

Chapter 3421 Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage |

Chapter: 3421

Darkness is gradually coming.

A bright galaxy appeared in the sky.

Lin Mo put his head behind his head, lying on the grass and quietly looking up at the galaxy.

When in Guangyang City, Lin Mo and Xu  also watched the stars together.

Beside Lin Mo were Zhang San and Hua Qiang who were wearing glasses.

As for Hengbing...

Because I can't let go of my face and lie down with three big men.

Sitting on the grass not far away at the moment.

"Zhang San, do you want to go back in the future?"

Suddenly, Hua Qiang, who had been silent, looked at Zhang San beside him and asked.

Zhang San's face was stunned for a moment, and then he showed a free and easy smile.

"Why are you going back, it's actually pretty good here."

"Even if I go back, I'm still alone, compared to going back..."

Zhang San suddenly sat up and grinned at Hua Qiang.

"I think Brother Qiang, you stupid big guy needs me more."

An angry look appeared on Hua Qiang's face: "Okay, little San, I knew that you guys often arrange me in private."

"Now you actually dare to say in front of me that you are really looking for a fight!"

Hua Qiang directly facing Zhang San is a neck lock.

Lin Mo, who was lying on the grass, looked at the two of them, and the corners of his mouth twitched.

Heng Bing in the distance saw a few people so happy, and there was a hint of envy in his eyes.

Just as Lin Mo watched the two coax, he suddenly frowned slightly.

Standing up from the ground, Lin Mo said to the three of them.

"I'm going to the toilet, you wait here for me."

Zhang San and Hua Qiang nodded with a smile.

Heng Bing's face suddenly flushed, but he still glanced curiously at the back of Lin Mo's departure.

Lin Mo's pace gradually walked towards a small forest.

The smile that originally hung on his face has also disappeared, and the place he brought back is the calm color of the past.

In the woods, the chirping of insects kept ringing.

Mosquitoes wandered around Lin Mo's body.

Lin Mo's slender brows lifted slightly, and an invisible force came out.

Mosquitoes in the air at this moment.

It directly turned into a cloud of blood and slowly fell.

Lin Mo's pure white clothes swelled up in this windless environment.

Indifferent eyes looked at a certain tree in the dark.

"You still like to hide behind big trees as always, but you have a poisonous snake on your head."

"One bite, and your life will be wasted."

As Lin Mo's calm words sounded, there was an instant movement behind the tree.

"hiss!"

A black snake was thrown straight out, smashing to the ground and roaring.

Lin Mo glanced at it, and then a leaf in front of his toes pierced instantly.

The leaves were like flying knives, and they came to the black snake in the blink of an eye.

Without any sound, the black snake was divided into two halves from its head.

Flying flowers and picking leaves can hurt people.

This is what a highly skilled martial artist possesses.

A powerful internal force was instantly instilled on a leaf.

A figure came out from behind the big tree, it was the man with the mustache before.

His eyes hidden in the darkness were full of fear.

He had really heard about the black snake just now.

It is a venomous snake unique to the West Vientiane Islands, with a very strong venom.

It can even be said to see blood seal the throat.

If he was bitten by that snake, he would definitely not be able to live.

The mustache man looked at Lin Mo and did not have the original hostility in his eyes.

"Mr. Maureen, my master asked me to tell you."

"The match between you and Nie Qing will start tomorrow night, and it will be at the wharf of the labor union."

"Where will we be waiting for you."

After listening to the words of the mustache man, Lin Mo nodded slightly.

"I'll be there on time tomorrow night."

Chapter: 3422

After returning to the grass, Lin Mo lay down again.

"Huaqiang, how's the development of the labor union recently?"

"what?"

Lin Mo's words suddenly made Hua Qiang stunned.

Lin Mo glanced at Hua Qiang with a wry smile, why did he ask Hua Qiang this question.

After talking, his eyes turned to Zhang San, who was imprisoned by Hua Qiang.

Zhang San patted Hua Qiang's arm in dissatisfaction, he was about to speak, why was he still talking to himself.

"Maureen, the labor union's GDP per capita has risen by 30 percent recently."

"And we have also prepared five insurances and one housing fund for everyone very intimately."

