Chapter 171

Everett sent in bill taken aback by watching her adamant look. He had this sharp side of Dorothy Usually, she kept to herself, not getting particularly close to anyone, normally making enemies, all focusing work.

But he felt that was undemandable. After all, Heather had framed her and caused her a big mess. I was awful!

"Don't worry once we confirm her bad behaviors, the company will take appropriate disciplinary action"

"Yeah, I trust you!"

Dorothy didn't want to keep arguing with Everett over Heather's actions. After all, there were still plenty of headaches to deal with today, the Bellas (that she bathed Heather (outside the hospital, Dorothy looked up at the butting trying to figure out what to say to her mother

While Everett's mom couldn't handle it, her own mother wasn't in the best of health either

After musing for a long time, she ground her teeth and walked in. Bella was having physical therapy in the morning to help her atrophied leg muscles regain some strength so she could work properly. So, when Dorothy first arrived, Bella did notice anything amiss with her daughter

It wasn't until she helped her out of the therapy room that she realized Deaths was more quiet than usual

"What's wrong?"

Dorothy frowned and shook her head. "Nothing, nothing at all"

"You've never been good at lying. Just tell me what had happened"

Belastroped in her tracks, inking at her daughter

The hospital command was busy with people coming and going and though no one was paying attention to them, added to this pressure Dorothy already felt.

Ming that she wasn't, trying anything. Bella's utterly acket. 'Did you tend to that situation with Excuse?! pa!?'

"Mom, about him and me"

"Don't tell me you're now wheeling for each other" of her off. She cut the chase because she somehow understood her daughters mind. Corally velold you before that we cant afford to have any grandiose aspirations! We cant try to become something we're not "hese high society folks in adferent world if they get. boned with you one day you won't stand a chance

Bella had seen it all our the year for own family had brother has than her husband's family they would have dard to treat her the way they aid! Unfortunately she could compete with their family background. The gio in status was too large so she wall: become the one who was bullied.

And now, her daughter was following in her footsteps, getting molved will man from an even more prominent family than the Sancher's it was such a temying thing

Bella knew that if her daughter were bullied of mistreated by me Loper family, she wouldnt be able to do arçiting about it esmif she sacrificed her own life. There were things a woman lice ser could help with Not because she didnt word is handetese, but because the walang be able to.

The Louny

let alone in it looma City even in the home country, could easily attain anything they warned. To put it bluntly, Bella would have no one to tum to even if at the hands of the Loper family.

"Mom wont be the that He's really good to me

1 wouldnt marry your father been good to the Belascoffed. Mengan do anything for you and me you anything when they are in the heat of the moment, You're too young to see him through You are blindsided

Dorothy kn

ut her mom would say from the start. But this time, she didnt waser

"You deftly my daughter" Bella's face darkened, Fine, pou choose not to leave not to leave him, then don't come here priore. Don't see me and don't call me Now!

Chapter 172

Dorothy pursed he is feeling helpless.

She knew her mam well, the moment she opened her mouth shed be spewing venom. That's how the always been for years.

She had been cardantly threatening to cut ties or refusing med ca treatment.

Don't even get a chance" Dorothy's voice trembled with desperation, Just because you made a bad choice when you were young, you kodume al men are like Though she didn't know how her dad had won her man's heart or what their relationship was like, Dorothy believed Everett wouldn't be so impulsive. Everett wouldn't abandon his wife and daughter without a second thought! She trusted him.

"Are you questioning me? Pella was taken aback. She had expected so much to change overnight, 'Do you think I'll harm you?"

PT

Don't think you'll farm me! I just wish you wouldn't let past experiences cloud your judgment. And "Dorothy paused, then continued. "This is my life: to matter what the outcome do I have regrets

The word-case scenario would be misjudging someone

Even without Everett, she could survive

She refused to live under the shadow of a past man just like her mother

"Of course you'd say that. You don't have kids! Imagine you are tricked if you have kids now won't you stop your kid for the same mistake?"

"No, I wouldn't Dorothy, answered firmly his feet Also I wouldn't end my life over a man. If Everett overcharges and stops loving me, I'll forget him and live my life is

She definitely wouldn't become her mother clinging to the idea of a legal wife, rejecting any advances and going away he

She decided that if she were to be wronged she would bounce back as quickly as possible. She could immerse herself in work, school, or even start a new relationship. She wouldn't sink for a man

"Mom, after all these years, it's me to let go Dorothy she has been holding a grudge That's why she was refusing to surrender to that

Woman

At first, she didn't object to her mother's choice. After all, she wanted to save her self and that's a room Pring

But as the years passed she grew up and found the only person to blame in this whole mess was Bella herself

After being hurt Bella refused to socialize with any man: that's what she did, and was even contemplating ending her life. That was the dumbest thing to do Even dumber than busting that man in the first place!

