Even Eve might not be able to fix this

Getting a job at the Lopez Corporation was a deal for Karen. Don't want to get kicked out of the corporation because of her

"That's settled Then You should go to work as usual don't make a scene at the office, and don't argue with Mr. Percy "And what about you? Are you just gonna let them frame you?!

She could put up with the usual office injustices, but this time, Heather wanted to kick her out of the industry for good and take her livelihood away if she just sat back and did nothing wouldn't she be a fool?

Lumina Bay, branch office conference room

Due to the special nature of this project, everyone attending the meeting was a high ranking officer or key personnel.

Kevin was the only one at the secretary level. His presence was tolerated because he was there with Everett

"The confidentiality of this development project is out there. Hope everyone can abide by the contract terms and respect each other's achievements.

Jacob, the recently promoted CFD manager in the branch at Lumina Bay encouraged this the signing the contract

Kevin knew he was lying in the Loper Corporation's alleged leak of some information and was making a point.

He frowned and was about to resort when Everett caught his eye and signaled him to let it go

After the meeting ended and everyone left, Everett grabbed his jacket from the back of his chair and headed straight to the airport.

Kevin followed closely 'Mr Lopez why didn't you tell me maybe some

"Arguing in the meeting would have been pointless and would have delayed my return to Eidama City"

His priority was to get back and support Dorothy

I'm just worried that Jacob might spread rumors"

"He insulted me" "Kevin's lips moved slightly suggesting he had everything under control.

Jacob was necessary for me because he held crucial technology Lumina Bay branch needed a supplier

But that wouldn't last long

The Loper Copco would have achieved what a day if it were all talk and action

This whole thing was quite itong

Dorothy knew that the entire Lopez Corporation was probably talking behind probably badmouthing her in their hearts.

"I don't have time for this. I'm just asking if the reason for my dismissal is because the investigation determined that I betrayed the company"

The HR staff's temper and Yes! You've caused the Lopez Corporation so much trouble

She just hung up and saved the recording

Before, she just wanted to clear her name and expose the truth about Heather's Betrayal But now, Dorothy wouldn't trust anyone anymore.

Once everything was ready Dorothy got up to leave Kameron's house.

As soon as she opened the door, she saw Everett, the CEO of the Lopez Corporation, who was supposed to be in Lumayan business, standing there looking weary and

There he met One indifferent, and

He stood at the corner of the stars and this body shrouded in darkness, his

Dorothy didn't have anything to do with the public notice

She believed Everett wouldn't be so shallow as to play both sides.

But she also knew that there was more than just a difference in status between her and Everett came to take you home." In his next breath, Everett didn't continue to talk about company matters; instead, he extended his hand to her.

Dorothy ignored his plea. Her voice was icy-cold. "I'm afraid I can't go with you anymore"

Everett's

darkened

"Let's end the contract, Mr. Lopez I'll leave Heather alone

She basically fulfilled her duty not to bother with her anymore

Chapter 154

Everett's thin lips were pressed tightly together. He did not utter a single word but the tension in the air had plummeted to an all time low

Dorothy had never seen him like this before and instinctively stepped back Seeming to realize that he had frightened her Everett's handsome face softened a bit, and his low and spy voice hit her ears.

"Mi Lopez, know this situation has put you in a tough spot, so I handle the rest on my own. If I haven't done anything, I'll surely find a way to prove it"

Now that the Lopez Corporation had decided to fire then they'd be on opposing sides in any arbitration or court case.

So Dorothy wanted to clear the air with Everett first.

Things could get even more complicated

But she didn't want to go back with Everett either

"As for the penalty for breaching our agreement, you can tell me when you've sorted things out on your end. I would do it. But today isn't a good day to talk about this. Mr. Lopez, maybe you should leave? This was probably the first time in Everett life that he'd been shown the door.

But when Everett lifted his game to look at her, there was no anger in his eyes, just disappointment,

He thought that their time together would have timed some feelings in Dorothy however slight

Had she not so easily mentioned breaking their agreement today. Everett would have thought she was starting to reciprocate his feelings

"Do you know where I just came from

"Hmm" Dorothy was taken aback by his sudden question.

came straight here as soon as my plane from Lumina Bay landed" Everett's slightly wrinkled shirt was proof of his claim haven't eaten anything since noon. Come with me

Though Dorothy was confused by Everett's sudden change of topic, his humility made his request hard to refuse, especially considering his previous care for her

After a few seconds of hesitation, Dorothy nodded "Okay"

In the end she got into the car with Everett. This time, without Kevin by her side, it was just the two of them

They didn't speak

Just as they were about to reach the restaurant, Everett's phone, which was resting on the dashboard, buzzed, Dorothy instinctively looked down to see a message from what seemed to be his father.