"It can guarantee that you have meat for three meals a day, and your work clothes are comfortable enough."

Zhang San summed up the good development of the labor union in three short sentences.

"How is the big pier being built now?"

"The foundation has already been laid."

The construction of piers is generally more difficult.

Not to mention a super-large terminal like the one they are planning right now.

Even if the main raw material problem is solved now, it will take a lot of time to build.

"Starting to transfer a group of brothers from the labor union from tomorrow."

"The two-shift work system is directly implemented, and we will do our best to speed up the construction of the wharf."

When Hua Qiang and Zhang San saw Lin Mo's appearance, they nodded solemnly.

Heng Bing in the distance also came over at this moment.

Seeing that Lin Mo was talking about business, she planned to get closer and listen.

"By the way, Heng Bing, how many mortals are in the prison now?"

Heng Bing's expression froze for a moment, and then quickly responded:
"More than 900 people."

Lin Mo's face was cold. He wanted to let Lin Dao enter a period of rapid development.

Then the example of blood must be needed to make everyone afraid.

"Investigate their identities. Those who were criminals before will be directly in the center of the island tomorrow evening."

"Find a convenient place, preferably with better drainage."

Lin Mo said with endless coldness in his eyes.

"All...beheaded for public display!"

Both Heng Bing and Hua Qiang's expressions changed.

Looking at the cold-faced Lin Mo, he finally said nothing.

They believed that Maureen had his reasons for doing so.

The evening of the second day.

Not far from the gate of the Island Lord's Mansion.

At this moment, everyone on the entire Lindao gathered here.

Just because today the Island Lord's Mansion suddenly released a message to publicly execute criminals.

In the past, the Island Lord's Mansion had never done such a thing.

They were just a little curious and didn't plan to come.

But when criminals with chains on their hands walked down the street.

One, ten, fifty, one hundred...

The soldiers of the Island Lord's Mansion escorted what seemed to be countless criminals down the street.

Only then did the people of Lindao realize that this execution was not easy!

They gathered outside the execution grounds, watching the crowd of criminals inside.

One by one, their eyes were horrified, what the hell was the Island Lord's Mansion trying to do?

"The island owner is here!"

They subconsciously gave way.

Heng Bing, dressed in luxurious clothes, walked over from behind.

Behind Heng Bing is Lin Mo in white and Hua Qiang in vest.

"That's... Mr. Maureen!"

"Didn't Mr. Maureen go to another island?"

"When did you come back, those guys..."

They discussed each book quietly one by one.

His eyes never left the backs of the three.

Heng Bing walked into the arena and sat on the main seat in the middle.

Lin Mo and Hua Qiang sat down one by one, but they didn't speak.

Heng Bing glanced at the sky and felt the voice in his ear.

"quiet!"

Heng Bing's voice made the people who were talking about it suddenly shut up.

"Now, I start reading!"

Chapter: 3423

Heng Bing's words were filled with bone-chilling chills, and he said loudly to everyone.

"These people all made mistakes in the countries outside and came to our Lindao."

"But there is no trace of repentance, and it continues to do so."

"Today, I will kill them all directly to comfort the people who were killed in Lindao."

Heng Bing's words fell, and bursts of clamor broke out in the crowd.

"What the island owner said is true, I know the guy from there!"

"It was he who killed my mother and child!"

"The murderer of my husband is also inside, he killed my husband!"

"I can't forget the murderer who killed my son, even if it turns to ashes!"

One after another crying sounded.

Most of the residents of Lindao saw their enemies in this group of people.

Their emotions erupted like a volcanic eruption at this moment.

And the criminals who are about to be executed are frantically begging for mercy at Heng Bing at this moment.

"Lord Island Master, we are willing to do coolies, please don't kill us!"

"Lord Island Master, I only did such a thing when I was blinded by lard for a while, you forgive me, Island Master."

"Islander, let me go, I am willing to take out all my treasures."

Seeing them all look miserable and begging.

Heng Bing's icy complexion did not change in the slightest.

Not to mention that these guys are already full of evil.

Last night, Lin Mo and Heng Bing also talked carefully about why he wanted to kill these guys.

