

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1201

“What tree is that? That’s amazing!” “He ran away! They all ran away!” In the distance, the crowd of onlookers looked at the figure fleeing in the sky and cried out from time to time, revealing a bit of shock. In the sun Sky Valley, Tang Hao killed the last fallen old monster and collected the treasure. “One, two, three ...” Tang Hao counted. He had killed more than twenty old monsters this time, and the treasures they had were another huge harvest. “Not bad!” Tang Hao grinned. He was satisfied. “Old demon Tuntian is finally dead. That old ghostly man is dead too ... Oh right, I’m still missing that old whale. That bastard is too slippery. I didn’t even see him just now. He must have hidden in the void.” Tang Hao furrowed his brows. That old whale was from the void whale race. He was born with the ability to traverse the void and was best at escaping. He was indeed not easy to deal with. “I’ll deal with you sooner or later!” Tang Hao said coldly. He had wanted to kill this old whale for a long time. It wasn’t just because they had enmity, but also because this old whale was from the void whale clan. He wanted to kill this old whale and extract his bones to refine a Supreme treasure that could allow him to travel through the void. “Thanks! Senior!” He raised his head and said to the old locust tree. “It’s fine, it’s just a small matter!” The old locust tree shook its branches and leaves as it spoke slowly. With that, his body sank and he landed back on the mountain. He began to take root and retracted his aura, returning to being an ordinary old locust tree. Tang Hao bowed to the old locust tree and tidied up the valley. Then, he sat down, took out his gains from this trip, and counted them one by one. First, it was old demon Tuntian’s items. He had the most items. There were over 30 Supreme treasures. Although most of them were not of high grade, they were still Supreme treasures. Tang Hao had been thinking about the treasured clothing for a long time. He picked up the treasured clothing and put it on. The robe was white as the moon, and it was covered with a layer of bright divine light. Balls of light floated around the robe like the moon and the stars. It was a dazzling sight. “Star and moon robe! Let’s just call it that!” Tang Hao happily made his decision. Then, he put on his bracelet, earrings, jade pendants, and other treasures. His body was so bright that it was almost blinding. After some thought, he took out a few more treasures from his ring and stuffed them into his body. For example, the seal of the spirit Emperor. He hung it on his waist. It was dazzling with golden light, and there was a faint shadow of a Golden Dragon circling it. It took Tang Hao more than an hour to finish counting the items and put them away. After a short rest, he started to calculate and muttered to himself, “Isn’t it time to build a sect?” Previously, he had always felt that the time was not right, but now that senior locust tree was here, safety was no longer a problem. Tang Hao felt that it was more and more feasible after some thought. However, the sun Sky Valley was a little small, and Nanping City was right next to it. If he wanted to build a Mountain Gate, he would have to move the city away, which would be troublesome. “That’s right!” Tang Hao suddenly thought of something. He slapped his thigh and took out the star plucking diagram. This was a rare treasure that contained a piece of heaven and earth. It could be used as a small world. As long as the sect was built inside, it would be connected to the outside world through this map. “Good idea!” Tang Hao was a man of his word. He immediately opened the map and entered the starpicking realm. “Hey! Is there anyone there? Quickly let us out!” “Big brother! My Lord! If you can hear us, please do us a favor and let us out!” The moment Tang Hao entered, he heard someone shouting. He was stunned and thought that it was strange! How could there be someone here? After being stunned for a while, he exclaimed. He remembered that he had kept a few old monsters in the monster oasis before he had completely forgotten about them. It had been a long time, almost four months. In other words, these old monsters had been locked up here for a full four months! “I really didn’t do it on purpose!” Tang Hao scratched his head and mumbled. Then, he flew toward the source of the sound. In that direction, there was a mountain range, and three people were crouching there. The three of them were hiding in a corner of the valley, looking dispirited. They looked up from time to time and shouted to the sky for help. However, as usual, there was no reaction. "Ai!" They sighed in despair. Suddenly, the expression of one of them changed. He stood up and looked into the distance. "Ai! Look, someone's here, it must be that guy! He's here!" He shouted excitedly when he saw the figure flying over from afar. "What? He's here? Hahaha! That's great! I was waiting for him! I'm going to kill him for keeping me here for so long!" The other two immediately sprang up, one of them even revealing a fierce look, his face full of ruthlessness. "Let's pretend to compromise later. When we get close to him, we'll take action. As long as we kill him, we'll naturally find a way to get out!" The three of them discussed for a while and quickly came up with a plan. Tang Hao also flew over. When the three of them raised their heads again, they were stunned. "Argh! What an eye-piercing treasure light!" They cried out in surprise and covered their eyes for a moment, but they were dazzled by the brilliant treasure light on his body, almost blinding their eyes. Oh my God! How many treasures did he have on him! Moreover, all of them were precious treasures! Their eyes turned red, their hearts trembled, and even their breathing quickened. They had never seen so many treasures in one go! This was too extravagant! But then, they were stunned. They felt that these treasures seemed a little familiar. "Ai! Isn't that old Ling's nine Dragon golden seal?" "Yes, yes! It was exactly the same! Look at that ring, isn't that the red sun Ring of the flame Emperor? It's exactly the same!" "And that treasure robe, if I remember correctly, it belongs to old man Tuntian!" They cried out in alarm from time to time, their minds becoming more and more shocked. An unbelievable thought appeared in their minds, making them dizzy. These were all treasures, their lifeblood. No old monster would give them away. Only by killing the other party could they get their hands on them. Since this guy had so many things from different old monsters, there was only one truth. That was, he had killed so many old monsters and snatched all the items! But how was that possible? The spirit Emperor, the flame Emperor, and old demon Tuntian ... All of them were thousand-year-old monsters. Not only did they have powerful treasures, but they also had many tricks up their sleeves. Who could kill them? What had happened outside during this period of time? Also, this guy ... Who is he? They raised their heads stiffly, and their eyes were filled with fear as they trembled and looked at the face. His face was cold, and his eyes were filled with killing intent. He pursed his lips and spat out a cold voice. "Submit, or die!"
