

Mia is Not 281

Chapter 281: Are You Still Alive?

Amelia said, "Daddy, I'll exorcise you."

Alex: "... Wait a minute." He hadn't showered yet.

Amelia nodded and reminded him, "You can't take a bath!"

Alex made an understanding gesture. He did not like to take a bath to begin with. After a while, the sound of water came from the bathroom. Amelia called out worriedly, "Daddy?"

Alex's voice said, "Yeah?"

Amelia was relieved. "It's fine. I'm just shouting to see if you're still alive."

Alex:

After half a minute, Amelia called again, "Daddy?"

Alex: '

With a click, the bathroom door opened and Alex came out with a helpless expression. He was wearing a bathrobe and casually threw the towel he had just used into the dirty clothes basket. He said to Amelia, "Daughter, this is the fastest time Daddy took a shower."

Amelia was speechless. She blinked and looked down at Alex's ankle. "Is Daddy clean, then?"

Alex: "... What do you think!

Alex sat on the sofa. Amelia squatted in front of him and grabbed his feet to check. She saw that the greenish-purple handprint on Alex's ankle was darker, as if it was about to sink into his flesh.

Amelia first burned the yellow talisman, then filled half a basin with water.

She sprinkled the ashes of the yellow talisman into the basin and stirred it evenly with her small peach wood sword. Immediately after, she grabbed Alex's feet and placed them in the basin. As she washed her feet with talisman water, she muttered, "Daddy's stinky feet, big stinky feet..."

Alex's mouth twitched. His feet didn't stink!

As the talisman water touched the greenish-purple handprint, Alex felt a slight sting. The handprint on his ankle slowly faded. Soon, half the basin of water turned black.

"Wow! It's a malicious ghost!" Amelia exclaimed. "It didn't even pull Daddy down. Daddy is amazing!"

Alex was speechless. For a moment, he could not tell if Amelia was praising him or the malicious ghost.

Amelia ran to the bathroom with the basin. First, she poured the dirty water into the toilet bowl and flushed it away. Then, she filled half a basin with warm water. Immediately after, she burned a yellow talisman to wash Alex's feet. This repeated twice before Alex's ankle returned to normal. Amelia picked up the yellow vest on her back and wrapped it around Alex's ankle.

Alex looked at Amelia, who was busy in front of him. She was very serious. She carried water to wash his feet and wiped them clean with a yellow vest. He suddenly felt inexplicably touched. He had never thought that one day, he would have such a considerate daughter.

"Alright!" Amelia clapped her hands. "Daddy, don't take off this yellow cloth when you sleep at night!"

Alex nodded and bent down to pick Amelia up. "Thank you, Mia. It's been hard on you."

Amelia hugged Alex's neck and kissed his face. "You're welcome!" Her voice was soft, and her big eyes were blinking. She was extremely cute.

Amelia mischievously jumped to the side. After jumping onto the bed, she lay down as if she was very tired. She even patted the seat beside her. "Daddy, come quickly. Lie down together."

Alex chuckled and lay down on the seat beside Amelia.

Amelia stretched her legs one moment and stretched her arms the next. She didn't know how long she played. When Alex turned to look, she was already asleep.

Alex gently tucked Amelia in and gently touched her nose with his fingers. "Good night, my little darling."

The matter of the three girls falling into the water by the river had fermented overnight. Because of the middle-aged woman's words, "I didn't ask you to save me", it became a trending topic on Weibo.

"Three girls fell into the water. A man tried his best to save them, but the girl's mother said: I didn't beg you to save me."

"After the young girl fell into the water, it was unknown if she was dead or alive. The girl's mother pointed at the rescuer's nose and scolded, "You deserve to die!"

"Three girls fell into the water at the same time. One girl went missing. The mother of the missing girl scolded the rescuer: Why didn't you save my daughter first! "

These trending topics were each more explosive than the last, causing the netizens' blood pressure to rise! They all criticized the girl's mother. The more comments there were, the more popular it would be. Shawn was thinking about how to make a hot video. When he saw this trending topic on Weibo, it was like a fly staring at a rotten egg. He immediately started making videos. He made several videos in one go, all of which were to comment on this matter and criticize the girl's mother for moral kidnapping.

However... there were too many bloggers who wanted to ride on this popularity. He could not be ranked at all..

Chapter 282: Male Corpse's Identity

Although Shawn's video had more likes than the other videos, it was still around a thousand. The backstage viewership was only two to three hundred thousand. It was useless.

Shawn scratched his head anxiously. Suddenly, he thought of a way. He could do the opposite! He carefully switched to a alternate account. When most people criticized the girl's mother, he supported her. "Yes, that's right. Since you've already saved the other two girls, why don't you save the remaining one? If you want to save someone, save them together! Otherwise, their mother will be so sad! I think the girl's mother is right. Since you don't have the ability to save everyone, don't save them. The three girls are all dead. The girl's mother can feel better."

Shawn's immoral remarks indeed attracted many netizens. They commented under Shawn's video:

"Awesome, my worldview has been shattered! Is this something a human can say?"

"Blogger, is your brain not fully developed? You don't think at all when you speak?"