Dorothy believed the best revenge was to do better than those who hurt you

"How can I let go "he said and this Exerent!!

alive and they keep proskinginer Bellasseered quickly getting back on track on think compromise, including you

“Mom How about I bring Everet to meet you and then you can decide.”

“wont meet Men never speak the ruth! You think id believe his promises? His assurances that hell begendte you are just empty words! If he really can't live without you line, let himanster the em Lopez Corporation under your name, then I believe time”

Chapter 173

“You'm really pushing me into a comer here!

Her mother's words sounded like a fairy tale to hel

Dorothy didn't even know when her mother started measuring the solidity of relationships by money

The Lee Corporation wasnt just Everett's; it's the product of generations of the Lopez family's hard work. They simply felt impossible to transfer it into her name,

I'm just using this as an example to show you that no man will give up everything for you. They just talk a big game if you asked

Everett for all his possessions, he wouldn't give them to you and he'd dump you in no time

“That's because he would think I'm a greedy woman then Dorothy responded, feeling that any person would instantly lose their good impression upon hearing such a inques!

That shouldn't even be a cneriont

To put it another way if she was Everett, she would also feel that the gil accepted him only because she wanted something in return.

There is no such thing as being greedy or not. A man's heart is where his money is Bella glared at her daughter sterly And stop calling me greedy. If I wanted to use you for money I wouldnt have refused the money you got from a man to treat my illness even if it meant my death What I'm saying is, I want you to see clearly the gap between you and Everett and how impossible it is!”

“So no man can be trusted as you said I should just never get mamedor have a boyfriend in my whole life!

“That's not what I'm saying” Bela suddenly changed her tone think that Kenneth is a good choice!

Dorothy was taken aback by her mother's sudden mention of Kenneth

“We're just friends” the said, started

“But Kenneth likes you” Bells, having been through it all could tell that

Kenneth was serious about her daughter. If she had to pick a son-in-law right now she'd rather trust Kenneth than anyone else.

Just thinking about the haughty way Event's mother had come to her made Bella shudder. She could already imagine the hardships her daughter would face if she married

A man might be able to protect her once or twice, but if his mother was always picking fights and bad mouthing her their relationship wouldn't last long.

With Everett as a CEC, there would be plenty of girls trying to seduce him. What would happen to her daughter then?

Compared to that, at least Kenneth's parents had been polite and genuinely liked Dorothy when they met

"Mom, there's no chance between Kenneth and me."

"Then there's even less chance between you and Everett, unless you wait until I'm dead"

'Mom!'

I'm going back to my hospital room. If you still believe in love, you don't have to come anymore. Out of sight, out of mind. I don't want to see my daughter ending up like

With that, Bella left her daughter behind and walked away, leaning on the wall for support.

Dorothy knew it would be hard to change her mother's mind right away. She needed to think of another way. She couldn't possibly break off her relationship with her mother because of Everett Dorothy's name had almost become taboo at the HQ of the Lopez Corporation. She was the only one who had been publicly fired on the group's official website and then had the decision reversed.

That was very unusual.

After all, for an investment department assistant to be personally ordered to be fired by the chairman was news in itself.

But to have the decision reversed by the CCD

That was simply shocking. Even a fool could guess what was going on.

During the lunch break, two female colleagues couldn't help but gossip about it.

"Do you think Dorothy has some dirt on our CEO

"I would believe it if it was someone else, but Mr. Lopez? I don't buy it. He's like a glacier, never showing interest in women, and he's very careful and serious about his work. I don't think he'd touch any dirt."

The taller woman thought for a moment, then leaned in closer to her colleague and lowered her voice. "But I have seen Dorothy. She is quite

"Do you think Mr Lopez lacks beautiful women around him?"

Put it this way. Dr. Lopez could have any woman he wanted if he wished but

Chapter 174

Just as they were about to say something they suddenly locked up and saw Heather standing in front of them.

She was staring right at them. Obviously she had heard their conversation, "The Lopez Corporation pays you to gossip, huh?"

