

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1343

Roar!

There were zombies everywhere, pouring in like an avalanche. Black hair, white hair, red hair, all kinds of hair, it was a dazzling sight.

“F * ck your mother!”

“Shi, you bastard! You won’t die a good death!”

A wave of curses came from the crowd.

Everyone wanted to leave, but they were stopped by the zombies. These zombies weren’t ordinary. They could all fly. A group of them pounced on them and intercepted them.

There were too many zombies, so many that they couldn’t even be counted. Moreover, they were all very strong. Each person had to face several zombies, and some were even besieged by more than a dozen at once.

They were flustered and miserable.

“Damn it, I came here to fish, how did I become so miserable!”

They were all very depressed, so depressed that they wanted to vomit blood.

Ah!

Someone let out a blood-curdling screech as a dozen zombies broke through his defenses and dismembered his body.

A ray of light shot up. It was his divine soul that had swept up the platform and escaped.

Soon, a few more “ah ah” sounds were heard.

People were constantly surrounded by zombies, and their bodies were torn to pieces.

Even those old monsters who had cut three were also suffering unspeakably. They had a lot of people, but there were even more zombies, several times more.

“Shi, you’re too despicable!”

Long tieya cursed.

His face turned ashen. The situation had been good and he was about to kill this guy, but he didn’t expect him to have such a trick up his sleeve.

What a good “driving the Tiger to swallow the wolf, killing with a borrowed knife”!

How despicable! He was too shameless!

Tang Hao did not say a word. He only grabbed the red bow and fired an arrow at him.

Pfft!

Long tieya took this arrow head on and was sent flying while spitting out blood.

“Third elder, are you alright?”

Another group of people rushed up from behind and caught him.

“I ... I hate it!”

Long tieya’s entire body was trembling. He was angry, annoyed, and hated himself for being useless. The person who killed his grandson was right in front of him, but he was helpless.

“Tsk! Useless old man!”

Tang Hao mocked.

His voice wasn't loud, but it was clearly transmitted.

"You ..."

Long tieya trembled even more violently. Suddenly, he could not catch his breath. His eyes rolled back, and he fainted.

"Not good! The third elder fainted from anger!"

The sun Moon Mountain Camp was in chaos.

"F * ck! The great patriarch three Slayer actually fainted from anger?"

Everyone was speechless.

A person at the level of beheading three could actually faint from anger. This was simply unheard of.

"Shi, you despicable man, don't hide there if you dare! Come out!" Great ancestor Purple Lotus cursed.

He was surrounded by four level three slash zombies and was trying his best to resist.

"Alright!"

Tang Hao stomped his foot and shot forward. He pulled out a five-colored spear and thrust it at the forefather.

"F * ck! You really came!"

Great ancestor Purple Lotus's eyes bulged out in shock.

F * ck! He was just casually scolding them. He was already having a hard time blocking these four zombies, so how could he block this guy?

Whoosh!

In the blink of an eye, Tang Hao was right in front of him, and he thrust his spear forward.

Forefather Purple Lotus flicked his horsetail whisk in a hurry to counter the attack.

Bang!

The energy exploded, shaking him so much that he was sent flying backward.

The four zombies pounced on him and launched a fierce attack, forcing him to retreat in a sorry state.

Tang Hao drew his red bow and fired an arrow at him.

Old ancestor Purple Lotus was so scared that his face turned pale. He let out a strange cry and turned into a purple light, fleeing upward for his life.

“Shi, just you wait!”

From afar, he could hear his angry shouts.

“Hmph!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao grunted coldly. His eyes were filled with murderous intent.

Ancestor Purple Lotus was a plant demon. His flesh and blood were great tonics. As long as he refined them into pills, his cultivation base would skyrocket.

He would refine this guy sooner or later!

Then, his figure moved and he swept toward the crowd.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

One after another, the arrow light shot out, bombarding those three-kill powerhouses into a sorry state. Many of them turned around and ran when they saw that the situation was not good.

With beheading three's strength, it was quite easy to get rid of these zombies. He didn't leave before because he wanted to kill Tang Hao. Now that he saw that there was no hope of killing Tang Hao, he left decisively.

In a short while, half of the team had left, and even the sun Moon Mountain had decisively run away.

"Let's go!"

Seeing that the behead three experts had run away, behead one and behead two also ran for their lives.

"You want to leave? It won't be that easy!"

Tang Hao lifted the wheel of life and death and started to spin again. Wherever his gaze landed, he would kill one slash two after another.

As for those who had been cut in one, it was even easier. Wherever he went, a group of figures was turned into ashes.

"This is ... A massacre!"

"This is too tragic!"

Those who were lucky enough to escape turned back to look, and they were so shocked that their faces turned pale.

It was supposed to be a siege, and they thought it would be easy. However, they did not expect to be slaughtered instead.

A year ago, on high sun Star, this old Demon Stone had already massacred a large number of people. Now, on this nether expanse star, another massacre was happening. It was already impossible to count how many people had died in the hands of this old Demon Stone.

“He’s truly a peerless fiend!”

“Run! This guy can’t be provoked! It’s better to leave it to Sun Moon Mountain and the others to settle it themselves!”

Everyone was really afraid!

Ah!

The screams continued.

There were people constantly dying, and there were also those who escaped, running for their lives. The number of people in the mountain range was decreasing.

“Freeze!”

The last person was also dead and turned into ashes.

Tang Hao finally stopped. He stretched out his hand, and countless items flew toward him from all directions. They were rings, Dao artifacts, and storage tools. He put them all into his bag.

“Let’s go!”

He leaped up and rushed into the sky. He took out the star compass and left the nether expanse star.

Along the way, he took out the items and counted them.

“I’m rich! I’m rich!”

Tang Hao grinned from ear to ear as he looked at the piles of stellar crystals.

When he had first arrived, he was completely broke, but now he was rich again. He didn't even know how many people he had killed. He had killed many on planet Gaoyang, and now he had killed even more, and there were many slash two.

Slash two's net worth was naturally not something slash one could compare to.

"A Supreme-grade Dao artifact, not bad!"

"A high-grade Dao artifact? It's passable!"

Tang Hao's outlook was different now. Supreme-grade Dao weapons were nothing.

"Eh? What the hell is this?"

While he was counting the rings, Tang Hao found a scroll. He opened it and saw a map.

"A treasure map?"

Tang Hao was stunned when he saw it.

The map in front of him looked like a treasure map no matter how he looked at it.

Then, his eyes lit up. Treasure maps were his favorite. There might be some good treasures hidden in them.

"Keep this. We'll study it later!"

Tang Hao solemnly put away the treasure map and continued to count. It took him half a day to sort everything out.
