

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1176

A sorrowful cry!

The green rain dragon fell, blood splashing into the sky.

The group of old demon kings raised their heads and stared blankly at this scene. In the next moment, a few earth-shattering roars erupted.

“Old Lion, what are you doing?”

“Are you crazy?”

The one who had attacked just now was the old lion king. He stood in the air and shouted, “I’m not crazy. You guys are the crazy ones. If we really let this old flood dragon transform into a dragon, will this demon race still have a place for us to stand!?”

“Old Rain Dragon must die!”

With a fierce shout, he called back his battle spear and threw it out again, towards the falling green rain dragon.

With a puff, another hole was blasted through the Green rain Dragon’s body.

The green rain dragon’s aura was weak, but it was on the verge of death.

“Old Lion, you shameless scoundrel!”

Old Demon Crane roared in anger and attacked furiously.

“Hmph! Old bastard, do you think I’m afraid of you?!” The old lion king snorted in disdain. He grabbed his battle spear and began to fight Old Demon Crane.

In a split second, the Demonic Beasts were thrown into chaos. Seizing the opportunity, the people from all four directions attacked.

“Kill! Snatch the dragon corpse!”

“Don’t fight with me!”

At this moment, the tribulation lightning had dispersed as well, and everyone was no longer afraid of being implicated. They leaped out of the warship one after another and transformed into streaks of light that charged towards the center of the lake and targeted the green dragon.

A half-dragon corpse was an ultimate treasure!

In order to break through the Dragon Transformation Tribulation, this rain dragon had swallowed a drop of True Dragon's blood essence and a large number of natural treasures. These things were all hidden in his flesh and blood.

His flesh and blood were great supplements. Swallowing them or refining them into medicinal pills could help one's cultivation increase greatly, while his bones were half dragon bones, the best materials for refining supreme treasures.

Such a treasure was enough to make any old monster go crazy.

All the old monsters erupted with their full strength. On Tang Hao's side, Ambushing Master took the lead and also rushed out to join the fight.

Tang Hao followed closely behind.

"Humans, get lost!"

The remaining eight old demon kings shouted angrily. They activated the Ten Ultimate Formation and rushed out to stop the human cultivators.

In terms of individual battle prowess, these old demon kings possessed extraordinary strength. However, there were just too many thousand-year-old humans. There were a total of seventy to eighty people from four continents.

In addition, the Ten Ultimate Formation had lost two people strengthening it. Its power was greatly reduced, and it could not stop the human cultivators.

After fighting for a while, several old demon kings were sent flying into the lake while vomiting blood.

"Haha! The rain dragon corpse is mine!"

"Get lost! Don't block the way!"

The human cultivators swarmed into the lake and charged toward the green dragon that was floating above the lake. At the same time, a fierce battle erupted between them.

"Get lost! Who dares to stop me!"

Among all the cultivators in the surroundings, one of them was the fastest and had the most shocking aura. He wore a golden dragon robe, a dragon crown on his head, and a dragon jade belt on his waist. His entire body was covered in treasures.

Above his head hung a golden seal with nine dragons carved on it. It possessed a shocking presence.

He had a thick beard and a dignified face. There was an intimidating aura of an emperor around him. As he looked around, golden light shone in all directions. There was an overbearing and arrogant aura.

He charged forward, unstoppable.

Those who tried to stop him were all sent flying by his seal. There were even a few people following behind him, helping him block the people who rushed up from behind.

“It’s Soul Emperor!”

Ambushing Master let out a low cry. “The old emperor of the Great Soul Empire of the fifth continent was also a monster when he was young! He is an expert!”

This sentence was directed at Tang Hao.

Hearing this, Tang Hao raised his eyes and looked towards the Soul Emperor.

The fifth continent was very different from the eighth continent and the ninth continent. The spiritual qi was more abundant and prosperous. Furthermore, there were not many sects on it. There were only five dynasties!

Great Tang, Great Soul, Great Gan, Great Yan, and Great Li!

These five Majestic Empires occupied the entire fifth continent, and they were divided and ruled.

“That’s pretty impressive!”

After seeing clearly, Tang Hao muttered.

Following that, he swept his gaze across the crowd and saw a few other people dressed in dragon robes. They were probably the other old emperors of the fifth continent, and their strengths were not weak.

He also saw Heaven Devouring Elder, Old Daoist Tiangang, and the others desperately rushing forward.

One person from each team charged forward, while the others were one step behind. They were responsible for obstructing and intercepting the others. No matter who they saw, they would grab their treasures and smash them first.

At once, the situation was in chaos.

Tang Hao and the others had been far away from the start, so they were also behind. After charging forward for a moment, they were obstructed.

“It’s Elder Wang! Haha! Long time no see!”

“Old Wang, take this!”

A large number of attacks were directed at Ambushing Master because the opponent knew that in this small group, Elder Wang was the strongest. They just needed to stop him.

“Disperse!”

The uncle let out a low growl and took out another treasure to meet the attack.

Tang Hao turned around and dodged to the side.

“Hmm? Who is this guy? I’ve never seen him before! Is he a newcomer from the ninth continent?”

“Look, he’s only at the mid-stage! Haha! I’m dying of laughter. The Ninth Continent actually pulled in a mid-stage cultivator. Is there no one else in the Ninth Continent to bring?!”

When the group of people saw Tang Hao’s cultivation level, they couldn’t help but be startled and burst into laughter.

A mere mid-stage, wasn’t this cannon fodder!?

They laughed mockingly.

Hearing this laughter, some people nearby looked over. The people of the seventh and fifth continents were a little stunned, but they also laughed.

The expressions of the people from the eighth continent changed slightly.

Damn, this little monster is here too!

They cursed internally, but they did not say anything. They did not want anyone to know about those embarrassing things.

Furthermore, this kid was so far away and there were so many people in front of him. He was not a threat at all.

They took a few glances before looking away.

At this moment, Tang Hao looked forward and saw that the fastest few people had already approached the flood dragon and were about to succeed.

“Looks like I have to hurry up!”

He mumbled.

“Haha! You still want to rush over and snatch the treasure! Let me tell you, stop dreaming. If you can get past me, I’ll call you grandpa!”

An azure-robed man stood in front of Tang Hao and laughed.

Behind him, the crowd also sneered.

Tang Hao didn’t waste any words. His body shook, and his aura erupted. He raised his hand again and directly slapped.

At that instant, the Qi of the Heavens and Earth began to churn violently. A giant golden hand was formed, which slammed forward furiously with a tremendous aura.

The green-robed man was stunned for a moment before sneering. “A mere hand seal. Watch how I’ll break you!”

He raised his hand and formed a hand seal that slapped over.

Bang!

The two handprints met in the air.

Then, under the man’s shocked gaze, his handprint cracked and was smashed into pieces.

“No-! That’s impossible!”

He gasped in shock, unable to believe his eyes.

He was at the late-stage Path Seeking Realm, while his opponent was only at the mid-stage. His hand seal should have crushed his opponent, but why was it the other way around?

He was stunned.