Said Ms. Heather. The two staff members immediately stood up bowing and begging in silence.

Heather glanced at them, "You don't have to apologize to me. I report this to your department head. You can explain things to him."

With that, she turned around in her high heels and headed straight for the CEO's office

Heather had asked in advance and knew that Everett was in the office so she knocked on the door

Only when she heard a voice from inside did she push the door open

Everett glanced up for a second, then continued to look at the documents in his hand. His attitude towards her was completely different from when he first returned to the country

Back then, he might not have been very enthusiastic, but at least he treated her as his right-hand woman, a good partner at

All because of one Emily that junior assistant!

Heather's pupils dilated. She stepped forward, walked to his desk, and handed the envelope in her hand

"Everett, I know you've already decided that I'm framing boys. Useless no matter explain it won't waste my time. I choose to resign as chief counsel. Here's Hearing this, Everett finally responded and locked up. The truth is the truth and it's not determined by me

"But the only thing I hate about is your judgement. Everyone else can wrong me, and I don't care. No matter what the defendants said about me in court before, I never took it to heart. I can also ignore the rumors about men in the company now. But your behavior makes me feel like everything I do is in vain. Heather's eyes never left Everett's face

It's true that Everett had given a lot to Dorothy. He had been treating her like a race

But

Heather's efforts for Everett were no less!

The Lopez Corporation has been established for so long and encountered so many troubles. She worked through the right to collect information and trick about how in solve them. She made everyone in the industry know that the Lopez

Corporation had a tough lawyer and reached a consensus better not touch the Lager Corporation's legal department

She really thought that after this incident, the worst Everett could do was to stay neutral!

She really didn't expect that he would completely believe Dorothy

This made Heather feel like her years of hard work were a joke!

A big joke

"You know whether you did it or not, the company won't wrong you. It all depends on the evidence"

"Is there any evidence now that points to me framing Dorothy?"

Heather laughed, "You're just looking for a chance against me, so why bother with the word investigating. Now for the sake of Amanda's health, I'm willing to resign myself. Whether you blame me or try to clear Durys name, I only have one condition let's pretend to be lovers in front of Amanda"

Seeing Everett not speaking she frowned

"You should know whether the

make it out of the emergency room again!

Heather knew Everett didn't want to agree, but she knew on well that this was the only way right now.

"You done

Chapter 175

"Ever!!! Are you really gonna ditch your mom for Dorothy? Man you're really head over heels for her!

He didn't respond but just stand up and opened the office door, he said,

"Please".

Heather's expression was priceless! Her face was a mix of embarrassment, awkwardness, and anger all at once

But Everett was still as indifferent as ever. He couldn't even be bothered to give her a glance

But Heather let Everett glance at the letter on the table and went back to call HR.

“Process Heather’s resignation Yeah, she quit voluntarily”

Everett expected his father’s worst, so when he saw Jonathan it was after a meeting he wasn’t surprised.

Everett was halfway to hoping a message to Dorothy “Don’t argue with your mother either after setting things out here.” He typed.

Everett knew his mother didn’t speak well when she wished her Dorothy could handle it alone

So you no longer care about your father now

all you were annoyed by his son’s indifference

“If you’re here about Heather I have nothing to say She resigned on her own”

He didn’t make her out

“You don’t know why she quit?”

On this top of home, Jonathan realized had changed a lot. He was no longer the workaholic he once was, but rather prioritized Dorothy in everything

Lopez Corporation would definitely be affected by Heather’s departure and my son surely knows that! He thought

“But you stopped her projects in the company because of Dorothy. Isn’t that the same as forcing her? kay?” Jonathan rubbed his forehead, not wanting to argue with his son at this time the less to worry about his wife’s health conditions as well. “Everett, didn’t tell you? I don’t want to force you to cut Dorothy completely, but you need to know your panties! It’s foolish to let a woman affect your career

Everett knew Heather was playing the door in the face. She just wanted to stir up hatred for Dorothy in the Lopez family

You say this because you don’t know Dorothy She’s going to be a major asset in investment Banking “That’s because of your strong support. Otherwise, she would never quit for a job at Lopez Corporation” Jonathan waved his hand and took a deep breath, “You can agree to Heather’s resignation. Your mother doesn’t know yet. If she finds out she’ll get emotional again! Everett I don’t want to bypass you and talk to Dorothy directly Do you understand

The threat was clear in his WORSE

Everett knew his father wasn’t joking. If his father interfered and targeted Dorothy, things would get more complicated.