The current Lindao will take a long time to develop.

During this period of time, absolutely no problems should arise.

And if you want to maintain the greatest stability and harmony, the best way is.

Foresight!

As long as there is a lesson from the past, even if these guys want to do it, they should consider it.

And these criminals who are imprisoned in prisons have become the best tools to kill chickens and show monkeys.

"Go!"

Following Heng Bing's words, dozens of executioners stepped forward.

More than a dozen prisoners were dragged out directly from the inside.

They were dragged to the guillotine as if they were dragging a dog to death.

He picked up a bowl of wine and put it in his mouth, and the executioners sprayed it on the knife in unison.

The heavy broadsword is directly under the wheel.

"Pfft!"

Bright red blood spurted out.

The blood spilled on the ground, and it seemed to spill into the hearts of the angry people.

Their eyes were red, and some were already in tears.

"Son, mother has no ability to avenge you, but we have a good island owner, and she avenged you."

"Nah, it's all daddy useless and can't protect you, but the person who harmed you is already dead..."

"Daughter-in-law, you can smile at District Nine, that beast is dead!"

Suddenly, the people in Lindao knelt down to Heng Bing's position.

"I'm waiting to thank the island owner for helping us avenge us!"

"Thanks to the island owner!"

"From now on, I am the most loyal subject of the island owner!"

Their foreheads were firmly touching the ground.

Whenever an executioner kills a person, one person kneels directly.

Even the flowing blood has spread to them.

Heng Bing, who was sitting at the top, looked at the people of Lindao who were on their knees.

At this moment, my shoulders suddenly felt heavy.

She just wanted to stand up and let all these people get up, it didn't have to be.

Putting a palm on Heng Bing's shoulder, Lin Mo said in a low voice.

"This is a piece of their mind, you can just accept it."

"If you don't suffer, then their hearts will never be happy."

Heng Bing turned to glance at Lin Mo's calm face, and nodded.

It's just that she silently made a promise in her heart.

"I want to give them a lifetime of peace!"

Chapter: 3424

At night, at the dock of the labor union.

Lin Mo stood quietly on the edge of the pier, dressed in white turbulently under the blowing sea breeze.

The faint smell of blood in the air also gradually faded under the blowing of the sea breeze.

After the execution in the evening, there was a strong smell of blood on the entire island.

Until now, that feeling is only slightly better.

"Your methods are really cruel, so many people will kill if they say it."

Suddenly, a frivolous voice sounded.

A young man in blue clothes walked over from a distance.

He was still holding the jade bottle in his hand and kept pouring wine into his mouth.

A strong smell of alcohol emanated from his body.

The man with the mustache followed behind him, only showing a slight smile when he saw Lin Mo.

Since the last incident, Moustache's impression of Lin Mo has changed a bit.

In addition, he felt that Lin Mo would definitely work under the master's hands in the future.

So the attitude is a bit better.

"Some things, if you don't do others, you will really think you are a soft persimmon."

Lin Mo looked at the young man and said calmly.

"Hoho, Maureen, I like how you act calmly when faced with anything."

The young man said something to Lin Mo with admiration, then glanced at the man with the mustache.

"Where's the boat, why hasn't it arrived yet?"

"Master, it will be here soon."

Sure enough, it didn't take long after the moustache man's words.

A medium-sized ship appeared on the sea and gradually docked.

"Let's go, Mo Lin, today I will show you a major feature of the West Vientiane Islands."

The youth showed an inexplicable smile towards Lin Mo.

Then he went directly to the boat, and the man with the mustache respectfully followed behind him.

Standing on the deck of the ship, the young man showed an expression of enjoyment.

"By the way, Maureen, haven't I told you my name yet?"

The young man suddenly turned his head to look at Lin Mo and asked.

Lin Mo nodded, the young man didn't say anything, and he didn't ask any questions.

"My name is Zhao Yao, you can call me by my name."

"After all...you're not my subordinate yet, hahaha."

As Zhao Jiao was talking, he suddenly showed a nervous smile, laughing wildly.

At this moment, the man with the mustache came over and whispered a few words in Zhao Draft's ear.

"Just a small swarm of sharks, just to try out our newest weapon."

