trembled slightly.

The entire stage was filled with a raging wind.

Such momentum directly shocked all the members of Cathay who were waiting to fight even though they were hundreds of meters apart.

The chilly killing intent still reached them, making their hair stand on end.

If they were hit by this attack, they would definitely be sliced in half.

However, in the face of this move, Charley remained calm and composed.

As the scythe approached, he calmly extended his left hand.

With two fingers joined together, it transformed into a shape of a sword before taking the form of a three-foot sword shadow quickly.

At that moment, an unparalleled sword energy swept across the entire stage.

When the hidden sword shadow struck against the dazzling blade of the scythe head-on, the fierce attack from Miss Sandoval was directly blocked.

The entire scythe also trembled slightly due to the intense collision.

The shockwave generated by this collision caused the long robes on both sides to flutter and make a swooshing sound.

This...

It was too powerful!

Everyone present, including their peers, couldn't help but sigh at this scene.