"You must marry Heather! You have no other choice. Your mother's conditions worsened again. She needs to go to the hospital room by herself. Luckily, the nurses found her in time. Are you really willing to abandon your own mother for that woman?"

Before Dorothy could finish reading, Everett had already picked up his phone and Then came another minute of silence, until Dorothy finally spoke, "When are you free? Let's get our divorce papers."

"What's the reason for the divorce?" Everett suddenly turned to look at her.

"There's nothing between Heather and me

Dorothy frowned a little

This was not what she cared about know You've mentioned it before

If Everett's crush was actually Heather, none of this would have happened

But Heather would still be against her.

"Let's eat first" Everett ended the conversation again with a barely audible sigh

He knew that Dorothy was not composed enough to take in what he was saying and make the night

He chose to ignore her requests to cancel the contract and his decision. Her decisions were rash

At the hospital, the bodyguards were stationed at the entrance of Amanda's room just in case she tried to harm herself again

Only her confirming that Everett was not at the hospital did breathe her over to see Amanda

"Amanda, why are you acting so silly? As soon as she entered, so "upped Amanda Even Excellent cost want to marry me, don't force

"That's her mother's problem Heather, you're just too kind You're always looking on the bright side and a ways thinking that everyone has a good side but the world is often not enough for the greedy Amanda was very determined in her heart. She would only recognize Heather as a daughter in law Sweetheart, you must stand flyby my side. For the sake of the Loper Corporation, we have to drive that Deindry away!"

Chapter 156

Heather didn't respond to Amanda's "la" She just lowered her eyes, looking to between two options in a way that was utterly convincing

"Amanda, if we do this, Everett will send us. He'll be less likely to want to marry me. We might not even be friends anymore" get You don't have to lift a finger, since said be the one to pave the way for you to marry into the Lopez family Amanda understood Heather's concerns perfectly.

If Heather got too involved in breaking up Everett and Dorothy even if she did marry into the Lopez family Everett would always have a bamer between them. He would think she was a homeeacker and that she was scheming and had ulterior motives

This wouldn't be good for their relationship in a couple in the Tomp

But if Amanda were the one to play the villain, and be different

A son couldn't harbor resentment against his own mother forever

Heather came today mainly for Amanda's promise But she had to keep up appearances

She looked wowed at Amanda's. 'Don't run your relationship with your son for my sake, Amanda. It's not wise

Think it is Am I supposed to just stand by and watch my noget conned by that Dorothy? How could I watch her step through the doors of the Lopez family? Amanda "Amanda, thank you for always supporting me. No matter what happens between Everett and me, I will always think of you like my own mother?"

Amanda patted her hand in satisfaction then suddenly her face hardened and she raised an eyebrow.

"What did you say Danthy's mother is seriously ("

Amanda didn't say anything else, but her Heather let she made a phone call.

"Look into Dorothy's mother I want details)

She knew her own son forcing to let go might damage their manship, but if he could make Dorothy backoff, out all be with her son, and even disappear completely that would be a different story
Then everything would be easy
In the restaurant, Everett sat across from her

Stated that Everett knew her better than she thought
But the more he was like this, the more Dorothy felt that this absurd situation had to end
What if Everett suddenly asked her to swallow her pride for the sake of the Lopez Corporation and him?
Was she really going to throw away future and be content being kept by Everett "How are things at Lumnia Bay?" Dorothy asked, trying to break the awkward silence.
Everett looked at her as his thin lips moved slightly. "There's no major issue with the project, and your name hasn't been moved Dorothy was taken back. "Not removed? But the Lopez Corporation has already announced that they're Trever said I was firing you. What others say doesn't count"
"That's your father. The chairman of the Lopez Corporation it seems you still don't trust me Everett took a deep breath and spoke slowly.
"Before you left, I told you'd handle this and give you a satisfactory explanation
Dorothy furrowed her brows, wanting to argue, but eventually remained silent.
She wanted to trust him
But the internal announcement had already been made, so how could the

Chapter 157

"Mi Lopez, I know you're trying to help me, but you can stop. I can handle this myself.
Everett found the M: Luper then uttered quite unscolding
"Dorothy we're a couple"
Dorothy did not respond
Now that she was sent Everett didn't know what to say He had a mixture of emotions
They stared at each other for a long time, neither of them looking away Finally Dorothy spoke, Everett, the gap between us is just too big"

Im willing to meet you halfway.” Everet said.