The newest weapon?

The face of the man with the mustache changed suddenly and said in a low voice.

"Master, if you use that weapon, will the consequences be too big?"

Zhao Draft looked at the mustache man coldly and said coldly.

"You still know I'm the master?"

"When you are a dog, you must know that you must be obedient, and a dog who is not obedient will always die!"

The man with the moustache suddenly oozes cold sweat from behind, and hurriedly turns away.

"Mauren, come and see, our latest developed weapon."

The mustache man quickly walked out with a cannonball in his arms, gritted his teeth while looking at the lake.

I hummed a button on the shell and threw it directly into the water.

Suddenly, a radiant red appeared in the sea water.

The sharks were completely shrouded in red light for just a few tens of seconds.

Those sharks that were originally tenacious and still swimming in the water.

One by one floated up to the sea with their stomachs up.

Lin Mo frowned slightly, this is...

Biochemical weapons?

"Mo Lin, how powerful is this shell, isn't it terrifying?"

Zhao Jiao on the side looked at Lin Mo with a nervous smile and said loudly.

"scary."

"Well, do you know how much I paid for this cannonball called the Destroyer?"

"One million Maple Leaf coins!"

"Destroyer?"

Chapter: 3425

Lin Mo's eyes flickered slightly.

Such a biochemical weapon is definitely not something that can appear on the bright side of the world.

And ordinary countries simply cannot develop such weapons.

"Haha, isn't it shocking?"

Zhao Jiao seemed to be very satisfied with Lin Mo's reaction and said with a smile.

"Yes, such power is beyond my expectations."

Lin Mo nodded and followed Zhao Jiao's words.

"Let's go, we can't miss the admission time tonight, or we'll have to wait for a long time."

The boat was moving fast in a certain direction.

In this piece of magnetic field chaos, there are even places where there is no magnetic field.

Navigation can only be done on the basis of accumulated amazement and judgment.

And the route they were traveling on didn't seem to change at all.

However, Lin Mo felt that the hull had secretly changed its position several times.

Gradually, Lin Mo saw warm yellow lights in the darkness.

"Mauren, did you see that, that's our destination."

"Death cruise ship, heaven for the strong, grave for the weak!"

When the voice fell, Zhao Jiao's face suddenly showed madness.

Lin Mo was silent for a while.

Sometimes he felt that Zhao draft was very neurotic.

Lin Mo, who has always been calm, was very speechless at this moment.

As the ship gradually approached, a huge beam of light shone over.

Zhao Jiao took out a token from his pocket and said loudly.

"I'm the second captain's friend!"

There is a word engraved on the silver token in Zhao's hand.

Then, a lift platform was quickly put down on the huge ship.

"Please come up with some distinguished guests, the second captain is waiting for you."

Zhao Jiao and the man with the mustache walked directly onto the lift, and Lin Mo followed behind them.

The lifting platform rose rapidly, and finally came to the deck of this giant ship.

A man wearing a bulletproof vest came up and said to Zhao Draft.

"This distinguished guest, our second captain is waiting for you in the room, you come with me."

While they were talking, Lin Mo's eyes turned slightly towards the surroundings.

A group of well-equipped soldiers stood around the deck like a formation.

There is a soldier every five steps, and the guard is very strict.

The man brought a few people to a room and said to them.

"Several VIPs, I won't go in with you next time."

Zhao Draft nodded with a smile, and took out a maple leaf coin from his pocket.

The man's eyes glanced at it, and his face suddenly showed a happy look.

"More VIPs."

The man left quickly with the money, but without any hint.

Lin Mo's eyes turned slightly to Zhao Jiao.

It was found that the other party did not have the slightest surprise, as if it were reasonable.

Zhao Jiao's fingers knocked on the iron door in front of him.

"Second Captain, I'm Zhao Jiao."

Following Zhao Jiao's words, Lin Mo heard the sound of a * landing suddenly in the room inside the iron gate.

Very subtle, even Lin Mo only heard it slightly.

The footsteps sounded gradually.

The steel door, which was tightly closed, was directly pulled open.

And when the iron door was pulled open, it was very fast, and there was not even a sound.

A rough big hand appeared in front of everyone.

