

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1075

“Where do you think you’re going, Nameless Qin?”

“Hahaha! You’re finally done for!”

An overwhelming number of people swarmed toward him in all directions.

They were laughing cathartically.

Now that they had caught that cunning brat, they could reclaim their stolen treasures.

“You’re not going to run away this time, filthy brat!”

The head of the Yushi family held the spirit snake in his hand as he rushed over.

“If you know what’s good for you, hurry up and return the treasures of our Great Allheaven Sect! That way, I can give you a quick death. Otherwise, I’ll make you suffer a fate worse than death!”

“And the treasures of the Great Cosmic Echo Sect!”

“And the treasures of the Great Sacred Flame Sect!”

The sect leaders rushed up and stood side by side as they berated Tang Hao.

Following that, the people behind rushed up and stood behind the sect leaders. All of them gritted their teeth and glared fiercely at Tang Hao.

“Do you dare fight me again, Nameless Qin?”

The Path-Chosen of the Deathless Sect rushed up, stood behind the Deathless Sect leader, and shouted at Tang Hao.

“Let’s fight again, Nameless Qin!”

The Path-Chosen flew over and shouted angrily.

Tang Hao looked at them and frowned harder.

From their qi auras, he could tell that they were in the State of the Nascent Soul. They all had at least five nascent souls, and some even had six.

As great ancient sects and conferred families, they definitely had some method of resisting the Tribulation of Lightning.

“Let’s fight again, Qin!”

A beam of golden light rushed over and roared angrily. It was Jiang Tianwu. He was riding a golden flying tiger and wearing golden armor. His qi aura was awe-inspiring.

Tang Hao could tell from his qi aura that Jiang Tianwu had more than five nascent souls. It was likely that he had seven.

After that, Tang Hao examined various parts of his body. He suddenly seemed quite excited.

That guy had a new set of gear. It was better than what he had the last time.

'He's indeed an eternal monster!' Tang Hao thought.

That guy was not as lucky as Ji Wu, but he was still far luckier than an ordinary person. In addition, he was from a conferred family, so he would not be lacking treasures.

Following that, he heard the cry of a deer. A nine-colored ray of light rushed over from the horizon, and Yao Tian soon came into view.

Yao Tian smiled and said, "I happened to be busy last time, Qin, so I had to leave in a hurry. What a pity! Good thing that I'm free right now. Let's have a good fight."

He lied without feeling a single hint of shame.

Tang Hao could not help but swear inwardly, 'F*ck, now you want to fight! All of you have advanced into the State of the Nascent Soul. Do you plan to bully me?'

"All of you, get lost! That guy is mine!"

At that moment, an angry shout was heard from the horizon.

Ji Wu was here!

He sped over while riding a black python.

He was wearing rainbow crystal armor, and a pair of golden wings sprouted from his back. He looked like an ancient divine general.

The black python under his feet was a hundred meters long. It looked monstrously ferocious.

Tang Hao could not help but be stunned when he looked at him.

It had not been too long, but that guy had already found another set of armor!

"As expected of a hacker!" Tang Hao mumbled gloomily.

Soon, the black python arrived in front of Tang Hao. Ji Wu stared at him coldly and said, "Nameless Qin, you stole my treasure and even pretended to be me. How shameless! Today, I'll kill you, get my treasures back, and vindicate myself!"

Tang Hao looked at him carefully and was secretly shocked.

That guy probably had more than seven nascent souls. He should have eight. Meanwhile, Tang Hao did not have even a single nascent soul. The two people were at different levels of power.

Even if Tang Hao was full of treasures, he was still no match for Ji Wu.

What surprised him even more was that Ji Wu had a star between his eyebrows.

'Does the star belong to Yan Wudi or the other Void-Chosen from the Second Continent?' Tang Hao wondered.

Yao Tian still had his star, so the one on Ji Wu's forehead could only belong to those two other people.

He looked around grimly.

There were too many people, and many leaders of the great sects and conferred families were there. There was no way to escape.

"Are you still thinking of escaping, Nameless Qin? Let me tell you, you shall die today!"

"Kill that supervillain and restore peace to the First Continent!"

Everyone shouted. The crowd was furious.

The First Continent had been chaotic ever since that guy came. First, the Void Realm was turned upside down, and after that, even the real world became involved.

That kid had deceived them and robbed them multiple times.

They wanted to kill that kid to quell their anger!

"Kill him! Kill him!"

Everyone became more and more excited.

"Haha! That kid had provoked everyone's wrath. Anyone who kills him would have done a great deed for the First Continent."

The patriarch of the Jiang family stroked his beard and smiled happily.

He had nothing but hatred for that kid, and he would have personally annihilated that kid in body and soul if not that he had a reputation to keep.

The Path-Chosen and the three eternal monsters brandished their qi auras and weapons in preparation for the attack.

At that moment, Tang Hao grinned and laughed.

“Hahaha!”

The more he laughed, the louder it was.

“How can that kid still laugh? He must be crazy!”

When everyone saw that, they began to laugh mockingly.

Suddenly, Tang Hao’s laughter faded, and a vicious expression appeared on his face. “You want to kill me? It won’t be that easy!” He said coldly.

“How can you be so arrogant when you’re about to die?” Everyone shouted.

Tang Hao sneered and did not respond.

He took a deep breath, and his gaze became resolute.

He waved his hands, and a torrent of light gushed out and surrounded him like the Milky Way.

Those were huge spirit stones.

Within the torrent of spirit stones were six spots of light. They were big golden pills.

“Those are...?”

Everyone was taken aback, and a look of confusion appeared on their faces.

“Those are Nascent Transformation Pills! He’s going to break through to the State of the Nascent Soul!”

Suddenly, someone shouted.

“Six pills... Does he want to convert six nascent souls? Oh no, he wants to trigger the Tribulation of Lightning!”

In an instant, all the faction leaders became fearful.

Even they feared the divine might of the Tribulation.

Hearing that, everyone was also greatly shocked.

“Stop him!”

The Jiang family patriarch shouted loudly. He brandished his qi aura and dashed forward.

However, Tang Hao opened his mouth and inhaled. He swallowed the six pills along with the spiritual liquid formed from countless spirit stones.

Boom!

A monstrous qi aura erupted from his body. Endless flames surged out and swept in all directions.

“That’s... not an ordinary flame-type nascent soul. It’s the Nascent Soul of True Flame!”

Everyone cried out in shock.

Following that, there were flashes of lightning and blizzards. The physical anomalies appeared in succession.

In the blink of an eye, six nascent souls were formed.

The sixth nascent soul was accompanied by a terrifying killing intent. Suddenly, everyone heard a low rumble in the sky.

The Tribulation of Lightning had begun!
