

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1196

BOOM! BOOM! Bolts of tribulation lightning fell, each thicker than the last. The locust tree stood tall in the air and used its body to resist the lightning. It was completely fine. That relaxed posture did not look like it was undergoing the lightning tribulation at all. It looked more like it was taking a bath in the lightning tribulation. Tang Hao's mouth was wide open. "Be good! This old locust tree is amazing!" However, he knew that this old locust tree must be a powerful demon with a very powerful cultivation. Otherwise, how could it pass the lightning tribulation like it was a game? No one knew how many bolts of lightning struck, but they finally stopped. The Tribulation clouds in the sky slowly dissipated, and a beam of golden sunlight pierced through the clouds and shone down on the old locust tree. The old locust tree glowed with new vitality. Its branches and leaves continued to grow, becoming luxuriant. After a while, he landed and returned to the valley. "Senior!" Tang Hao returned to the valley, stepped forward, and bowed respectfully. The old locust tree did not move. Tang Hao was surprised. He laughed awkwardly. "Senior, may I know your name?" "Name? Are you asking who I am?" The old locust tree spoke, his voice a little hoarse and old. "Yeah!" Tang Hao said. The old locust tree was silent. After a long time, he muttered, "Who am I? I can't really remember ... Oh right, What's My Name?" He mumbled, his tone becoming a little dazed. Tang Hao was surprised. "F * ck, did this senior lose her memory?" However, on second thought, this was possible. This senior had been sealed in the Dao Lake for tens of thousands of years and had almost withered to death. There must have been some residual effects. "Senior, it's like this ..." Tang Hao told him how he dug him out and how he saved him. Of course, he didn't forget to add some embellishments, telling him how hard he had worked to dig him out and how much he had paid to save him. "I see!" The old locust tree felt a little guilty. "It's been hard on you. Don't worry, I'll definitely compensate you." "Compensation?" Tang Hao's eyes glowed, but he still said righteously, "Senior, I'm not that kind of person!" "Senior, tens of thousands of years have passed. The way of the world has long changed. You have nowhere to go, right? why don't you stay here with me?" Tang Hao advised. "This ... Is good!" The old locust tree hesitated for a moment but still agreed. "I'll stay here and help you guard this Valley while I'm at it. It can be considered as me repaying your kindness." After saying that, he leaped up and landed on a mountain. He began to take root and restrained his aura, turning into an ordinary old locust tree. "I've earned big!" Tang Hao was excited when he saw the old locust tree. This senior's strength was unfathomable, and his background was definitely not simple. Being able to dig him out was definitely the greatest harvest of this trip to the Dao Lake. With such a Guardian, the sun Sky Valley could be said to be impregnable. "Senior, wait here. I'll go get you some more origin." "Come!" Tang Hao called out. He went to the alchemy division again and took a lot of natural source, which he gave to the old locust tree. "Thanks!" The old locust tree shook its branches and leaves and said gratefully. "By the way, what's your name?" He absorbed the essence directly, and the branches and leaves grew more luxuriant. Tang Hao could feel an astonishing aura of vegetation on his body, and the vegetation around him also became luxuriant and verdant. "My surname is Tang, and my name is Hao!" Tang Hao said respectfully. "How old are you?" "24!" "24? Not bad! It's pretty good!" The old locust tree fell silent after he finished speaking. Tang Hao said his goodbyes and left. He returned to the valley and began to dismantle the tattered treasures. At this moment, on an island in the distant sea, many figures were sitting cross-legged on it. All of them were in a sorry state and looked depressed. They were old demon Tuntian and the others. The demon Lord of the East Sea was also there. He sat cross-legged on the ground, holding his big halberd in his hand. "Old monster Qi is dead ... So are the spiritual emperors ... Many more have died!" "That kid is really strange. Even this can't kill him. Moreover, every time I see him, his strength seems to be rising. When I first saw him, he was only in the early stage! However, it only took him a short time to reach the late-stage!" The group of old monsters sighed and frowned. They had never been so worried before. That kid was too difficult to deal with. They had never met such an opponent before! Not only was he strong, but he was also very tough to live. They had worked hard to plan, but in the end, it was all for nothing. Moreover, a few of them were even killed by that kid. At this moment, they all felt a great sense of defeat and powerlessness. "How can I kill that brat?" One of the old monsters asked. "This ..." Everyone looked at each other in shock. They couldn't answer this question. If they couldn't surround him, and they couldn't set up an ambush, what else could they do? "In my opinion, we should just charge over and kill that brat!" Old demon Tuntian suddenly spoke. "Kill? Buzzzzzz! Tell me, How do I kill him? Don't forget that he beat so many of our men last time!" An old monster said with a bitter smile. Old demon Tuntian gritted his teeth and his face turned sinister. "That kid is strong, but don't forget that he's not invincible. There are only a few people in the sixteen continents who can match him." "Don't forget that there are more than 16 continents on Qi Yuan planet. There are still the first and second continents!" When everyone heard this, they all revealed a look of realization. "You mean ... To invite people?" "That's right. Let's split up and invite people separately, especially those few people and the people from the second continent. It's best not to invite the people from the first continent. Once the people from the first continent find out, we won't have a share of that kid's treasure!" Old demon Tuntian said. "This is feasible. I have some connections in the second continent and know many people!" "Me too!" The group of old monsters nodded. In their early years, they had been to the first and second continents and had gotten to know many old monsters there. Compared to the 16 continents, the first and second continents had more thousand-year-old monsters and were more powerful. If they could get more people, they would definitely be able to kill that kid. "Then it's decided. Let's not delay and act quickly! After you've invited your people, gather here. Then, we'll kill our way to the ninth continent. " "This time, we have to be fully prepared. We must kill that damn brat!" Old demon Tuntian stood up and shouted passionately. "Kill that brat!" The group of old monsters also stood up, as if they had been injected with chicken blood. All of them were in high spirits, and their emotions were stirred. "Let's go!" Following that, they all rode on their spirit lights and sped off. Most of them flew towards the second continent, while some scattered in all directions to invite the big shots in the circle of old monsters.
