

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1105

Bang! Bang!

The earth shook.

The sounds were like thunder as they echoed in the sky and in everyone's minds.

Their eyes widened as they stared blankly at the immense creature in front of them.

Its entire body was covered in gold and iron, and it had an indifferent expression on its face. Lightning flashed on its chest, and its qi aura was as terrifying as a god.

The one that had been pinned on the ground was a patriarch of a conferred family! One of the most powerful figures on the First Continent!

The scene was too shocking.

The other faction leaders' faces turned pale with fear.

"What is that thing?" The Feng family patriarch gulped and said hoarsely. "Where did that kid get such a blasphemous object?"

"It... it can't be a treasure from the Yellow Dragon Palace, right?"

The Yin-Yang Sect leader's face turned pale.

"Impossible! That's the tribulation lightning that he collected with his lightning reservoir last time. How did it end up in that monster?" The Great Allheaven Sect leader said.

His face was wracked with confusion. The scene in front of him was simply unbelievable!

Boom! Boom!

The ground continued to sink.

"Ahh!"

Suddenly, a loud roar erupted from the pit.

The Barbarian God's immense body was knocked back.

Whoosh!

A figure leaped out from the pit. His clothes were tattered, and his face was smeared in blood, but his qi aura was as strong as ever.

The patriarch had a savage expression on his face. Extreme madness flashed in his eyes.

He had already lost to the kid once, and that was an embarrassing episode. This time, he was beaten up again. How was he going to face anyone in the future?

“That’s a nice trick, brat, but it’s not enough to kill me!”

He stood in the air and expanded his qi aura.

Suddenly, a golden whip-shaped mark lit up in the spot between his eyebrows.

“He’s summoning an ultimate treasure!”

The people in the crowd exclaimed.

At that moment, in the Jiang family estate tens of thousands of miles away, a lake suddenly began to boil. The water churned violently as though a monster was thrashing.

Along with it was a magnificent power.

The people in the Jiang family were shocked. They ran over and looked at the lake with astonishment.

That was the center point of the Jiang family estate and where the ultimate treasure of the family was kept.

The commotion meant that the ultimate treasure was about to be unearthed!

What could have happened? Why would the patriarch need to summon the treasure?

The last time the treasure was used was hundreds of years ago!

Boom!

The lake exploded, and a golden ray shot into the sky.

It was a pillar several tens of meters long. It shone with divine light, and on it were carved ancient talismanic runes.

The clouds swirled and the sky darkened when the ultimate treasure appeared.

The pillar shot upward into the sky. At its peak, it flew toward a certain direction.

The spectacular scene shocked the entire continent.

“Oh my god, that’s the God Slaying Whip! The Jiang family’s ultimate treasure!”

“Are the faction leaders fighting something?”

Countless people looked up into the sky and cried in surprise.

The light flew faster and faster in the sky, creating ripples in reality. When it reached a certain speed, it disappeared into a ripple. When it appeared again, it was already on top of the mountain.

It descended imperiously and hovered above the Jiang family patriarch's head.

"Ever since I took the helm of the patriarch, I have only used this treasure once. This is the second time, and you should feel honored!"

The patriarch said savagely.

Tang Hao tapped his foot and soared into the sky. He hovered in the air and stared coldly at the patriarch.

Their gazes were clashing fiercely like dueling swords.

On one side was a powerful faction leader with the God Slaying Whip.

On the other side was a young man, but no one dared to look down on him because he had the Barbarian God behind him.

"Unbelievable!"

Many people exclaimed.

Now long ago, Nameless Qin was only considered someone of the younger generation. Now, he was strong enough to fight the Jiang family patriarch.

Nameless Qin had once again shocked them.

"He's already fighting a patriarch in his twenties. He's worthy of the title of the ninth King of the Void Realm! No one can surpass him!"

"Even if he dies in battle today, he'll be a legend!"

Even the faction leaders could not help but respect him.

"Hmph! King Qin? Today, you'll be history!"

The Jiang family patriarch roared coldly and flicked his wrist. The God Slaying Whip rumbled and whipped toward Tang Hao.

The whip struck downward with an earth-shaking force.

Tang Hao remained impassive. He raised his hand slightly, and the Barbarian God behind him swung out its palm.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The earth-shattering explosions were ceaseless.

Golden light continued to explode and illuminated the gloomy sky.

The violent qi ripples shattered mountain peaks.

“Go to hell!

The Jiang family patriarch roared hoarsely while channeling the qi in his body to the whip. Each strike was stronger than the last.

Tang Hao also tried his best to channel the energy in the lightning reservoir into the Barbarian God.

His chest was burning brightly with the spirit of battle.

“We’ll end this once and for all, old man!”

Tang Hao howled, and the Barbarian God’s qi aura suddenly expanded. It slapped away the God Slaying Whip, pounced toward the patriarch, and grabbed him in its hand.

“Ahh!”

The Jiang family patriarch cried out in agony. His treasure coat shattered instantly.

“Hahaha!”

However, he began to laugh maniacally. “You still can’t kill me, you brat! I have another treasure!”

As he said that, an ancient jade token on his waist lit up and protected him.

“You’re almost at your limit. You won’t be able to break through this barrier!” The patriarch said smugly.

Both sides were beginning to tire after the long battle. The lightning on the Barbarian God’s chest was beginning to dim.

The lightning was what the brat had to withstand to pass the Tribulation and not the one that struck the patriarch of the Yushi family. There was a difference in power between the two. That bit of lightning was not enough to kill him.

“Is that so?” Tang Hao said impassively.

With an indifferent expression, he leaped down from the Barbarian God’s shoulder and pointed out with his finger.

Instantly, all the vegetation and the beasts in the mountain range withered.

Their life force was transformed into the power of annihilation that gathered on Tang Hao's fingertip.

"Begone!"

Tang Hao spat out a word coldly.

The power of annihilation, combined with the tribulation lightning, shattered the jade light barrier.

"No! No!"

The Jiang family patriarch cried out in terror.

"If I want you dead, don't think of living!"

Tang Hao pointed another finger at the patriarch and activated the Path of Time and Rebirth.

The Barbarian God clenched its fist tightly, and the patriarch's body exploded. Blood splattered everywhere.

That was the end of a patriarch!
