

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1307

“Did you guys hear? Qin Wang took some unknown medicine and became even more terrifying. He single-handedly destroyed the first and second continents! What great religion, what great family, all of them will be overthrown!”

“I heard that too. He’s amazing!”

The third continent, the fourth continent ...

On every continent, everyone was in a heated discussion.

In the eleventh continent, the fighting for the bowls, chopsticks, tables, and chairs became more and more intense.

Today, a sect would be destroyed, and tomorrow, a family would be slaughtered. The looting was vigorous and vigorous.

It wasn’t until these things fell into the hands of the continent’s top forces that the fight subsided.

For this, these forces had paid a considerable price.

However, in their eyes, no matter how much it cost, it was worth it. This was because these things were extraordinary. They were things that the King of Qin had used before.

Who was the King of Qin?

He was the most powerful person on the Qi Yuan planet, a legend! He was also a legend!

It was a Supreme honor to put an item that the King of Qin had used in the sect as a tribute, and it would be much more dignified if it was said out loud. Now, in the eleventh continent, if you didn’t have a treasure of the King of Qin, you would be embarrassed to say that you were a top force.

“Extra! Extra!”

“Our King of Qin has shown his might again. Come and buy a newspaper to read!”

In the ninth continent, the headlines of all the major newspapers were about this, and it caused a huge commotion.

“Al! This kid is too abnormal!”

On a mountain peak in Kunlun, uncle bludgeon clutched his feet and held a newspaper in his hand. He was grimacing in pain.

He felt particularly annoyed. He was still at the consummate level and had not condensed his Dao fruit, but this kid’s strength was skyrocketing, leaving him further and further behind.

It was really infuriating to compare people!

“Motherf * cker! I’m not looking!”

Old Daoist Liu threw the newspaper aside and started cursing.

But then, he pouted and said, “This kid is invincible now. It’s time to go!” As he spoke, he raised his head and looked at the sky.

The old man, Liu Moran, and the others looked up and were all silent.

“It should be!” After a long time, Sir system nodded and said sadly, “I didn’t expect that kid to be one step ahead of me!”

After he finished speaking, he sighed again.

After sighing for a while, the void in the sky suddenly split open, and a figure stepped out.

“Hey! We were just talking about this kid and he’s back!”

“Al! Kid, hurry up and take a look over there. Many people are here, and they all want to see you and hug your thigh! I think they can’t wait to kneel down and call you father!”

“Oh right, there are also many beautiful women, the number one beauty of the third continent, the number one beauty of the fourth continent, all of them are very beautiful! Why don’t you pick one?”

Sir system and Daoist Liu laughed.

Tang Hao landed and rolled his eyes! I’m not interested!”

“Hey! I’m talking to you! Why is it so boring!”

“F * ck! You don’t even want a beauty, are you out of your mind?”

Tang Hao could not help but roll his eyes again. “Who said I can’t do it?”

“Then why don’t you want a beautiful woman?” Daoist Liu shouted, his face full of embarrassment.

“That’s right!”

Sir system also joined in.

“I have a wife!” Tang Hao rolled his eyes at them.

“F * ck! Is that true? Who was it? The great beauty mu?” Daoist Liu’s eyes lit up as he thought of the famous beauty mu from the Kunlun Sect.

They heard that this great beauty mu was also a demon. When she formed her nascent soul, she formed her nine-headed fierce beast. Now, like them, she was also in the great circle of Dao seeking and was extremely powerful.

“Go, go, go! Don’t ask about this kind of thing. If you have the time, you might as well cultivate and strive to bear the fruit of Dao as soon as possible!”

Tang Hao said unhappily.

Sir system and the rest did not say a word.

This kid's words hit their soft spot directly.

"Let's get down to business! I'm going to leave this place in a year and go outside!" Tang Hao pointed at the sky with a serious expression.

"These two ... I'll leave them here!"

As he spoke, he waved his hand and the God of Berserkers flew out and landed in the valley.

Then, with a flash of golden light, the origin core clone flew out.

"Fellow Daoists!"

The origin core avatar bowed and cupped his hands.

"Hiss!"

Upon seeing this, Sir system and the others all sucked in a breath of cold air.

Whether it was the giant monster or the clone, they both exuded a rather terrifying aura.

Tang Hao waved his hand again, and the origin core avatar leaped into the air. It flew to the top of the main peak and sat down cross-legged.

At the same time, the God of barbarian broke through the ground and burrowed into it.

"In the future, Kun Lun's safety will depend on them. I hope everyone can help me with some other small matters." Tang Hao said.

“Ah! You’re too polite!”

“Little brat, don’t worry. Before we leave, we’ll stay here and not go anywhere!”

Sir system and the rest hurriedly said.

“Then I’ll leave it to you!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands, then took out a few more treasures and distributed them to them.

He flew up and went to see horizon to tell him his decision.

“If you want to go, then go!” Daoist priest horizon was stunned for a long time.

He understood that the higher the cultivation, the higher the vision, and the stronger the desire to climb to a higher level. This small Qi Yuan planet could no longer contain this kid.

Then, he went to see Xing Tong.

“Oh!”

“Oh,” she replied softly. Her beautiful eyes stared at Tang Hao without blinking.

“You go first. I’ll come and find you in the future!”

After a moment of silence, she said softly.

“En!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“What? You’re leaving? Where do you want to go?” He passed through the tunnel and returned to earth. He met with Lao Bai.

Tang Hao pointed at the sky.

“Alien? Alright! Actually, I also want to see what’s in space, but I don’t think I’ll have any hope of doing so in this life!” Old Bai said with envy.

“Oh! Oh right, I have one more thing!”

Tang Hao suddenly said, as if he had just remembered something.

“What is it?”

Lao Bai was startled.

“Of course it’s a good thing!” Tang Hao smiled mysteriously. “Get me a helicopter!”

He was too powerful now and it was not suitable for him to use it on earth.

He took Lao Bai to all parts of Huaxia and buried spirit veins everywhere. Then, he melted countless crystals, turned them into the purest spirit Qi, and scattered it all over the land of the nine prefectures.

As the spirit Qi became denser, the world changed.

The mountains and rivers were even more beautiful, the flowers and plants even more verdant, and everything was full of vitality.

Between heaven and earth, spiritual Qi rushed into the sky and auspicious Qi rose.

Even the people could feel the sudden changes in their bodies. Their spirits were lifted, and they felt that their bodies had become much stronger.

“I want everyone in Huaxia to live a long and healthy life. I want everyone to become a dragon and a Phoenix. This ... Has always been my greatest wish.”

Tang Hao sighed as he looked down at the land of China.

“Good! What a good ‘Dragon, Phoenix’! You’re bringing great fortune to China, that’s a great deed!”

Lao Bai’s face was red with excitement and he couldn’t stop praising.

Tang Hao smiled. He waved his hand, and countless crystals flew out. They turned into spirit Qi and floated in the air.