Till handle it appropriately

“You better believe Also, you must promise me that you won’t let Dorothy get involved in the core business of Lopez Corporation! You can give her money or assets, but you can't gamble the entire Lopez Corporation for some romantic feelings

Chapter 176

Everett furrowed his brow not digging the way his dad was calling the shot on someone's future

"I can only promise you if Dorothy ever makes it to the core of the Lopez Corporation, it's gonna be because of her own abilities?"

"If you're so certain of Dorothy's capabilities, why can't you give Heather a look see and see what she's done for the company?"

Your mom's dead set on her as a daughter in law, so she's gotta be a catch"

Heather got what she deserved for her work"

Everett didn't feel he owed Heather jack!

Surely she'd put in a lot of elbow grease for the Lopez Corporation, but she always earned the most yearly bonuses among the entire legal department

He stepped back not because I'm scared of you but because I fear your mother's death?" Jonathan huffed "Think about the rest yourself."

With that he got up and left the office

Everett went back to his desk and glanced at his phone

A message from Dorothy was on the screen

Junda tricky Let's wait she's discharged. How about you?

I'm good pick you up after work]

[Alright]

Looking at the "Alright" she had sent, Everett fell silent for a long time

He wasn't sure how this whole thing was going to end, but he knew he wouldn't give up on this

Just as she put down her phone, Dorothy looked up to see her mother eyeballing her Straight on, as if she had something to say.

"What's up? Feeling !!?!"

"Ack Kenneth to come to the hospital tomorrow" Bella, anticipating her daughter's resistance, added directly "You tell him, or I can give him a good talking to"

Dorothy sighed, "What for? He's swamped with school stuff"

Take him. Cari just have a chat with him?"

She said it like that, but Dorothy was no fool, she knew what her mother was up to!

“Mom, don’t drag innocent people into this.”

“You were the one who introduced him to me! Now I want to talk to him, and you’re saying no.” Delta shrugged, “Whatever, I’ll sell him myself”

With that, she reached for her phone.

Dorothy quickly chimed in, will tell him talk to him after his work, She was worried about her mother’s tone and manner which could be off putting

Over the years, Bella never learned how to communicate properly It was always threats and cold remarks.

Under her mother’s game, Dorothy opened her laptop and continued her work. As long as the Lopez Corporation didn’t officially fire her, she had to keep working

She knew that if she slacked off even a little she could fall far behind. By then, even if she got her job back, she wouldn’t be able to keep up with the project progress.

She worked nonstop for several hours before finally finishing the data investigation and sent the document to m

As right fell and it was about time for Everett to get off work, she got up to tidy up. “Mom, come see you tomorrow”

Are you spending the right with that Everett Bella asked in bluntly that Dorothy was at a loss for words

Seeing her silence. Bella got the picture with a stern face, she suddenly spoke, “I know if I don’t push you to divorce, the Lopez family will also find a way to get rid of you. It’s inevitable. I just want you to keep some dignity to the end“

“He wants ‘

“You’re that sure? Bellarda bom at her daughter wighting heavily. “You truly are my flesh and blood, as stubborn as me thought if I constantly warned you, you would tread the same path I did But life has a funny way of messing with our plans.

Dryer mother was thinking about her father again.

She also knew her mother would sabotage her But Everett had done so much for her that she trusted him.

If Everett was the kind of man who breaks his promises easily, he could have just freed me and been with Heatherby now”

That would have solved everything

Everett had a thousand ways just as Kevin had said to ignore her to ignore the problems, to care only about the Loner

Corporation’s interests, and to forget about her fate

But he hadn’t Even when she herself had wanted multiple times, he hadn’t agreed instead telling her in his own way.

He would have agreed to a divorce

Forget it You won’t believe me no

Dorothy looked at her, ‘SUIT what 153 DOW

can you’re giving your blessing

“Of course not! Be laid down quickly. I just don’t have the energy to argue with you anymore. I remembered what Kenneth said to me when he visited the hospital. He said you’ve been having a hard time, and when I say harsh words, you’d be upset for a long time

Dorothy was momentarily silent. She hadn’t expected Kenneth to tell her mother all that.

Bella chuckled as remembering something don’t easily trust a man. But Kenneth is the first in years who Hell Fcan must a little. He really considers things from your perspective, even if it means offending me

“Mom, Evendres all these mines too! Cant arrange a time for him to meet you?”