Later, the appearance of the second captain also appeared in Lin Mo's eyes.

Bare head, with a very hideous scar on his face.

He slid down his neck from the left side of his face.

If you use a little more force, it is estimated that you will not survive.

In addition, there are dozens of small scars on his face.

A fierce aura came out of him.

This is the second captain of the death cruise ship.

Chapter: 3426

The second captain gave Zhao draft a grim look.

"Zhao draft, you take out my token, you know what to pay."

"It's natural."

Zhao Draft's hand stretched out directly to the man with the mustache behind him.

He quickly took out a bank card from his body and handed it to Zhao Yao.

Zhao Jiao handed over the bank card in his hand to the second captain with a smile on his face.

"Second Captain, there are one million Maple Leaf coins in here."

"Do not."

The second captain looked at Zhao Jiao with fierce eyes and said in a deep voice.

"It used to be one million Maple Leaf coins, but now it's two million."

The smile on Zhao Jiao's face did not change, but there was a little bit of ruthlessness in his eyes.

He still can't understand that the second captain is just taking advantage of the fire to kill himself.

But he has already come up, and it is impossible to go down.

Zhao Draft reached out to the man with the mustache behind him and said with a smile on his face.

"It's my brother. I haven't been here for a long time, and I don't understand the rules of the second captain."

"Next time, I will definitely host a banquet, and I will also look to the second captain, Haihan."

The hideous face of the second captain also showed a smile that could frighten a child to cry.

"Brother Zhao Jiao are talking about what they are saying, it's all a family's excuse."

"I still have some things to do today, so I won't be with you."

"If you meet someone who doesn't have eyes on this boat, report my name directly."

The attitude of the second captain at this moment is completely different from that before.

Zhao Jiao's face was also full of smiles, but the eyes of the two were full of disdain.

For them, as long as there is enough interest.

In the next second, the two of them can directly start a life-and-death fight.

"Then there are more second captains."

Zhao draft bowed his hands to the second captain with a smile, then turned and left.

He was very familiar with this boat, so he didn't need anyone else to lead the way.

After Zhao Jiao and Lin Mo left, the second captain's face suddenly turned cold.

He sneered and said: "It's just a disciple of the Eighth Hall of Hongmen, what are you arrogant to me here?"

"butâ€¦â€¦"

The second captain's thick eyebrows and big eyes showed the color of thinking of a wise man.

"Who's that guy behind him?"

"I just stood in front of him, and my sixth sense madly reminded me to run."

There was a solemn look in the eyes of the second captain.

Such a guy ran on the death wheel, and we don't know if it was lucky or unfortunate for us.

Turning around and returning to the room, he stretched his arms slightly.

The big iron gate weighing one or two hundred pounds was immediately closed by him.

The second captain looked at the corpse lying on the ground without saying a word.

...

"Mauren, let me tell you about the level and function of the death wheel."

Zhao Draft suddenly turned his head and said to Lin Mo.

"The first level of the Death Cruise, the deck, is where you land and leave."

"But if you want to leave this giant ship, you must pay the amount of 100,000 Maple Leaf Coins."

"The rest is divided into six floors, the second floor is the restaurant, and the third floor is the accommodation."

"And the last three floors are the main purpose of our visit this time."

A morbid smile appeared on Zhao Jiao's face again, and he said to Lin Mo.

"The fourth floor is infinite murder. As long as you go in, there will be countless guys who want to kill you."

"They all got off the boat with no money and could only fight with their own lives."

"The fifth floor is the death arena, which is the main purpose of our visit this time."

"There's nothing to pay attention to on the sixth floor, it's a place full of filth and chaos."

Zhao Jiao looked at Lin Mo without saying a word, and said with a smile.

"Then many people below have no fighting power at all and can only fight each other."

"And down there..."

"There's nothing to eat!"

Chapter: 3427

No food?

So what do the people at the bottom of the deep eat?

No one has said this question.

Because each of them is very aware of it.

When in a place full of chaos and disorder.

To live, one must aim at all living things.

"Do you need something to eat?"

When I came to the second floor, the smell of food filled the air.

Zhao Jiao looked at Lin Mo and asked.

