

Chapter 2703 Jude Eissen Visits

Shortly after the death of his eldest son, the head of the Keller Family suddenly fell ill!

The once prestigious Keller Family was instantly enveloped in gloom and despair.

"Old Mr. Keller, the head of the Eissen Family is here to see you!" the butler reported in a soft voice after knocking on the door.

Lying on his sickbed, Hugo nodded lightly with a sickly expression. "Let him in!"

Shortly after the butler left, hurried footsteps could be heard outside the door.

As the door opened, Jude arrived at Hugo's bedside with a worried expression. "Hugo, why go through all this trouble? If you also collapse, the Keller Family will be left without a leader!" He and Hugo had a close relationship, and their families had many cooperative projects. So, upon hearing that Hugo had fallen ill, Jude rushed to visit him immediately.

Hugo forced a smile and gestured for him to take a seat. "Sigh, misfortune has befallen our family! It's all because of Fabian, that scoundrel!" At the mention of his third son, he started coughing in anger.

Jude quickly stepped forward to pat his back and help him breathe. "Calm down, Hugo. It's not worth it. You mustn't fall ill. If you get angry now, that damn Matthew will get even more complacent. In this critical situation, we must carefully consider our plans for the future!"

With his persuasion, Hugo's emotions cooled down slightly.

Jude secretly breathed a sigh of relief. He was afraid that Hugo would die in anger. After several years of cooperation, the Eissen Family was now thriving with each passing day. If Hugo were to die, their source of wealth would be cut off.

The redness on Hugo's face gradually subsided after he took a few deep breaths. "Sigh! I've spent countless resources and more than a decade to fully train this group of elite assassins, and now, they've been wiped out just like that. How can I not feel heartbroken about this?"

Hearing his lamentations, Jude nodded in agreement. "Hugo, since the situation has already occurred, there's nothing we can do to change it. At this moment, we must find a way to eliminate Matthew. Judging by his style of doing things, he is ruthless and merciless. He will eradicate any threats. If we don't act quickly, he might even target the Keller Family."

Before he could finish his speech, Hugo slammed his hand down with a furious expression. "How dare he! If he dares to come to Anivara, I will make sure he meets his end without a proper resting place!"

Jude looked stunned for a moment. "Why are you getting angry again for no reason? Is it so difficult to admit that your opponent is powerful? Your elite troops of thousands have been annihilated, and yet you're still being stubborn here."

In reality, Hugo couldn't be blamed for this. After all, some people would remain stubborn even if they were already dead and their bodies had decayed.

Actually, Hugo was quite panicked about Matthew, who had perfectly demonstrated his strength during their two encounters. However, that was only on the surface. Matthew had the Zedler Family backing him up, and Hugo had no confidence in going head-to-head against him. However, now that an outsider was present, how could he possibly show his cowardice? He couldn't afford to lose face.

Jude had known Hugo for many years, so how could he not know his character? He just didn't point it out. After all, the Keller Family was his benefactor. "Calm down, Hugo. The strength of the Keller Family is well-known throughout Seraphis. If Matthew dares to come to Anivara, it'll be easy for you to kill him."

These flattering words made Hugo feel rather satisfied.

In an instant, however, Jude's tone changed. "That being said, Matthew is acting like a coward, hiding far away in Concordia. He's too far away for us to take action."

"That's true. I wonder if you have any good ideas to get rid of him, Jude," Hugo said curiously. Since Jude had brought this up, there must be a solution to this. Otherwise, Jude wouldn't have dared to provoke him. The Keller Family was not to be trifled with!

Jude smiled mysteriously. "Hugo, it's not exactly a good idea, but it can deal with Matthew completely..."
