

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1157

A giant halberd.

A terrifying suction force.

The attacks from the two sect masters surrounded Tang Hao on both sides.

Instantly, he fell into danger.

“How dare you!”

With a furious roar, Ambushing Master’s hair and beard fluttered in the wind. His eyes suddenly opened wide, and golden lightning burst forth, transforming into two lightning pillars that shot towards the East Sea Demon Lord.

“Heaven Devouring Elder, do you think I’m easy to bully? Eat my hoe!”

Daoist Liu was also furious. He raised the hoe and smashed it over.

This was no ordinary hoe. Instead, it was a high-level treasure with extraordinary power.

“Damn it, it’s this hoe again!”

Heaven Devouring Elder cursed loudly, feeling a little depressed.

The suction force immediately stopped, and the East Sea Demon Lord was also blocked by the Ambushing Master.

“Elder Wang, get lost! Don’t block the way!”

The East Sea Demon Lord roared angrily. He brandished the halberd in his hand and continued to charge forward.

“You should be the one to get lost! If you dare to provoke me, I’ll chop up an old whale like you today and make you into a stew!” The old man, Stealth Rod, was also furious. With a wave of his sleeve, treasures flew out one after another.

There were seals, small pagodas, and all sorts of treasures that shone with dazzling divine light.

Boom boom boom!

Brilliance shot out in all directions, and a wave of air swept out. The two of them fought intensely.

On the other side, Daoist Liu was also fighting Heaven Devouring Elder.

Behind Heaven Devouring Elder, Old Daoist Darkshade cackled and took out a black pot. Black smoke emerged from the pot's mouth and rolled out, transforming into malicious ghosts that charged forward.

"Old Ghost, are you itching for a beating again?!"

Liu Mo Ran coldly barked as he held the zither in her left hand. With a wave of her right hand, golden light flew out and turned into the shape of a dragon and phoenix, charging towards the group of malicious ghosts.

"Hmph! You're neither male nor female!"

Old Daoist Darkshade cursed and activated the Myriad Ghost Pot, summoning even more malicious ghosts.

Heartless Sword Saint stood by the side. His gaze swept across the area and landed on Corpse Daoist.

Without saying a word, he drew his sword and slashed forward.

Corpse Daoist shook his right hand, and with a few clangs, the chains on the rightmost coffin fell off. The lid of the coffin burst open, and an evil corpse rushed out.

This corpse was dressed in a Daoist robe and carried a sword on his back. However, his face was ferocious and his eyes were blood-red. His body emitted an astonishing corpse aura.

Clang!

The sword left its sheath and clashed with the incoming sword.

The four of them, Heaven Devouring Elder, and the East Sea Demon Lord joined the fight, leaving Tang Hao alone.

Tang Hao was a bit stunned. He didn't need to do anything in this situation.

He started to observe carefully, trying to figure out the methods of the East Sea Demon Lord and Heaven Devouring Elder.

Just as he was watching, suddenly, there was a whoosh from the side. There was a slight sound of air being torn apart as a whip shadow attacked at an unbelievable speed.

Quick!

It was too fast!

Tang Hao only had time to summon the black pot and block it.

Clang!

With a loud bang, the black pot shook and smashed into Tang Hao's chest, sending him flying backwards.

"D*mn! I actually missed! Kid, you have some strength! What's this? A pot? How can there be such a strange treasure?"

A figure rushed over. It was a fatty with a toad face.

"Kid, I won't make things difficult for you. Hand over the divine halberd obediently and I won't kill you! Otherwise, don't blame me for being merciless!"

The toad demon said ruthlessly.

Tang Hao stopped and his expression changed slightly. Another old monster! This monster's strength was also quite impressive! However, if it was just this one, he could still fight.

He secretly activated his Dao Energy and was about to attack.

At that moment, another figure flew over.

"How lively! How can I not be part of such a lively event!"

The person who came was the ape demon. He carried an iron rod on his shoulder and rushed over.

"Kid, run!"

Ambushing Master shouted.

Tang Hao didn't hesitate. He turned around and ran.

"Kid, stop right there!"

The toad demon shouted loudly and opened its mouth. A whip shot out from its mouth and chased over.

The old ape sped up and chased after them.

Tang Hao entered the tunnel and arrived in the next world.

There was only a vast ocean in this realm. Tang Hao didn't know what realm this was either. He quickly fled, searching for a path to the next realm.

"Where are you going!"

The two demons crossed the tunnel and chased after him.

The two demons were very fast. Tang Hao unleashed his full power, but he couldn't shake them off.

After finding the passage, Tang Hao passed through it again and arrived in the next realm. Just like that, he chased and chased, passing through several realms. In the end, he circled around and returned to the Alchemy Realm.

Both sides were stunned when they saw Ambushing Master and the others.

“Damn it!”

Tang Hao cursed and continued running.

“Brat, don’t run!”

“That’s not right. Isn’t he running very slowly? Why is he running so fast now?”

The two demons were panting heavily from the chase, and they were both very depressed.

Just like that, the two hands chased each other. They circled around once more, and when they returned to their original spot, the old man and the others were stunned again.

“Stupid toad, are you all trash?! You can’t even catch up to a brat!”

The East Sea Demon Lord was furious.

“I...”

The two demons’ tone faltered as they felt especially aggrieved. How could they be blamed? Who asked this brat to be so slippery and run so quickly?

“He ran too fast!”

The toad demon argued.

“Feh! What’s so fast about this brat? You’re clearly too useless! All of you are trash!” Heaving Devouring Elder cursed.

“What trash!”

Daoist Darkshade sneered.

Just now, everyone knew that this kid’s speed was not fast. Even if he had held back at that time, he would not have gone too fast. He had already turned two rounds and still had not caught this kid. If it wasn’t because these two old demons were too useless, what was it!?

“I...”

The two demons felt even more wronged.

At the same time, they also hated Tang Hao.

“Brat, I refuse to believe this. I’m going to catch you today!” the old toad roared. He bit the tip of his tongue and spat out a mouthful of essence blood.

With a swoosh, his speed increased sharply as he chased after her.

“F*ck! He’s going all out!”

Tang Hao jumped in fright.

“You brat, eat my stick!”

The old ape threw caution to the wind and exploded with all its might. After chasing for a distance, it smashed the metal rod over.

Bang!

Tang Hao turned around to block, but he was shaken so badly that his entire body trembled and his face turned slightly pale.

These old demons had lived longer than Heaving Devouring Elder and the others. All of them were powerful.

The toad demon opened its mouth and its tongue flew out to attack.

Tang Hao didn’t stop blocking. He was forced back again and again until he crashed into the tunnel, once again arriving in that small world with only a vast ocean.

This time, he chose another path. After passing through, he arrived at a vast and ancient forest. It was somewhat like the Wooden Realm from before, but there were many vicious beasts living within.

“This is the Beast Realm!”

Tang Hao immediately recognized it.