He pressed tens of millions of Maple Leaf coins on Lin Mosheng's top.

No matter whether Lin Mo can win or not this time, for Zhao Jiao, he can only win and not lose.

"No need, let's move faster."

Lin Mo shook his head, and looked calmly at Zhao Yao next to him.

"Don't worry, Mo Lin, you can't challenge Nie Qing yet."

Zhao Jiao's words made Lin Mo's face look suspicious.

You asked me to come and fight Nie Qing, but now you tell me I can't fight.

"Nie Qing has a very high status in the arena on the Death Wheel. If you want to challenge Nie Qing."

"At least three games in a row are necessary to qualify."

"Tonight we'll have a night's rest, and we'll talk about fighting for life and death until tomorrow."

"it is good."

Lin Mo nodded, and without saying anything, he followed Zhao Draft to the third floor.

After spending 3,000 Maple Leaf Coins in three rooms on the third floor, everyone went back to their respective rooms.

The consumption on the death wheel is very high.

If it is outside, it may only cost fifty Maple Leaf Coins to open a room.

But here, there is a tens of times of growth.

Not long after Lin Mo returned to the house, he suddenly heard a faint sound from outside.

"Are you sure it's this room?"

"Boss, believe me, that little white face in white is definitely in this room."

"I just observed it carefully, and his body doesn't even have any muscles."

"At first glance, it seems that the rich boy's brother ran on the death wheel and felt novel."

"As long as we rob him, we will have enough money to get off the ship!"

The weak voices of the two entered Lin Mo's ears word for word.

With a slight noise outside, there was a soft click on the door.

The two outside looked happy, and the door opened.

Suddenly he opened a small door and walked into the house.

Just when the two were excited and planned to get off the boat after finishing the vote.

A figure stood quietly in front of them.

Lin Mo's indifferent gaze shrouded the two of them, causing their bodies to freeze suddenly.

A sense of crisis that had never existed before enveloped the two of them.

"You two think I'm easy to bully, don't you?"

Lin Mo looked at the two with interest and asked softly.

"No...don't dare."

One of the two men said tremblingly.

If he didn't understand it by now, he'd be an idiot.

This is not the power of the chicken, but the power of others can't be seen at all.

"Don't dare, then what happened to you holding the wire to open the door of my room?"

Lin Mo's slender fingers pointed to the wire in the other man's hand.

The man's body trembled suddenly, and the iron wire in his hand fell to the ground and he didn't dare to pick it up.

"My lord, we are just fascinated for a while, you can go around us this time."

"I promise, I will never dare again next time."

Looking at the man's false assurance, the icy look in Lin Mo's eyes was even worse.

"Well, let me ask you something."

"Speak out, should I consider letting you go? If you can't answer it."

"Then there is only one dead end."

Lin Mo's voice fell, and the two suddenly said loudly.

"You ask, just ask!"

"As long as we know, we will tell you all!"

Chapter: 3428

A slight smile appeared on Lin Mo's face, looking very gentle.

But in the eyes of the two, it was so creepy.

"What's the situation on the sixth floor?"

Lin Mo's words made the eyes of the two show a look of astonishment.

They have seen the inquiries about things, but inquired about the sixth floor.

It was the first time the two met.

"My lord, the sixth floor is the messiest place on this ship."

"It's full of human excrement, and you can even see them killing each other as soon as you go down."

"With your strength, there is absolutely no need to go to the sixth floor."

The two were talking about the sixth floor for Lin Mo.

On the other side, they were constantly slapping Lin Mo's ass.

Lin Mo nodded and asked again.

"How are the forces on the ship distributed?"

"The most powerful force on the ship is the official of the death ship. They each have three giants."

"The big captain is in charge of policy, the second captain is in charge of force, and the third captain is in charge of sundries."

"The remaining forces are mixed, including Daquan Gang, people from overseas Hongmen, and so on."

"There are even people from various countries hanging out on it."

The two of them said everything they knew.

After hearing this, Lin Mo didn't say anything, but a look of thought appeared in his eyes.

The atmosphere in the air suddenly became heavier at this moment.

The eyes of the two kneeling on the ground showed a look of apprehension.