"I'm speechless. How can there be such a person! Is he crazy?!"

Shawn was delighted to see so many people scolding him! Whether he was scolded or praised, as long as there was traffic, there would be popularity with comments! The more they scolded, the happier he was!

Unfortunately, Shawn was not happy for long before the trend on the Internet began to change. Three girls fell into the water yesterday, but only two were saved, as well as a male corpse. The third girl seemed to have disappeared into thin air and was never found. More and more streamers went to the riverside to livestream the rescue team fishing up the corpse. The livestreams were very popular. Without a word, Shawn carried the equipment and rushed to the riverside where the accident happened.

The riverfront was surrounded by onlookers. Many anchors were livestreaming. Alex stood outside the crowd with Amelia in his arms. Amelia craned her neck to see. Seeing that she was working so hard, Alex grabbed her and sat her on his neck. Her vision was raised, and Amelia could finally see clearly.

However... Amelia placed her small hand on her eyebrows and sighed like an adult. "It's too far to see!"

Suddenly, Alex took out small binoculars and handed it to Amelia. Amelia exclaimed, "Daddy, your pocket is amazing. You have everything!"

Alex said, "Yes. What else do you want?"

Amelia immediately said, "I want a lollipop!"

Alex turned his hand and handed Amelia a strawberry-flavored lollipop.

Amelia was happy. As she ate the lollipop, she looked at the river through her binoculars. Three corpse fishing boats were going back and forth on the river. There were also two corpse fishing boats far downstream. The three girls falling into the water was trending news. The relevant departments took it very seriously.

"It's daytime. There's nothing," Amelia said. "By the way, Daddy, what's with the male corpse?"

Alex: "The police are still investigating the male corpse." However, his information channels were not only limited to the police. He also had his own investigation channels.

Alex lowered his voice and said to Amelia, "I got someone to investigate. The male corpse is an 18-year-old boy. When he passed by last night, he saw someone fall into the water and jumped down to save them without hesitation." Unfortunately, after he saved the two girls, he could not come up himself.

Alex said, "The strange thing is that the boy clearly just fell into the water and died. When I grabbed his arm last night, it was very sticky and slippery, as if he had been soaking for a few days." If he hadn't seen the boy jump into the water to save people last night on the road surveillance, Alex wouldn't have believed that this male corpse was the boy who had acted bravely last night.

Amelia said, "That's so strange." Were there really three girls who fell into the water?

Amelia looked at the river, her face solemn. No one knew what she was thinking.

There was a row of livestream equipment on the river bank. There were people streaming every two meters. The originally depressing river bank was now filled with all kinds of livestream voices. "This is the scene of the three girls falling into the water. Everyone, follow me. I will bring you to follow the entire process..."

"We haven't found anything on the corpse boat yet. Everyone, look at the place I'm pointing to. This is the place where the male corpse was discovered. By the way, everyone can take a look at the my main page. There are many snacks and melon seeds.. Everyone can eat snacks and watch my livestream progress! "

Chapter 283: Across the River

Amelia shook her head in confusion and asked Alex, "Dad, what are they doing?"

Alex looked at the smoky riverbank and said, "This is probably because humans are scarier than ghosts." Some people didn't mind watching the commotion. In order to gain some popularity, they didn't hesitate to make sarcastic remarks or add fuel to the fire. In their eyes, human lives were just tools that could help them earn money. These people looked like humans on the surface, but they were actually scarier than ghosts.

Amelia bit her lollipop and remained silent.

Alex said, "Mia, what do you need from Dad?"

Amelia shook her head. “Nothing much now.” Her master said that malicious ghosts were also divided into levels. Some malicious ghosts could only come out at night, but some malicious ghosts could also appear during the day. Yesterday, the malicious ghost had killed at least one boy and even grabbed Alex’s foot. She was worried that the malicious ghost was too powerful and would come out during the day to kill people, so she came out to take a look.

Alex said, “Then let’s go back?”

Amelia held the binoculars and suddenly said, “Wait, Dad. Let’s go to the other side. ”

Parks had been built on both sides of the river. However, there were many residences on this side, so there were many people by the river. On the other side, there were office buildings. There were very few people leisurely strolling by the river. At night, this contrast would be even more obvious. It was lively here, and cold on the other side.

Shawn had been livestreaming by the river for more than two hours. His mouth was dry and his skin was about to peel from the sun, but there were still very few people in the livestream. He was very angry. Why was it that while others’ livestreams were so popular, his livestream was cold and empty? He unscrewed a bottle of water and looked at the only eleven viewers in the livestream. He was no longer in the mood to continue livestreaming.

Just as Shawn was drinking water, he suddenly saw a tall man carrying a little girl away from the crowd. The man’s height was too outstanding. The little girl rode on his neck and was much taller than the crowd. At this moment, the surrounding crowd was craning their necks to look at the river. The people holding cell phones were also filming the river, so no one noticed the father and daughter.

Shawn’s eyes lit up. Wasn’t this Amelia?! He had edited Amelia’s video for so many days that he was more familiar with Amelia than anyone else, so he recognized her at a glance! He immediately packed his things and followed! In his heart, Amelia was equivalent to traffic!