“No need” Bella waved her off, ‘Meeting would be pointless. Let’s not waste time

She didn’t believe he’d say her had a shot with the high and mighty Inper family Theron her longer wanted to argue with Dorothy was because she knew the

Loper family would have taken care of breaking them up themselves

She didn’t need to interfere

And she really did remember near

Dorothy was the only family she had left in the world Harsh words would have only hurt her and ruined their relationship really wasn’t right to do so

Dorothy wanted to plead for Everett a few more times, but in the end, she held her tongue

It was not because she had changed her mind, but because she didn’t mark in was the nightmare

Maybe after Everett’s mother gave her blessing she could have eventually met her mother. By then, Bella would have nothing left to

After setting with her mother Dorothy left the hospital

Evers car was a ready mating at the gate.

She glanced at her phone and realized he hadn't sent any messages

'How long have you been waiting?'"

I just got here. Everett's key expression warmed up to a smile upon seeing

Dorothy He got up and opened the car door for her

Dorothy paused. "You could have texted me. I would have come down sooner"

"It's not urgent, I don't want to interrupt your time with your mother and make her feel he was stealing

Chapter 178

Everett widened to wanting for Dorothy

He had been doing it for years.

As the sunset started to fade. Dorothy looked up at him

All those years and seemed like time hadn't touched him. Look closely he's still got that boyish charm

"You should smile more Stop looking so serious

"All night." Everett nodded. He waited for Dorothy to get in first before he took the driver's seat

He didn't bring his assistant today, which made Dorothy feel like they were just an ordinary couple going home after work, cooking dinner, and falling asleep in each other's

However, Everett was anything but ordinary

Dorothy wanted to ask about his mother, but she couldn't bring herself to

She didn't want to break the peace of their little world

Back Bay Residence. Everett changed into something more comfortable and headed for the kitchen, followed by Dorothy

'Let me cook tonight. You can go and take a break.'

He always said he was not tired, but the weariness on his face said otherwise Dorothy knew how much work he had to do for the Lopez Corporation, yet he still managed to find time for

"I want to spend more time with you Everett didn't leave but continued chopping vegetables

Dorothy smiled and joined him, enjoying their quiet time together.

Their peace was short lived, however, as the doorbell rang

Everett paused glancing at Dorothy who hesitated

'Should I hide in if your family?'

"No need to hide it does not matter who it is

"Dorothy this is your home, but

His words gave Dorothy a surge of courage

She nodded. "Winght, then

lmer the door together".

When they got to the door, they saw who it was through the peephole

Everett frowned, clearly not happy to see her

Aber a pause, Dorothy spoke softly "You should talk to Heather alone. Il go cook. Even if you cant standhe try to keep the peace for your mother's sake

Dorothy didn't want to see Heater, but she knew that Everett had to juggle a lot of things right now, including worrying about his mother's health.

"Okay" Everett agreed it was best not to let the two women meet right now.

After watching Dorothy walk back to the kitchen, Everett opened the door.

But he didn't invite Heather in. He just stood in the doorway

*What

"Your father told me you agreed to pretend to b

Everett frowned. "I didn't say that."

lto be my boyfriend"

10h, then forget I came. He said you agreed and asked me to go with you to visit your mom at the hospital. If that's not the case,

I leave. With that Heather burned to Suddenly Everett stopped her

"Heather, Jeffrey said I should respect you for your contributions to the Loper Corporation"

Chapter 179

In other words, she would better not to trash her last bit of dignity hersell,

Heather chuckled after hearing that

"You'll come braging me, because your dad has decided to put the screws on Dorothy"

Everett scowled abruptly shock making a mine appearance on his unually stole handsome face. What did you say?!

"Everett, you've changed" Heather paused, "You've got a soft spot.

Darathy was his soft spot!

People, once they have weaknesses, are no longer invincible and will have their own considerations

After the left. Everen returned home to see Dorothy rushing out of the kitchen,

"Something came up with my mom, I need to go!

Cant have dinner with you now" "What happened?

Tm not sure. The doctor called me and said she got right and had a bean attack!

Even instantly thought back to what Heather had just said. Til go with you”

“No need Dorothy looked at him, “My mem hasn’t accepted you yet. If she makes up and sees you, she might lose control again!

Just wait for once everything’s settled”

Til drive you to the hospital

Seeing his persistence, Dorothy had no choice but to nod

Upon reaching the hospital Dorothy did even have time to say goodbye before ringin

Everett watched her disappear from sight, then duded his father’s number

Aber a few rings the call was picked up

“Everrell whats up?