They didn't know whether Lin Mo would kill them.

"You can go."

Finally, Lin Mo's words made their bodies suddenly relax.

To Lin Mo, the two were nothing more than two guys who tried to steal.

There is absolutely no need to kill them directly.

"More adults!"

The two stood up and quickly walked outside.

Lin Mo's deterrent force made the two of them feel as if they were stuck with a knife on their necks when they stayed here for a while longer.

At the bar on the third floor.

The boss who opened the room for Lin Mo and others before glanced slightly at the two men who came out of the room.

A look of surprise appeared in his eyes.

How did these two guys come out with nothing?

The boss continued to stand in the bar, carefully wiping the glass in his hand with a white towel.

After a while, Lin Mo walked out of the room.

But at this moment, he is no longer covered in snow-white clothes.

Instead, he put on a black casual suit.

The boss's gaze stayed on Lin Mo's body for a while.

"If you need information, you can come to me and give you a 20% discount."

Lin Mo nodded, then walked straight towards the elevator.

After pressing the button for the sixth floor on the elevator.

Lin Mo had countless strange eyes from the people around him, and just stood there so quietly.

The elevator descended rapidly, and the number of floors continued to fall.

Soon only Lin Mo was left on the elevator.

"Ding dong!"

As the bell rang, the elevator door in front of Lin Mo opened.

A violent rancid smell rushed towards Lin Mo.

Lin Mo frowned slightly in discomfort, then directly held his breath.

According to Lin Mo's strength, it is enough to take a breath every one or two hours.

There were several expressionless soldiers standing beside the elevator.

In their hands they held a bar of firearms, which were given on the ground not far from them.

And a pile of rotting corpses.

That stench came from the pile of corpses.

"If you want to take the elevator up again, you need to pay one thousand Maple Leaf coins on the first floor."

A soldier looked at Lin Mo and said in a cold voice.

This is also because Lin Mo's clothes are clean, and his gestures have a different momentum.

"I see."

Chapter: 3429

Lin Mo nodded lightly.

He knew why there were so many dead bodies not far from the guards.

People living on the sixth floor probably didn't know it when they first came down.

You also need to pay thousands of Maple Leaf coins to go up.

In desperation, the group stormed the elevator.

Naturally, it was directly shot into a sieve by the guards.

Lin Mo looked at the piles of rotting corpses on the ground.

He took out a small iron bead from his pocket.

With a flick of his finger, he instantly moved forward into the pile of rotting corpses.

Following Lin Mo's departure, a huge temperature suddenly erupted from the piles of corpses.

A raging flame erupted from it.

No more, no less, just to wrap all the corpses inside.

The guard standing in front of the elevator watched the burning flames and the burning smell.

A look of surprise appeared in his eyes.

This was the first time he had seen such a kind person on the death wheel.

There are too few such people.

Either live soon, or stand at the top of the pyramid.

Looking at Lin Mo's back, the guard thought to himself.

"What kind of person would such a person be?"

Lin Mo walked within the range of the sixth floor, and what he could see was garbage and blood.

"You, stop!"

Suddenly, a hoarse voice sounded, accompanied by this voice.

Still a cold killing intent.

Lin Mo turned his head slowly and saw a messy man.

Holding a short knife in his hand, his face was full of madness.

"If you don't want to die, take everything out of you!"

There was confusion in the man's eyes.

But when he saw Lin Mo, he could clearly see that he was definitely a newcomer.

Guys like that are what they can loot.

Lin Mo looked at the man who had gone mad and sighed softly.

"If there is a cause, there will be an effect. If you knew today, why did you do it in the first place?"

Lin Mo's words made the man's expression startled.

But then, a wild smile appeared on his face.

"Did you come down from a bad mind?"

Lin Mo did not continue to answer him, but moved his fingers slightly.

"Uh!"

The man's neck was slit silently.

Immediately, blood spurted down his neck.

He covered his neck weakly, his eyes full of panic and panic.

He never thought about it.

I just simply want to rob someone.

And he intends to use him as a reserve grain, so he died.

The man's body fell weakly.

Lin Mo didn't look at it much, but continued to walk forward.

The sixth floor is now showing a very empty place.