It was time to get off work. There were people coming and going. There were car horns, bus horns, and the voices of people chatting. Some people stopped and pointed at the river to discuss.

“The corpse fishing boat is still searching! Have you seen the news today? A boy jumped into the water to save someone without caring about his own safety. The person who fell into the water was saved, but he never came up himself.’

“Didn’t you say that the person who saved her went ashore?”

“That’s the previous news. The latest news just now is that the officials have confirmed the identity of the boy who died. He’s a third-year high school student nearby. The person who went ashore was the second person to jump down to save people. I heard that he’s a very tall man.”

“It’s too pitiful. You saved someone else but lost your life.”

After coming out of the shore, Alex put Amelia down and held her hand as they walked on the sidewalk. He pursed his lips when he heard everyone’s discussion. These people were right. When he jumped down, the two girls had already been saved by the boy. Alex speculated that after the boy jumped down, he first pulled the two girls out and then saved the third one, but he couldn’t come up. The only doubt now was where the third girl was. Logically speaking, if three girls fell into the water at the same time, even if the third girl drowned before they could be rescued, her corpse should be not far from the river. Also, the boy died very strangely. He didn’t seem to have died of exhaustion...

“Go down that way,” Alex said, pointing. “A hundred meters beyond the bridge is a side entrance to the park opposite. We can go straight in there.”

Alex brought Amelia into the park and realized that there were many live streamers here. Although it was not as lively as the opposite side, there were still a lot of people, Most of the streamers followed the boats and even carried equipment to change places from time to time, so Alex did not notice Shawn following behind for a moment.

Amelia was holding a small compass, which Elmer had given her..

Chapter 284: Someone Fell Into the Water

“This way...” Amelia led Alex towards a banyan tree by the water. The banyan tree was not big, and its trunk was only as thick as an adult’s thigh. Its branches extended to the river, and its roots hung into the river.

The compass needle stopped moving at this point.

Alex said, “Here?” There was nothing unusual! He put Amelia down and instructed, “Stay here. I’ll go down and take a look.”

The mud beside the banyan tree was slippery. Alex carefully walked down a few meters and looked up in the direction of the banyan tree root that was covered by the bushes. What he saw frightened him so much that his heart skipped a beat and his scalp went numb!

Under the roots of the banyan tree, a long-haired girl suddenly stood. Her dyed yellow hair hung beside her face. She lowered her head and was wearing a short top with a gray pleated skirt. Her hands were hanging down. Her arms were pale and swollen, and her nails were black. Her legs were also pale. She was wearing a pair of black loafers, and white socks with a circle of beautiful lace.

As if hearing the commotion, the girl fell into the river with a plop.

Immediately after, a sharp scream suddenly sounded in Alex’s ear. “Help! Someone fell into the water!”

Alex turned around. The wind by the river was strong, so he could not see the person who shouted, “Someone fell into the water.” However, because of this voice, people quickly surrounded. ‘Quick, someone fell into the water!’

“Help! Hurry up and save her! Does anyone know how to swim? Hurry up and save her!”

“Hurry up and call the corpse-fishing boat over there!”

Someone shouted anxiously. The shore, which originally did not have many people, was quickly surrounded by seven to eight people. There were also a few bloggers who were filming with livestream equipment. The people on the shore were all talking at once:

“Oh my god, someone fell into the water again. What should we do? I don’t know how to swim. Who knows how to swim? Hurry up and save them!” They were really anxious.

“It’s over, it’s over. Someone fell into the water again. Oh my god, what’s wrong with this river? Why do people always fall into the water?” This was a surprise and suspicion.

“I don’t know how to swim. Aiyo, someone is giving me a gift. Alright, I’ll risk it. I’ll go down and try now! Please pray for me, friends in the livestream!” This was without a bottom line, trying to use such words to get the audience in the livestream to send gifts.

Amidst the commotion, a middle-aged man had already quickly taken off his clothes and was about to enter the water. Seeing this situation, several streamers aimed their cameras at him.

At this moment, Amelia pulled the middle-aged man back. “Uncle, you can’t go down.”

The middle-aged man thought Amelia was worried about him and comforted her. “Don’t worry, Uncle can swim.”

Amelia was anxious. “No, there’s danger in the water...” She refused to let go no matter what. The red light emitted a faint glow, and she was so strong that the middle-aged man could not break free no matter how hard he tried.

The person beside her was anxious. “Aiyo, what’s wrong with you? Why are you wasting time here? Where’s your parent? Which family’s child are you from?!” A few people surrounded Amelia, wanting to pull her away.

Alex had just come up from the wetland by the river. When he saw the situation on the shore, he shouted coldly, “Let go! Who dares to touch my daughter!” His cold face scared the people on the shore into retracting their hands.

Alex looked around and said, "No one fell into the water. I already checked." Everyone was surprised to see that Alex's clothes were indeed wet.

The middle-aged man hurriedly asked, "Have you gone down to take a look?"

Alex nodded. "I looked. No one fell into the water."

Everyone was very puzzled and confused.

