

Chapter 2821 The Advancing Commercial Union

Leanna had initially hesitated, not because she didn't want to help Matthew, but because she was concerned about her ability to perform well and potentially cause trouble for him. However, after his reassurance, she finally made up her mind.

"Well, I'll give it a try."

Matthew was overjoyed at Leanna's acceptance of his proposal. This meant that he no longer needed to worry about the commercial union. With her potential, managing a commercial union was not a difficult task. It was simply a matter of dealing with different people, and as long as she adapted to the position, the commercial union would surely thrive.

"Leanna, you should hand off the affairs of the Creative Cloud Group in the next few days as things will be quite complicated for a while. Thank you!"

She blushed at his enthusiastic gaze but quickly regained her composure. "Alright, consider this as me returning the favor. I'll handle everything involving the group."

The Creative Cloud Group was now on the right track and didn't require much of her attention. Moreover, there was a division of the group in Hulwin, so the headquarters could be moved there if necessary with a word from her.

After settling the matter, Matthew directly dispatched the Feather Guards led by Danny Allison to her side for Leanna's safety. As for Evander, he was also transferred from Hulwin. This way, the Feather Guards could ensure Leanna's safety and not fall behind in training. It was a mutually beneficial arrangement.

The night passed without a word.

The meeting the next day was similarly scheduled for noon. There were still many matters to be dealt with, but all the remaining people had joined the commercial union, which made many things easier to handle.

Naturally, Matthew was the president of the chamber of commerce, and Leanna was the vice president. Although some people had reservations about this, no one dared to voice their opinions since Matthew had already filled the positions. If they wanted a share of the benefits, they had to cooperate.

The headquarters of the commercial union had not yet been decided. Hulwin was too remote, and Concordia was even more remote and not as favorable. However, Matthew planned to choose the location after reorganizing Skargness.

As for the members of the commercial union's board of directors, there were only Matthew, Leanna, Ophelia, and Jonathan, while other members were yet to be determined. The commercial union had just been established, so there was no rush to appoint council members. The commercial union was naturally named the Seraphis Great Commercial Union.

After dealing with all the matters, it was already evening.

"Our Seraphis commercial union is now officially established. Thank you all for your cooperation over the past two days. To express my gratitude, I have another gift for all of you today."

As soon as Matthew finished speaking, the atmosphere instantly became calm again. Now that the commercial union had been established, everyone eagerly awaited the main event.

"I'm sure you all know about my conflict with the Keller Family. Now, let's use the Keller Family as a stepping stone to make our commercial union famous in Seraphis. I will be the first to take action against the Keller Family, but as for the members of the commercial union, it's up to you. After the Keller Family falls, I won't claim anything. Whoever gets the remaining resources can claim them. Just remember not to disturb the peace."

Initially, everyone had thought that Matthew wanted to use them to deal with the Keller Family for his benefit. However, after hearing about the division of benefits, everyone praised Matthew for his fairness and generosity. The Keller Family might not hold much significance to Matthew, but for most of those present, they were an insurmountable force. With Matthew taking the lead, they could follow and reap the benefits. How could they not be willing?

"So, let's conclude the two-day meeting here. After the Keller Family falls, we'll have a celebration."

With Matthew's order, everyone hurried back to their respective sides in preparation for the coming windfall. The celebration was a mere formality, which everyone understood.

The news of the establishment of the commercial union soon rapidly spread.