“You messed with Dorothy’s mom me at home. Il be back

Jonathan just hughed, without gringa direct response, Son, when will you tealue the gap between you and that Dorothy? You two are not compatible”

Tve told you that Dorothy is my line in the sand. Hands off Everett’s hard clenched the steering wheel tightly his veins bulging eyes as heavy as ink.

“If your mom heard this, she would be heartbroken You’re ignoring your own mother’s life for a woman As your faec it’s my duty to discipline you” Jonathan kept it short and simple. The already geen in Just put on a show for your mom with Heather I don’t care what you do with Dorothy privately! If you can’t eam do that don’t blame me for going too far You can protect Dorothy, but you can’t protect everyone around her nor het reputation and credibility in the business world”

As the chainman of the Loper Corporation, it wouldn’t have been hard to run Dorothy! Even with Everett’s backing Dorothy would have been ignored, no matter how hard she Tied. She would have been dismissed as a trophy wil

Everett was then confident that his father was behind the incident with Dorothy’s mother tonight

“Don’t you dare lay a finger on her “He gutted his teeth, his pawline sharp. I consider what you said

“Good Aher all, I don’t want to cause ant betweenus and become a laughingstock

Not long after hanging up, Everett received a message from Dorothy saw your car downstairs, you can go home. My mom's okay don't worry! She just got scared

Chapter 180

Everett instinctively looked in a certain direction, like he had some sort of sixth sense, immediately catching Dorothy's gaze

After sending the message, he simply pulled up his work software and started skimming through documents.

Ever since Dorothy came into his life, Everett wanted to return to Bay Fonceuse alone anymore! He felt it needed a lady of the house to truly make it a home.

When he started working he was prepared to pull an all nighter, planning to catch a cat emergency on Barathy's end and not being able to be there in the

at the office in the morning! But most importantly, he was worried about any As time ticked away during the early hours of the night Everett surprisingly saw her hastily eating the "soup!

She saw Everett's car and quickly went over to knock on the window

"Surprised? Bet you didn't expect me to come pull you!"

chuckles, opened the door, and stepped out "Hmm, is your mom okay?"

"Nothing was seriously wrong to begin with She just had a real shock from the shock, but she's as good as dead! The doctors and nurses are looking after her, so I came out." Dorothy knew from Everett's "It was for your message that she didn't go back to Bay Residence with him today he was planning to wait at the hospital the whole time. So, when handling her mother's situation, she went down immediately!

Everett's workload was already massive, and his free time was state and now even more so the winter Everett to go home and get some proper rest

Everett asked "So, can you leave the hospital now?"

"Yes, let's head home

With that. Dorothy got into the passenger seat

Everett looked at her profile and suddenly said "How's Bella's health now? Should we change hospitals?"

Dorothy was startled, "She's already had her surgery. Why would we change hospitals? She just needs rehabilitation now, and she can be discharged once she's fully self-reliant

was thinking of providing Bella a better place for recovery!

"No need She's used to it here

Dorothy didn't think much more about it. Besides, she was bled him all the running around

On the way back, she only spoke a few words to Everest before falling asleep

When they arrived at Bay Residence, Dorothy was still asleep. It was Everell who carried her back to the bedroom.

Seeing her curled upon the bed, he felt a real sense of possession That was why Everett seemed a keen on bedroom actresses

It seemed that only when he held her in his arms, entered her body, and saw her cheeks flushed for him could he prove that it wasn't a dream but reality.

The girl he had yearned for since his youth truly belonged to him at that time

The following day in the morning Demity was woken by a call from ne

"Heather resigned voluntarily, and she even posted a long Twitter thread admitting that she accidentally leaked the documents

Upon hearing that, she immediately opened Twitter.

As Dory had predicted, Heather's admission didn't put an end to the matter Inarudi reignited the debate!

Most of the comments were comforting Heather, the perpetrator, suggesting she might have been threatened

Some even said Heather was too kind hearted, and she admitted to it because she did want in in the asstart's future!

All because she did mention how she set up the trap in her past

Even the motive was vaguely described, giving off a sense of being debately fabricated

That was Heather's skill. She knew how to stop back to advance

At the moment when they were at loggerheads, she played that move.

Even the evidence could eventually prove that Heather was framing Dorothy, some people would have still doubted that the evidence was fabricated just to clear Cory'