When he went down to check previously, Alex had promised Amelia that he would not go into the water casually. Amelia had also given Alex a yellow talisman in advance. After seeing the female corpse jump into the water. Alex wanted to pull her up before she floated far away, but he quickly realized that something was wrong and immediately retreated to the shore. At this moment, he was lying to the crowd. He did not go into the water, at least not to rescue her. However, he was going to call the corpse fishing boat on the river surface next. The situation was unknown. He wanted to stop the ordinary people from going into the water.

However, at this moment, a middle-aged woman suddenly separated from the crowd and ran out. She shouted in panic, "Daughter, that's my daughter!" As she spoke, she ran towards the river. Without any hesitation, she jumped down with a plop and shouted crazily, "Mimi! Mimi! Mommy is here, Mimi..."

"Come back!" Alex shouted coldly! However, the middle-aged woman refused to listen to his advice and rushed into the river..

Chapter 285: You're Not Allowed to Go Down Because I

Said So

This scene happened too suddenly. Before anyone could react, they saw that the middle-aged woman had already rushed into the river. The river water drowned her chest, and then she was pushed down by the river water and struggled.

“Help... Help...” The middle-aged woman shouted instinctively.

Everyone was speechless and anxious. “If she doesn’t know how to swim, why did she go down? Seriously!”

The middle-aged man from before was about to go down again when Alex, who was on the phone, stopped him. “I’ll get the corpse fishing boat from the river to come over.”

A few streamers who were livestreaming shouted exaggeratedly, “Aiya, that auntie is going to drown!”

“The corpse fishing boat is too far away! There’s no time to save anyone!”

The middle-aged man panicked when he saw this, but Alex stopped him from going down to save her.

Seeing Alex stop him several times, the middle-aged man was also angry. “A human life is at stake. What exactly do you want?!”

The surrounding people also said anxiously, “That’s right. He can swim. Let him go down!”

“Hurry up! I think that auntie can’t hold on anymore!”

“What’s wrong with you? Your daughter is causing trouble, and you’re also causing trouble. You’re not anxious just because it’s not happening to you?!”

Alex saw that the middle-aged man was not listening to his advice and was about to rush into the river. He knocked the middle-aged man down with a sweep of his leg and said to Amelia, “Daughter, hold him down.”

Amelia immediately rushed forward and sat on the middle-aged man's back.

The middle-aged man was speechless. He struggled for a moment but did not get up... He felt that the person sitting on his back was not a child, but a huge mountain!

Alex glanced at the crowd coldly. "If I say you're not allowed to go down, no one is allowed to go down!"

Everyone was speechless. They were angry and anxious as they scolded Alex, but Alex ignored them. He made a few more calls.

The corpse fishing boat closest to the river quickly rushed over. Alex estimated the distance with his eyes and the corpse fishing boat should be able to arrive in two minutes. The effective rescue time after a person fell into the water was four to six minutes. After drowning, the effective rescue time was one to two minutes. Even if the middle-aged woman stopped struggling and was rescued in two minutes, the success rate of the rescue was 100%. In other words, as long as the corpse fishing boat rushed over in two minutes, the middle-aged woman would be fine. She would only choke on the water and feel a little uncomfortable.

At this moment, the setting sun was slanting and shining on the middle-aged woman. Alex thought that the only danger was if the malicious ghost at the bottom of the water would pull the middle-aged woman down. However, even if the middle-aged woman was pulled down by the malicious ghost, Alex couldn't do anything. Call him cold or heartless, he had stopped everything he needed to stop. She knew that she couldn't swim, but she still went into the water. Even if she died, the middle-aged woman deserved it. Moreover, he knew that there were malicious ghosts in the river. He wouldn't let innocent people go into the water to die with the middle-aged woman.

Everyone criticized Alex, saying that he was too cold-blooded. A few livestreamers were also very angry and criticized loudly:

"This man is too cold! He also has a daughter! No wonder his daughter stopped others from entering the water previously. It turns out that the upper beam is crooked!"

"Is this person human? How can he be so cold-blooded!"

“To put it nicely, he was afraid that others would be in danger and wouldn’t let them go down. But someone here knows how to swim. He kept stopping them and watched the middle-aged woman struggle in the water. Could it be that he would only be happy if he watched the middle-aged woman die!”

“How hypocritical! Does he think he’ll get a good reputation for stopping others from rescuing her like this? No, he’ll only get accusations and curses!”

Among the livestreamers, only Shawn remained silent. However, his eyes were very bright as he suppressed his excitement. When the “Someone fell into the water” sounded, he had already seized the opportunity. He took out two phones and separated the three cameras to focus on Amelia, Alex, and the woman who fell into the water on the river. He collected all the materials!

Shawn knew very well that the matter in front of him would soon become a hot topic on all the major websites. At that time, no one would be more comprehensive than him. When the time came, he would edit a few videos of complete events and post them every half an hour. He would definitely increase his fans crazily. Shawn felt that he was going to make a fortune!

At this moment, someone exclaimed, “Look!”

A female corpse with yellow hair and a gray pleated dress suddenly floated over from the river. Everyone was sure that it was a female corpse because she was floating motionless..