Dorothy shank he head. ‘Do you really think you can just up and leave your parents for me?

Dorothy quickly left Tweet Her face changed as soon as she stood up to leave Everett malining what was happening quickly followed I go win you “Mr. Loper, I just want my mom to live without being disturbed. Pease tel Heather and your mother not in pust people too far?

With that, she jell the restaurant

At that moment. Everett understood what Dorothy meant by gas

Dorothy took a tan straight to het moms

As she walked it, the saw Bella’s dark face

The atmosphere was tense, and Dorothy was unable to say anything

“Mom, I’m sorry

Bella looked at her with a game full of disappointment.

“Do you know why I’m so worried about you being dron ver by men? Do you know why I’d rather die than tre jou bow down to men for money?”

But you

“All my deer made many mistakes. Regret is useless now, the only thing I can n do is make sure my only i Bellas voice was calm, unlike her usual emotional self.

But Dorothy would tanner have her mother yell at her and slap her than sea hat like this.

“Mom, please forgive me this once From now on, I’ll tell you everything, and won’t lie to you anymore. I only made this choice because I was scared of losing you Bella suddenly turned to her daughter, asking in a low voice. What is your relationship with Kenneth?

"He's a good one I can be

Bella had been too hard on Kenneth. She thought of many ways to test her daughter's boyfriend, but, in the end, she only used one word. Mainly because she felt that

But she never expected that her daughter had used him to deceive her

If it weren't for Devell's mother showing up today she would still be in the dark

"Kenneth's Kaver's cousin. He looks out for me quite a bit."

"Cuties with that Everett immediately" Bella thought of the woman who came looking for her just now. She was pissed off beyond measure.

The smug look on the woman's face made it seem like she could stomp to the ground.

There was no way in hell she'd see her daughter marrying that family

"Mom, handle this. You don't have to worry about it. The Lopez family won't bother you "Do you think that's what I care about?" Bella looked at her, and with a tone of helplessness and displeasure, she said. "I care about you

Dorothy lowered her head not wanting to bring up Everett in front of her mom because there were some things she hadn't figured out yet

Of course, Bella noticed her evasion

"Dorothy, you're not falling for this Everett, are you?!"

Dorothy was taken aback. "I'm not!"

"Really? Bella's eyes kept scanning her daughter's face, as if she were trying to see right through her "Mom, he and I are from the world, you know it now. The Lopez family's threshold is not something I can cross. I'm fully aware of that, so I won't have any appropriate thoughts about him!

She said this not only for her mother but also for herself.

Anyone looking at the gap between her and Everett wouldn't think they had a future; they were worlds apart

"That's for me to tell

Force. Bella didn't aggressively force her daughter to make a promise. She just nodded in agreement

After returning to her hospital room, Amanda immediately called Heather Sweetheart don't worry, I went to see that Dorothy's mother, Judging by her manner, she probably doesn't even know what her own daughter is up to. I wanted her not to fantasize about her daughter becoming a phone by marrying into a wealthy family Unless I'm dead, her daughter won't step foot in our hometown" Heather's voice was soft on the other end of the phone. "Amanda, since you rushed over like that, Dorothy will definitely tell Everett Your relationship with him might be affected that's not what I want to see I should've kept this to myself"
Her response was quite clever. No matter about her relationship with her son How happened next, Amanda was told by Heather but would see her as very considerate since she seemed to care have found a way to work off Dorothy if you didn't tell me

Dorothy's voice suddenly dropped. There was a sense of helplessness in her voice. For all these years, I've seen you and Jonathan as "You're still considering him at this point? My foolish son is all blinded by that Dorothy,"

Amanda was cut off by the sound of the door opening
After looking up she saw that it was Everett Amanda instinctively wanted to hang up the phone, but her hand moved over and snatched the phone from her hand
Before she could react. Everett had already seen the number on the screen
He put the phone aside and spoke in a deep voice, I will never marry Heather. The one who has always been Dorothy"

Chapter 159

As soon as he said this, not only did Heather on the other end of the phone fall silent, but even Amanda had expected her son to make much clearer declaration in front of The biggest thing in her heart was her son's dual piety
She thought her son was just trying to struggle a bit more, but as long as she insisted, he would definitely still follow her wishes.
"You guys don't need to plan anything behind my back. It's useless"
Everett finished speaking and hung up the call with Heather
The more in the ward suddenly became silent and chilly

After a while, Amanda medher lips. For that woman, you can even distend your own mother?

"Mom, I can compromise on everything else"

"There is nothing else I wont allow this Dorothy to step into the Lopez family If she's in, I'm out Amanda's emotions are, and
