

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1162

Everyone fell silent.

Dead silence.

One by one, the old monsters froze, their expressions blank.

The scene before them completely stunned them.

That Toad Immortal actually died? And at the hands of an early-stage brat?

How was this possible?

At their level, they were very difficult to kill. They often fought, but they rarely killed each other, let alone an early stage brat!

Not far away, Daoist Tiangang and the others, as well as Ambushing Master and the others who were about to break out, were also stunned.

The group of Thousand Year Old Monsters widened their eyes in disbelief.

A moment later, there was a loud hissing sound.

All of the old monsters drew a sharp intake of breath, and all of them were horrified.

“Look at all the trees down there! They’re all dried up! What magical technique did this kid cultivate? He can actually extract plant life force!”

“That old toad seems to have aged. What evil technique is it?”

Unable to suppress the shock in their hearts, they all cried out.

Then, they discovered something even more shocking.

“Look... his cultivation level! He’s not in the early stage! He’s in the intermediate stage-!”

“How is this possible! He was clearly at the early-stage! How did he suddenly reach the intermediate-stage? Could it be his cultivation level was hidden all along?”

Everyone was stunned!

The people from the Eighth Continent thought that this person had probably concealed his cultivation from the start. However, the people from the Ninth Continent, the East Sea Demon Lord, and the old ape were completely stunned.

They knew very well that this boy was only at the early-stage, and had just advanced not long ago.

“No! This is impossible! This is absolutely impossible!”

Heaven Devouring Elder kept shaking his head as if he had gone mad.

He felt that all of this was really absurd!

How long had it been since this kid advanced to the Path Seeking Realm, and he was already at the intermediate-stage?

Furthermore, what was even more ridiculous was that this kid was only in his twenties!

An intermediate-stage Path Seeking cultivator in his twenties?

Is he even human!?

At the side, the East Sea Demon Lord stood with a halberd in his hand, his expression blank.

He felt like his head was spinning from the series of events.

“F*ck!”

Not far away, Ambushing Master was dumbfounded.

Then, his face twitched, and he felt like vomiting blood.

He was already very depressed when this kid advanced to the Path Realm earlier, but in the end, he advanced to the intermediate-stage in a short period of time! He even killed a thousand-year-old monster!

Old Daoist Liu’s mouth formed an ‘O’ shape. He could not close his mouth anymore.

Old Daoist Tiangang and the others were not any better. Each of them was more shocked than the other.

Soon, they understood why they had not been able to find the kid before. It must have been some kind of fortunate encounter, which allowed their cultivation to skyrocket in just ten days.

Where did this opportunity come from? It must have been the demonic roc who showed it to him.

After understanding this, they could not help but feel even more depressed.

“Hmph! So what if he has reached the intermediate stage!”

Heaven Devouring Elder recovered from his shock and said angrily.

This boy was a monster. With his mid-stage cultivation, he could fight against the late-stage cultivators, but he was far from surpassing them.

The reason why this brat was able to kill the old toad was because the old toad had underestimated his opponent. Otherwise, how could this brat kill a late-stage Path Seeking Realm old monster?

“This brat must die!”

The East Sea Demon Lord said harshly with a grave expression.

This kid was too freakish, even he was a little scared!

He was only in his twenties, yet he was already at the intermediate-stage Path Seeking Realm. How many more years would he have to wait?

“Kill him!”

Old Daoist Darkshade said ferociously.

Those from the Eighth Continent also revealed intense killing intent. They didn’t know Tang Hao’s identity, but they knew that a mere mid stage guy who could kill a late stage guy was definitely a big trouble in the future.

Tang Hao stood in the air, swept a cold glance, and sneered.

“You guys? Hah!”

His words were filled with mockery and provocation.

“Brat, don’t be so arrogant!” Heaven Devouring Elder was furious.

“Brat, no matter how monstrous you are, you have to stay here today!” the East Sea Demon Lord said darkly.

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao smiled teasingly.

“Brat, how dare you be so arrogant!”

“Go! Kill him!”

The old monsters roared and attacked with all their might.

One ultimate level artifact after another soared into the sky, releasing resplendent brilliance.

Heaven Devouring Elder no longer used his spell. Instead, he summoned a purplish-golden chakram. With a violent toss, it suddenly expanded and smashed towards Tang Hao.

The East Sea Demon Lord wielded his halberd and entered the void again.

Meanwhile, that Old Daoist Darkshade activated the Myriad Ghost Pot. Black smoke poured out from the mouth of the pot, and malicious ghosts poured out endlessly, pouncing towards Tang Hao.

Tang Hao's gaze swept across the area. With a flash of his body, he activated the Emperor Yu's Steps and quickly arrived in front of the Old Daoist Darkshade.

In an instant, a light flashed above his head, and his soul rushed out.

Roar!

With a dragon roar that shook the sky, his soul transformed into a gigantic azure dragon. It circled one round before opening its huge mouth and biting towards the group of malicious ghosts.

"What is this?"

Darkshade was stunned.

The other old monsters were also stunned, even their movements paused.

The azure dragon pounced forward and swallowed a group of malicious spirits in one bite. Then, a golden light separated and transformed into a golden Buddha.

These ghosts were souls, so they could naturally be devoured.

Seeing this, the old Daoist Darkshade's eyes widened until they almost popped out.

F*ck! What was this thing? It swallowed a bunch of his ghosts in one gulp and even had an additional thing!

Seeing the azure dragon charging at him, he retreated in fear and activated the Myriad Ghost Pot madly. Black smoke spewed out, turning into countless ghosts.

The cultivation bases of these malicious ghosts varied. Most of them were in the Nascent Soul stage, and there were many in the early, mid, and even late Path Seeking stage.

This late-stage malicious ghost had the appearance of a battle general. It led the group of ghosts to charge forward with surging battle intent and ghostly aura.

However, that azure dragon roared angrily and swung its tail, sending this malicious ghost flying. Then, it opened its mouth, circled around, and swallowed all the other malicious ghosts.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Beams of golden light shot out and transformed into golden buddhas.

Dozens of Golden Buddhas flew back and protected Tang Hao's body. At the same time, the Azure Dragon swung its tail and charged towards the late-stage malicious ghost with the remaining Golden Buddhas.

An azure dragon and more than ten golden buddhas surrounded the malicious ghost and violently beat it up. The ghost covered its head and fled like a rat, looking extremely miserable.

"That's that brat's soul. His soul has left his body. Quick, kill him!"

At this time, the group of old freaks finally reacted. They attacked together, charging towards Tang Hao's body.

Tang Hao did not panic. With a thought, the golden Buddha guarding him charged in all directions and exploded with a bang to block the attack. At the same time, he opened his mouth and swallowed the late-stage malicious ghost before returning to his body.

Burp!

He burped and mumbled, "So delicious!"

The old Daoist was completely dumbfounded.

"My babies!"

A moment later, a heart-wrenching scream cut through the air.