Chapter 286: Don’t Make a fuss

Just as everyone was bewildered and flustered, a strange scene happened. The female corpse suddenly raised her hand and dragged the struggling middle-aged woman into the river!

“Ah!” The people on the shore exclaimed.

The sun was setting, and the river breeze was cool. But at this moment, the river blew past, and everyone's hair stood on end.

"What's going on? Am I seeing things?"

"Don't worry about it. Hurry up and go down to save her!"

However, at this moment, no one dared to go down. The scene just now was too strange. If the yellow-haired girl was really a corpse, a corpse could drag someone down. Who dared to go down... If the yellow-haired girl was not a corpse but a living person, it was deliberate murder. After they jumped into the water, she pulled them into the water. Thinking of this, everyone did not dare to go down!

Some people looked at Alex and began to rejoice that he had stopped everyone from entering the water previously. Otherwise... who knew if they would be anxious to save people and follow them down!

At this moment, the corpse fishing boat came over. The people on the ship had a better view. A young rescuer shouted, "Found it! Found it!" They saw a struggling woman and a floating corpse on the water from afar and prepared to go over to save them.

An older rescuer instructed, "Bill, keep an eye on them."

The young rescuer's name was Bill. He was very excited. They had been fishing on the river for a day and night and finally found the girl's corpse, The clothes on the female corpse were basically the same as the family's description, but in the next second, Bill saw the female corpse move and suddenly drag the struggling middle-aged woman into the water!

"Oh my god!" Bill's hands trembled in fear! He could see very clearly that the floating thing was a corpse! He had salvaged many corpses, so he could not be wrong! A corpse could drag a living person down?!

At this moment, Bill felt like his scalp was about to explode! His hair stood on end!

“Captain! Captain...” Bill shouted in panic.

The older captain came over with a rope. As he moved quickly, he said, “Why do you look like you’ve seen a ghost? Hurry up and save her and salvage the corpse! Eh? Where is she? I only turned around. Why is she and the corpse gone?”

On the other side, the people who placed the kayak also went down. The tools to scoop up corpses were different from the tools to save people, so they changed the net to scoop up people at the last minute. Both sides worked together to scoop up the people.

The middle-aged woman and the female corpse were pulled out. Everyone saw the female corpse twitch and wondered if they had seen wrongly. Bill’s eyes widened. “Captain! Captain ahhhh!”

The captain was also surprised. “I saw it, I saw it. Don’t make a fuss!”

The middle-aged woman was pulled onto the ship first. The rescuers on the ship immediately went forward to save her. After a while, the middle-aged woman spat out a mouthful of muddy water and slowly woke up. For a moment, she was confused. She got up trembling and shouted with trembling lips, “Mi, my Mi, my daughter! Hurry up and save my daughter!”

The rescue team leader suppressed the agitated middle-aged woman and said calmly, “Your daughter has already been fished out. We understand your grief, but please accept your loss.”

The middle-aged woman was stunned. “What do you mean?” Her daughter was dead? No, no, no. The other two girls had been saved. Why was her daughter dead?! She didn’t believe it!

The middle-aged woman grabbed the edge of the boat and muttered to herself, “No, I don’t believe it. You must have caught the wrong person. I just saw my Mimi. I went down to get my daughter myself. If you don't help me, I'll go down myself..." As she spoke, she jumped into the river. No one could stop her.

The rescuers were speechless. They had seen too many emotional family members. After fishing for so many years, before the corpse was fished out, the family members had a glimmer of hope that their loved ones could still be saved. When the corpse was fished out, some family members could not accept it and fainted on the spot. Some even went crazy and refused to believe it. They even punched and kicked them, scolding them for saving people too late and doing everything. Therefore, they were very experienced in dealing with such matters.

The rescue team restrained the middle-aged woman. The middle-aged woman could not jump into the water. She turned around and pounced on the corpse covered in blue cloth beside her. Without any explanation, she lifted the blue cloth and indeed saw her daughter's face. She fell onto the boat as if her strength had been drained. After a while, she punched and kicked Bill, who was closest to her, crazily.. "What are you doing! Why did you only find my daughter now! Is it so difficult to fish someone out? You're all trash! You killed my daughter! You deserve to die! You deserve to die!"

Chapter 287: Thank You for Your Hard Work

The middle-aged woman screamed angrily. Bill felt very uncomfortable. Originally, he had not slept for a day and a night. As rescuers, they were also happy when they could save people. When they found the corpses, they also felt very uncomfortable and had to be scolded by their families. When they first became rescuers, they were filled with hot blood. Now, this hot blood was being extinguished bit by bit. After seeing too much human nature, he could not help but feel a little lost. Was there any meaning to what they were doing?

The middle-aged woman was still cursing when the rescue boat docked. Alex stood on the shore with Amelia in his arms. When they heard that the people had been fished out, more and more people gathered around.

Amelia felt terrible when she heard the middle-aged woman's ear-piercing curses. She was only four years old, but she felt frustrated for no reason.

"Stop scolding people!" Amelia suddenly shouted angrily. "You're useless! You're the most useless! You only know how to cause trouble and criticize others when you're disobedient! You're the useless one!"