The few buildings are probably just some rubbish dumps.

The man who came out just now ran out from behind the garbage heap.

And there were people around who were greedy for Lin Mo.

When he saw the man's body that was unable to fall down, the various emotions in his eyes quickly converged.

They all knew that Lin Mo was not something they could afford.

Lin Mo's figure gradually walked forward.

The scene where feces and stumps and broken arms could be seen everywhere on the ground gradually disappeared.

This also shows that there should be different people in the depths.

At least their situation will definitely be countless times better than those outside.

"Sister...you eat..."

A silly laugh sounded from the side, and Lin Mo looked at it.

A man with messy clothes and disheveled hair was squatting in the corner.

Holding a little flesh and blood in his hand, he smirked at the ants in the corner.

Suddenly, a tall man walked towards the man.

He kicked him directly on the back.

"Sister...don't be afraid..."

Chapter: 3430

The man seemed to feel no pain at all.

He just squatted in front of the ant and smiled silly ho ho.

The man who had just kicked him had an impatient look on his face.

"Fool, everyone looks like your sister."

After seeing him, he didn't take care of himself at all.

The man went straight to the other place.

He just wanted to bully and bully this fool.

But the appearance of the other party not resisting and making a sound quickly dissipated his inner interest.

"Ziyao, it's safe...don't be afraid, brother...is here."

The man squatted in the corner and said something inarticulate.

The voice echoed clearly in Lin Mo's mind.

His eyes flickered slightly, thinking of the rumor on Lingdao before.

The old island owner of Lingdao has a son and a daughter.

Later, the eldest son disappeared mysteriously, and the old island owner searched secretly for many years but could not find it.

That's why those guys dared to be so arrogant after he passed away.

Lin Mo's figure appeared in front of the man who kicked him just now.

"I want to ask you something."

The tall man saw Lin Mo who suddenly appeared in front of him. With a look of dread on his face,

"Ask directly if you have anything."

"Why does he do this?"

Lin Mo's fingers pointed to the figure squatting in the corner not far away.

When the tall man saw the person Lin Mo was talking about, a burst of laughter appeared on his face.

"I thought what did you want to ask, but it turned out to be that fool?"

Lin Mo nodded and looked at the tall man calmly.

"When did he show up here and why."

"Who is the sister in his mouth?"

The tall man was afraid of Lin Mo's strength and replied.

"This fool has been here for more than ten years, and he has been talking about his sister since he came."

"As for his sister, we have never been able to hear the name he said."

"Only once, I heard a purple word vaguely, and I didn't know the rest."

"Can I go now?"

After the man finished speaking, he looked at Lin Mo with some vigilance.

It seemed that Lin Mo was always ready for Lin Mo's quick counterattack.

"you can go now."

Lin Mo's body stepped aside, and there was no more figure to hinder the tall man.

Then came to the corner.

Lin Mo squatted down slightly and glanced at his face.

His face was all dirty, and his hair was tangled like dreadlocks.

He didn't seem to notice Lin Mo's figure at all.

Still happily stroking the ants in his hands.

Lin Mo looked at him and said softly, "Ling Ziyao."

There seemed to be a different kind of emotion flashing in his eyes.

"younger sister"

Lin Mo's brows were slightly wrinkled, and a hand was lightly placed between his brows.

"This is... being tricked by someone!"

A cold light flashed in Lin Mo's eyes.

This incantation is not like a witch doctor's Gu, but rather like...

Human and Gu unite!

The witch tribes in the world are scattered, and most of the witch tribes have the inheritance of raising Gu.

But for them, raising Gu is cultivating a partner.

And the integration of human and Gu is to put the Gu worms into one's body first and feed them with blood.

Finally, use blood to force the Gu worm, like a tool.

The witches are generally very disgusted by such methods.

After all, for them, Gu insects are not just a means of attack.

Over time, Gu worms can be regarded as their family members.

And the method of combining human and Gu doesn't care whether the Gu worm is willing or not.

Lin Mo looked at the man squatting in the corner, and thought flashed in his eyes.

It seemed that he was really Ling Ziyao's elder brother who had been missing for many years.

And that Gu worm seems to have possessed him for many years!
