

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1328

In this star field, there were nine main stars, arranged in a spoon-shaped formation.

Planet Gaoyang was located in the center.

On its left and right, there were two stars. One was called the young gate star, and the other was called the giant gate star.

Just as its name suggested, the giant gate star was extremely huge. Among the nine main stars, it was the largest and the land on it was vast and boundless.

In such a vast territory, countless sects, clans, and other forces were born.

In the center of the planet, there were two majestic peaks that were tens of thousands of feet tall. They pierced through the sky. On the top of one peak, there was a scorching sun. On the top of the other peak, there was a cold Moon.

The two peaks looked at each other from a distance and called out to each other.

With these two peaks as the center, many majestic peaks spread out, and there were palaces and buildings on them. In the sky, there were even celestial bodies floating, emitting a bright light.

Flying mutant beasts and human figures could be seen everywhere.

As far as the eye could see, a flourishing and prosperous atmosphere hit one's face.

This was the sun Moon Mountain, a super force that was above all the forces on this planet. It was also the most powerful force in this star field. Its might shook the starry sky, and no one dared to provoke it.

However, something unexpected happened today.

In a Palace on one of the mountain peaks, a Jade tablet broke with a crack.

A white-robed old man sitting in the hall suddenly opened his eyes and swept his gaze over.

In the next moment, his eyes opened wide, and they shone with a bright light.

“This is ...”

He suddenly stood up, his face ashen.

The word ‘Dragon’ was carved on the broken Jade tablet, and there were only nine Jade tablets in this row.

These nine Jade plates represented the nine great geniuses of the sun Moon Mountain.

“Who is it? Who did this?”

He roared in anger, his hair and beard all standing up.

Each of the nine young masters was a monstrous talent, a treasure of the sun Moon Mountain. The death of any one of them was a great loss.

Such a thing had rarely happened in the past. In the history of Mount Riyue, it had only happened a few times.

He stretched out his hand and took the broken Jade tablet, carefully sensing it.

“High sun Star, Star City?”

He immediately determined the direction, and his face became even gloomier.

Since something had happened there, it was definitely not an accident.

“How dare you kill the geniuses of my Sun Moon Mountain! No matter who it is, they will have to pay the price!” He held the Jade token and suddenly disappeared.

A moment later, in the middle of the sun and moon peaks, a series of angry howls came from a floating palace.

Very quickly, the news of one of the nine great young masters, young master Long's death spread throughout the entire Sun Moon Mountain, causing the entire sect to be in an uproar.

"Young master long was on the high sun Star. Someone had killed him in Star City! This is a provocation to our Sun Moon Mountain!"

"We, the people of Mount riyue, can not die in vain. Blood for blood! Exterminate his entire family and execute his nine generations!"

Angry roars resounded throughout the sun Moon Mountain.

"Go! Capture that vicious hand!"

A shocking roar came from the palace.

Then, countless figures flew out of the hall, all of them with Dao rings on their backs. Most of them had One Ring, but there were also many with two rings, and there were even a few with three rings.

They were filled with killing intent as they took out their planetary ships and rushed into the sky.

Upon reaching the starry sky, these star ships began to shuttle through the starry sky, accelerating towards the high sun Star.

At this moment, on planet Gaoyang, in Star City, the killing was still ongoing.

The Samsara boat trembled non-stop and rippled. The figure holding the golden sword strolled in the air as if he was taking a stroll.

Wherever he went, the figures froze and screamed in horror.

He raised his sword and gently slashed. With a single slash, there would be a bloody explosion.

His white robe had long been dyed blood red.

“This is too terrifying!”

“We’re no match for him. Let’s go!”

Finally, everyone was terrified.

At first, they thought that they could crush this guy with their numbers, but they didn’t expect that this guy’s terror was completely beyond their imagination.

This wasn’t just a slightly more powerful expert. He was clearly a super expert. An ordinary slash one was no match for him at all. Only a slash two expert would be able to kill him.

“Let’s go!”

Some of the people on the outer perimeter began to flee.

At this moment, they were filled with regret. They had come to join in the fun and take advantage of the situation, but they had never thought that the trash in the eyes of the world was actually a hidden expert.

Moreover, he was a F * cking brutal devil. Who knew how many people he had killed in this short period of time?

Seeing that someone had escaped, the others also began to flee.

Tang Hao’s body flickered as he gave chase.

At this time, in the distance of the city, people laughed when they heard the noise from afar. They muttered, “They fought pretty well!”

They also knew about what was happening over there. However, they knew that with young master long around, they would definitely not get a share of that fellow's treasures. That was why they did not go up to join in the fun.

When they heard the noise, they could guess that the man surnamed Shi must have been forced to make a move.

Once he made a move, he would be killed very quickly.

"What a pity!"

They all sighed.

They naturally coveted that fellow surnamed Shi, but since young master long was here, they could only stand aside.

They shook their heads and began to do their own things.

However, after a while, the sounds of fighting were still ringing out.

They were stunned, thinking that this Shi guy was really strong! It's been so long and he still hasn't been taken down!

However, after listening carefully, it seemed that something was wrong. Why were there only screams?

They were a little puzzled and looked up to see what was going on.

From afar, they could see figures flying over. When they got closer, they were stunned. Each of them was pale and in a sorry state, as if they were running for their lives.

"Fellow Daoist, what's wrong? Why are you guys running?"

"Fellow Daoist! What happened? Where's the joke of that Shi guy! Who killed him?"

“Yes, yes! Where’s that good-for-nothing?”

Everyone asked.

When the group of people who were running for their lives heard this, they immediately started cursing.

“A joke? What a joke!”

“Trash? You’re the useless ones, your whole family is useless!”

This group of people was dumbfounded by the scolding.

They stood rooted to the ground, completely at a loss.

Seeing that someone else had escaped, he asked again.

“Trash? F * ck your mother! I believed your lies and believed that he was a piece of trash! He’s clearly a super expert, a peerless fiend, even the People of the Sun Moon Mountain were killed by him. ”

When everyone heard this, they were dumbfounded.

“Hahaha! You must be joking!”

Then, they laughed.

What super expert, peerless fierce man, how is it possible? the star Hall has already tested it, how can it be fake!

Also, how could the people of Mount ri Yue die? this was a joke!

With this thought in mind, they flew over one after another and focused their eyes. After seeing clearly, their entire bodies trembled and they were instantly dumbfounded.