Useless trash!" She felt that this middle-aged woman was too annoying. Even if she was pitiful without her daughter, the uncles and brothers who were scolded were also pitiful!

They all nodded.

"That's right, that's right. It's not easy for the rescuers either. Of the five corpse fishing boats, three are from the Sunny Day Rescue Team. The Sunny Day Rescue Team has always been voluntary rescuers. They didn't take your money or your things. They took the initiative to help you, but you scolded them."

"If you ask me, as a mother, you should be scolded even more! You can't even take good care of your own daughter. After something happened, you only know how to blame others.'

Someone also persuaded, "Alright, alright. Her daughter is gone. Let's not talk too much.'

Alex pursed his lips and looked coldly at the crowd with different expressions. He had long been trained to be cold by killings and human lives. At this moment, his emotions did not fluctuate at all, but Amelia suddenly broke free from his arms and ran to a young man who was silently packing his things with his head lowered.

Bill was arranging the ropes. The heavy pressure in his heart was almost suffocating him. After the high-intensity work ended, his mind and body suddenly relaxed. He only felt tired. He even had the thought of never wanting to work in this industry again. He wanted to give up.

At this moment, a small palm grabbed his hand. Bill was stunned. He saw a little girl raise her head and say to him seriously, "Brother, thank you. You've worked hard! Brother, you're the best. You're as good as Superman!"

Looking at the little girl's serious expression and her innocent and clear eyes,

Bill's eyes instantly turned red. "Thank you..."

After a while, Alex walked over and picked Amelia up. "It's time to go."

Amelia waved at Bill. 'Goodbye, Brother.'

Bill also hurriedly waved goodbye to Amelia. At this moment, a sentence suddenly appeared in his heart: Who said that only those standing in the light are heroes?

Bill laughed. He rubbed his eyes and muttered, "Thank you." The unfamiliar little girl gave him infinite courage again.

Beside him, the middle-aged woman was still crying and scolding. "What right do you have to scold me? Do you know how I feel? You're not the ones who lost your daughter! You don't understand anything! Did I say something wrong? If these people had come to help quickly, my daughter wouldn't have died! Boohoo, it's all your fault. My Mimi, my daughter..."

At this moment, the wind blew the blue cloth covering the girl's corpse, revealing the girl's pale face with wide eyes. No one saw it. Her eyes suddenly trembled for a moment before slowly calming down.

Amelia held the yellow talisman in her hand and frowned. She stared at the blue cloth that had been blown away by the wind in the distance. "This malicious ghost is too cunning. She... Eh?"

Alex said, "What's wrong?"

Amelia pointed at the girl's body in the distance. 'Daddy, her eyes are closed.'

Alex looked over and saw that it was true. No one had noticed the corpse's abnormality just now, but he and Amelia had been paying attention. The corpse's eyes had been wide open, but now they were closed.

Alex: "The male corpse last night wasn't like this..." The male corpse rolled his eyes when he was in the river last night. After he was fished out, his eyes moved twice, and they followed him.

Amelia stared at the river for a long time. Suddenly, she said, "I know, Dad.

We were wrong."

Alex said, "Hm?"

Amelia said, "There should be two malicious ghosts. One is very fierce, and the other is not that fierce. The malicious ghost that pulled Daddy yesterday should be the very fierce one. The one who is not fierce should be in this girl's body.."

Chapter 288: Let's Dress Up

Alex understood. "So the two girls who fell into the water last night were probably two girls. The girl called Mimi was long dead. She was possessed by a harmless malicious ghost and became bait. After the boy saved the two girls yesterday, he saw Mimi as bait in the water, so he went into the water again and was killed by a fierce malicious ghost."

Amelia nodded and gave Alex a thumbs up. "Daddy is awesome!"

Alex raised his eyebrows. "Of course!"

Amelia said, "How did the two young ladies fall into the water last night? Did they see Sister Mimi when they were in the water?"

Alex: "I've asked someone to investigate this. The two girls saw that the river was very beautiful under the lights and wanted to approach the river to take a set of beautiful photos. Unexpectedly, they fell down accidentally. They didn't see the dead Mimi and only felt like they were pulled out. However, they were too panicked and weren't sure if they were pulled out or washed out by the water. At this moment, the boy passed by and immediately saved them. Just as the boy came ashore, they heard another splash. Then, someone shouted for

At this point, it was very clear. The boy had successfully saved the two girls. Originally, neither of them would have died, but the problem was Niimi, who had been possessed by a malicious ghost. When Alex had just gone into the water to check, he had seen Mimi, who had long died, standing upright under the hidden banyan tree. Recently, the river had not risen. The dead Mimi could not climb ashore on her own. Even if she was hung by a branch, she could not stand up straight.

Amelia held the yellow talisman in both hands and said in distress, "Now I understand. I just don't know how to catch the two malicious ghosts." The two malicious ghosts should have discovered her, so they would not approach the shore easily.

Alex lowered his eyes and said in a low voice, "Mia, Daddy will take you on a boat tonight. Are you going?"

Amelia's eyes lit up. "Yes! But Daddy..." She clasped her small hands and whispered in Alex's ear, "The malicious ghost has remembered us. Let's dress up."

