

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1249

“BOOM!”

The Golden cauldron shook, and a golden light flew out. It was a golden bone the size of a palm, covered with mysterious and complicated patterns.

This was the void bone that he had refined from the old whale.

Tang Hao reached out and grabbed the bone.

“After I refine it, it will become a Supreme treasure. Right, why don’t I refine it into the battle armor? it will be much more convenient this way. If I have better battle armor in the future, I can take it off.”

Tang Hao thought for a while and made up his mind.

Then, he turned around and looked at the sea beast on the surface of the sea. He said coldly, “You ... Get lost!”

“Thank you, Qin Wang!”

The demon finally heaved a sigh of relief, as if he had been granted Amnesty.

He had long heard of Qin Wang’s reputation. Now that he had seen him in person, he realized that Qin Wang was even more powerful than the rumors had said. His methods were even more ruthless. He had actually managed to refine that old whale.

Moreover, he was indeed as cunning as a Fox as the rumors said. He was clearly a young man, but his schemes were quite profound. He set up such a trap and tricked the old whale into coming in.

He didn’t dare to stay any longer. His body sank and he dove into the sea. He didn’t even dare to go to Kunwu.

Tang Hao flew forward, found a deserted island, and began to craft artifacts.

Half a day later, he left the island and headed straight to his destination.

At this moment, many old monsters had gathered in the waters of the fifteenth continent. There were large ships in the air and all kinds of birds. There were also many figures standing on the surface of the sea.

They stood on the waves, and their eyes were like lightning as they swept forward.

In the sea region ahead, there was an area shrouded in storms and fog.

That was where Kunwu was!

The storm connected the sky and the earth, rolling up the fog, making it impossible to see the situation inside.

What was even more strange was that the mist was very special. It was actually nine-colored.

“This is ... The nine-colored crystal Mist? Why is it this thing again?”

“It’s really strange! The nine-colored crystal Mist was on the other side of the Dao Lake, and so was Kunwu. Could there be a connection between the two? Where did this nine-colored crystal Mist come from?”

The old monsters discussed spiritedly.

As one of the forbidden Lands on the Qi Yuan planet, the ancient Dao Lake was famous. All the old monsters had been there before, and they had a deep impression of the nine-colored crystal Mist.

Now, this nine-colored crystal Mist had appeared in this suspected land of Kunwu!

“In my opinion ... This nine-colored crystal Mist probably has some background. Otherwise, it would be impossible for it to appear in two ancient ruins at the same time!”

Everyone realized that the nine-colored crystal Mist was extraordinary.

“Many people went in before, and a few escaped. They all looked quite miserable. I heard that many died. It’s quite dangerous inside.”

“That’s for sure. This is Kunwu, a legendary place!”

The old monsters were exchanging information.

They were not in a hurry to go in. According to the current situation, it was quite dangerous inside. Many things were unknown, and it was too risky to go in rashly.

It would be better to wait for the first and second continent’s main forces to arrive before entering.

At their level, the first thing they considered was still to save their lives.

“By the way, I heard that the reason we found this place was because of the appearance of a Dragon?”

Suddenly, an old monster said.

“I think so. I heard that a true dragon was born, so the old monsters of the fifteen provinces came to explore and found this place. It didn’t exist at first, but it suddenly appeared.”

“I heard from those old monsters that it wasn’t a real Dragon, but a dragon skeleton that was hundreds of thousands of feet long. At that time, it flew around this place, passed through the storm, and went inside.”

“Although it’s not a real Dragon, its might is no different. The Dragon Soul is still there!”

A few old monsters replied.

Hiss!

Then, there were gasps of shock.

The eyes of all the old monsters turned red, and their breathing suddenly became rapid. Their faces were filled with extreme greed.

The skeleton of a true dragon!

What an amazing divine item this was!

It would be amazing if he could get his hands on even one of these real dragon bones, let alone one.

True dragon Bone was a legendary material that could be used to refine treasures that were even more powerful than Supreme treasures.

However, they quickly calmed down. Although the real Dragon Bone was good, it would be difficult to get it because the Dragon Soul was still there. How could they get it with their little strength?

“Al! “This dragon skeleton ... I seem to have heard of it somewhere. Oh right, I once heard a few rumors in the eighteenth continent that a true dragon was born. At that time, I thought it was a flood Dragon, but the rumors turned out to be false and it became a true dragon! I didn’t expect it to be true!”

One of the old monsters suddenly remembered and said.

“Eighteen continents? That’s quite far away. What’s that Dragon doing? Could the birth of Kunwu be related to that Dragon?”

“It should be! As for this place, I think it’s Kunwu!”

The old monsters discussed again.

After waiting for a long time, more and more old monsters gathered. People from the first and second continents had also arrived.

“Look, that’s the count of the wind family from the second continent. They’re also a titled aristocratic family and are on par with the Yushi family from the first continent. One is a wind god, while the other is a rain god!”

In the sky, a large green ship sped over. On it stood many figures, each of them with a shocking aura.

Between their brows, there was a wind-shaped imprint that was extremely similar to the Thunder clan and the rain clan.

As the ship arrived, it set off a strong wind and was incredibly fast.

“That’s the flame immortal, he’s coming!”

Accompanied by a burst of exclamations, a ray of red light flew over from the other side of the sky. It was a ball of flames in the shape of a fire Phoenix.

When he got close, the fire receded, and a figure appeared. His red robe fluttered, and he had a handsome face. His skin was bright and clear like the moon, covered with a layer of light.

Soon, another figure flew over with a burst of laughter. He was burly and looked like an iron tower. It was the martial immortal.

People from all walks of life arrived one after another.

Soon, the first continent’s major sects and aristocratic families also arrived. Three to five families joined forces and came in groups.

There were many forces in the first continent. In addition to the large sects and aristocratic families, there were also many top sects. Many late-stage and even perfected old monsters had come.

As far as the eye could see, there were figures everywhere, all of them at the late stage or the great circle. The scene was extremely spectacular.

“This ... This should be Kunwu! This is a Supreme treasure land. Ji brat, you must seize the opportunity. If you can get a little bit of luck, you can completely surpass that brat!”

On the ship of the Supreme sect, Beimen Yi looked into the distance and rushed at Ji wudao.

He then smiled. "You're blessed by the heavens. With your luck, it won't be a problem for me to get some opportunities. If that kid dares to show up, we can take the chance to kill him!"

"If that brat really dares to appear, then it will be the time of his death!"

The Jiang family's master gritted his teeth and said hatefully.

"That brat is about to appear. Everyone, let's kill him together!"

On the nearby ships, the various sect Masters all revealed angry expressions and spoke with hatred.

They hated that kid to the extreme. He had made them so embarrassed before and toyed with them like monkeys. They wanted to skin that kid, pull out his tendons, and cut him into a thousand pieces.

As they spoke, their eyes shone with golden light as they looked around for traces of that kid.
