

Chapter 172: If Liam Stops Loving Me

Suzy tightly pressed her lips together, feeling a sense of powerlessness.

She knew her mother would always say something harsh as soon as she opened her mouth! Over the years, it had always been like this, either threatening to cut ties or refusing treatment at the drop of a hat!

"Do I not even have a choice?" Suzy's voice trembled, struggling with agitation.

"Just because you made a wrong choice when you were young, you conclude that all men are like Dad?"

Although she hadn't witnessed how her father had won her mother's heart when he was young, nor did she know the course of their relationship, Suzy didn't believe Liam would be such an irresponsible man!

He couldn't possibly abandon his wife and daughter, ignoring them completely!

She trusted Liam!

"Are you questioning me?" Melissa was taken aback by Suzy's sudden change of behavior overnight. "Do you think I would harm you?"

"I don't think you would harm me. I just hope you won't let one bad experience affect you for years to come, and... "

Suzy paused before continuing, "This is my life, regardless of the outcome, I don't want to have any regrets."

The worst-case scenario was simply that she had misjudged him, and even if she left Liam, she could still move on.

She wouldn't live her whole life in the shadow of that past relationship like her mother did!

"You're saying this because you don't have children! Just imagine, if you had children now, and you had been deceived once, wouldn't you try to stop your child from making the same foolish mistakes as you?!"

"I wouldn't." Suzy's response was firm.

"Because that's their own business! And besides, I wouldn't choose to end my life for any man. If Liam were to change his mind and stop loving me in the future, then I would also forget about him and focus on living my life."

She absolutely wouldn't follow her mother's path, choosing to cling to the identity of a lawful wife, rejecting any advances from others, and locking herself and her feelings away in solitude.

She felt that if she were disappointed, she would adjust her state of mind in the shortest time possible.

Whether by throwing herself into work, indulging in travel and entertainment, or even starting a new relationship, she would not stay trapped in one man's world.

Melissa was speechless.

"Mom, actually, it's been so many years, you should let it go."

Suzy understood her mother's grudge.

She was angry, so she refused to divorce or bow down to that woman.

Initially, Suzy didn't oppose her mother's actions, considering it normal to assert oneself.

However, as the years passed and she grew older, she felt... in the whole situation, the only person still trapped in the past was Melissa herself!

After being hurt, she refused to socialize, rejected any advances from men, and even thought of ending her life, which was the most foolish thing to do.

It was even more foolish than trusting that man in the beginning!

Suzy believed that the best revenge was to live better than those who had hurt her.

"How can I let go? Neither of those bitches has died, and they have repeatedly provoked me!" Melissa sneered, immediately returning to the main point. "Don't expect me to compromise, this Mr. Park is no exception!"

"Mom... How about I bring him to see you once, and then you can decide?"

"I won't see him! Men never speak the truth! Do you think I'll believe any of his promises? His assurance that he'll treat you well is just empty words!

"Fine, if he truly can't live without you, then he should transfer the entire Park Group to your name. Only then will I believe him!" 1

ENJOYING THE BOOK?

Give it a rating to show your support!

Not interesting at all

Very interesting

Comments

Support