Alex scooped Amelia up into his arms and corrected her. "It's a disguise."

Amelia: "Yes, yes! In order for Daddy not to be recognized by malicious ghosts, why don't Daddy dress up as an auntie?"

Alex: "???"

It wasn't until Amelia and Alex left that Shawn put away his phone and left in a hurry. More and more streamers squeezed over, wanting to capture the news of the girl's corpse immediately. Then, they were stopped outside the park by the security guards who had been urgently notified. Shawn walked out without stopping. He couldn't be bothered to film anymore. He had explosive news!

Shawn, who had just returned to the rented apartment, immediately edited the video. After he edited the video, topics like "The girl's corpse has been found", "A man left her in the lurch", "The girl's family scolded the rescue team" happened to rush to the trending searches.

Under different topics, the comments were also different. Under the topic of "The girl's body was found", everyone commented that they wished her to have no pain in heaven.

Under the topic “A man left her in the lurch” was a video of Alex stopping others at the scene and not letting everyone enter the water to save her. There were curses below this video.

“Who is this person? He didn’t go down to save her, but he still stopped others from going down?”

“I’m speechless. How can there be such a person!”

“To be honest, I saw another video. The dead girl’s mother blamed the rescue team for coming too late and killing her daughter. In my opinion, such a person should just die with her daughter. She doesn’t deserve sympathy at all!”

“Although the girl’s death is very heartbreaking, her mother is really too much! The rescue team didn’t rest either, right?! She actually scolded them to die!”

“Isn’t the angle of your discussion off? Aren’t we saying that this man who stopped everyone from saving lives is not a good person?”

“This matter can’t be concluded easily. It seems that because there’s danger in the river, that tall man stopped everyone from going down.”

In order to solve this question, the netizens frantically searched for relevant videos just to see what danger was in the river at that time. In the end, they saw the blurry video of the middle-aged woman who was struggling down and being dragged into the water!

The netizens were shocked.. “Oh my god, did I see wrongly?!”

Chapter 289: Money Tree

“It’s fake, right? The relevant videos are very vague. Did someone deliberately make it for the sake of traffic?”

“I laughed. Nowadays, phones and cameras are all ultra-high-definition. The other videos are all extremely clear. How did it become a high-definition video when the female corpse dragged someone into the water? That’s why I’m certain that this video is fake!”

Hence, the discussion on the Internet about the “girl’s corpse coming back to life” rushed to the trending searches again. Shawn had been waiting for this moment. He had these high-definition videos of the trending topics in his hands! This time, if he didn’t become popular, who would?

Shawn immediately posted the complete video online. He was very smart. He first posted the high-definition video of the girl’s corpse suddenly resurrecting and pulling her biological mother into the water. “The complete incident. First episode: The girl who fell into the water resurrected and pulled her biological mother into the water, trying to perish together!”

In less than half an hour after this video was posted, the number of views soared like a rocket!

The netizens were shocked by this high-definition video:

“Oh my god, this video is too clear! I even saw the pale face of that girl’s corpse! ”

“I didn’t mean to offend you. Bless, bless, bless!”

“Please give me a pair of eyes that haven’t seen this video. Boohoo, it’s too scary.”

“Such a high-definition video must have been made with special effects. There are actually people who believe it. Where are your brains?”

Shawn listened to the ding-ding-ding of the backstage of his phone and felt that this was the most wonderful sound in the world. His video had become a hot topic. In just half an hour, the number of views had exceeded 50 million, and this was only the beginning!

Shawn struck while the iron was hot and immediately posted a second video. "Complete Event, Middle Episode: A man quietly enters the river, followed by someone shouting for help. The corpse of a girl who fell into the water comes back to life. Is it man-made or a supernatural event?"

As soon as the video was released, it attracted a lot of netizens who were squatting down. "Strange, isn't this girl Amelia? What's going on? Why is Amelia related to this matter?"

"In the video, the tall man went under the banyan tree first. He was definitely placing the corpse! I have a bold guess. This girl might have been killed by this man. Then, he took advantage of the darkness to dump the corpse. In order to move the corpse, he deliberately created a scene of a corpse coming back to life!"

"The speculations above are pure nonsense. Have you seen anyone dump a corpse in front of so many people? Look at the video. There are so many streamers livestreaming. Why? Does this man not want to live anymore? To dump a corpse in front of so many cameras."

"Although it's not to the extent of dumping the corpse, I think this girl's corpse is definitely related to this tall man."

The discussions among the netizens became more and more intense. Shawn also relied on Alex and Amelia to easily increase his fans by 500,000! He suddenly became a famous streamer and became famous overnight! With these fans, Shawn would post videos later. Although it was impossible to get a million likes for a video like today, he could still get tens of thousands of likes a day. This was enough for him to live!

Shawn posted a third video. "Complete Event, End Episode: Amelia, the internet celebrity, watches coldly from the sidelines. She's actually indifferent to the corpse. The innocent child who cried on the internet back then, is it really that simple?"

The editing angle of this video was very sharp. Shawn chose the video where Amelia stood quietly by the shore and watched. She was clearly obedient and did not cause trouble, but in Shawn's camera, she became a cold-eyed observer. Back then, Amelia's incident had caused her to have many older sister fans and mother fans on the Internet. Now that this video was released, someone immediately stood up for Amelia. Of course, there were also people who said that Amelia was too scary. She was so cold-blooded at such a young age.

Seeing that his video was getting more and more popular, Shawn was extremely excited. "Hahaha, Amelia, you're really my money tree!"

At this moment, no one in the Walton family was paying attention to the video online. After all, this matter was considered someone else's video to them. Who knew that Amelia would be involved in the end? They were most concerned about Alex now.

The Waltons crossed their arms and looked at Alex, who was dressed as a woman, coming down the stairs.

George walked in from outside and said as he walked, "The boat has been booked..." Before he could finish speaking, he saw Alex dressed as a woman. The corners of his mouth twitched.. Was this still the War God that everyone was afraid of?!

Chapter 290: What Color Do You Like?

Alex's mouth twitched as he discussed with Amelia. "Daughter, Daddy will get you someone. Dress someone else up."

Amelia was very interested. She held a few bottles of nail polish and instructed excitedly, "Daddy, sit down!"

Alex was forced to sit on the sofa. Amelia took the nail polish and applied it to him one by one. Ten fingernails, all colorful. In the end, she didn't even let go of his toes.

Mr. Walton pulled a long face. “Nonsense!” The child wanted to paint nails, and he really let her paint them? He had no bottom line at all!

Eric: “Yes, yes, yes, but... it Mia wants to paint, let her paint!” He was a spectator and even suggested to Amelia, “Mia, use that pink. The pink looks tender.’

Amelia suddenly looked at Eric. Eric’s eyelids twitched. Sure enough, the next second, Amelia clapped her hands. “Fifth Uncle, sit down too...”

Eric was speechless. He regretted speaking.

Eric: “I don’t need it, right? Look at Fifth Uncle, I’m so burly. I don’t need nail polish...”

Amelia said pitifully, “Fifth Uncle needs to be painted too...”

Eric: “Okay, okay, okay...”

Mr. Walton shook the newspaper and snorted. “No principles!” Then his retribution came. After painting Alex and Eric, Amelia’s addiction to painting people’s nails had not subsided. She targeted Mr. Walton, who was sitting closest.

Amelia: “Grandpa, which color do you like?”

Mr. Walton said, “I don’t— Amelia: “Grandpa...”

Mr. Walton: “...Blue, I think.”

Girls loved these things the most. They applied nail polish, imitated their mothers’ makeup, tied Barbie’s hair, and changed their clothes. Amelia, who was addicted, immediately took out nail polish and applied it to Mr. Walton’s nails one by one.

At this moment, George quietly retreated and took out his phone to pretend to make a call.

Dylan remembered that Emma still had homework to do and hurriedly went upstairs. Alex looked at the two of them. Ha, they were family. They would share blessings and hardships together. Why would they run!

Alex said, "Daughter, I think your eldest uncle is most suitable for pink. As for your second uncle, black is not bad. It suits him."

Amelia's eyes lit up. "Yes, yes! Eldest Uncle, Second Uncle, don't be anxious. Mia will be done soon. Line up first!"

The Walton family:

Helena and Mrs. Walton looked at each other, trying not to laugh.

Night fell. In the charter area of Riverside Park, a group of people had strange behaviors. Three men with their hands in their pockets and hoodies lowered their heads and boarded the ship without saying a word. Behind them was a bouncing little boy. Behind the little boy was a woman in a bright red dress. The woman had heavy makeup and looked strange no matter how one looked at it. Behind them was a girl who looked like a university student. The girl smiled and kept taking photos with her phone.

The three men were Alex, George, and Eric. The heavily made-up woman was Ryan, who had been pulled in at the last minute and looked like he wanted to die. The little boy was Amelia, who had been carefully dressed by Helena. She was wearing a wig on her head. It was too dark to tell.

Helena was about to go crazy laughing. Although Alex did not come out in women's clothes in the end, Alex, George, and Eric had all put on nail polish. Amelia even stubbornly insisted that they wear slippers and show their beautiful nails!

They were so embarrassed that their toes dug into the ground!

Helena grabbed Ryan, who was feeling uncomfortable, and said with a smile, “Hey, Sister, you’re out to play too?”

Ryan:

The cruise ship was a small yacht. After entering the private room, Alex and the others immediately took out their hands. They no longer clasped their toes and sat on the chairs to relax. Who knew how they had come all the way!

Ryan’s expression returned to normal. He asked Alex, “Master, what mission are we on this time?” He had only received an urgent message asking him to come over for a mission. Unexpectedly, as soon as he arrived at Walton’s house, Helena and Amelia pressed him down and changed him into women’s clothes.

Alex said, “Come, put this necklace on.” It was an evil-warding necklace made by Amelia.

Ryan, who was wearing female clothes: “???” Immediately after, he saw Alex’s ten colorful fingers. Even his ten toenails were colorful. There was even a small knot tied to his hair!

George and Eric were the same.. George’s ten nails were all pink! Eric’s ten nails were black, and from the looks of it, he seemed to be quite satisfied with the color of his fingernails!
