

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1359

Planet Luoxia.

A ray of light descended and landed in a lotus pond in the sunset sect.

At the bottom of the Lotus pond, a handsome man opened his eyes and reached out to grab the ball of light.

The next moment, his expression changed drastically, and he rushed out of the lotus pond.

“Sect master!”

Upon seeing him, exclamations of shock rang out from all directions.

This person was the master of the sunset sect.

“I have something to do and need to make a trip to the Dao tomb!”

The man said indifferently. Then, he soared into the sky and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

“What is this? What happened at the Dao tomb?”

There was an uproar in the sunset sect.

If the sect master, who was a Lord of Heaven, had to make a move personally, something shocking must have happened at the Dao tomb.

At this moment, on the main planets such as the Young Gate Planet, the Cave Spirit Planet, and the Northern Sun Planet, the Heavenly Lords had all received the news and moved out.

On the peak of the mountain in the Dao tomb, the ancient Bell was still ringing. The bell rang non-stop, echoing in every corner of the star field.

Next to this star region, in another star region, there was another Dao tomb. The Dao Bell on it also shook, giving off a loud bell sound that resounded in all directions.

Soon, in another star field, another ancient Bell rang.

The bell rang in succession across the star fields.

Almost every star field had a Dao tomb. Although each Dao tomb opened at a different time, the ancient Bell above them rang at this moment.

Clang clang clang!

The sound of the bell resounded through the entire Galaxy, shocking countless people.

“The Dao Bell has rung. Is the Dao tomb about to open? But the timing isn’t right!”

Most people were extremely puzzled.

However, there were also some people who were extremely shocked.

“This is the cry of Dao, a Supreme monster has been born!”

“Every time such a monster is born, the sound of ten thousand bells will shake the entire Galaxy! I just don’t know which star field has produced such a monster this time!”

Along with the sound of the bell, the entire star field was in an uproar.

“What is this?”

Everyone around the Dao tomb looked up at the celestial River that fell from the nine Heavens with shock and confusion.

“This is ... An anomaly! The phenomenon of a celestial-grade Dao fruit!”

An old true Lord who had seen a lot recognized it and shouted excitedly.

As soon as he said this, the four sides fell silent again.

Everyone was stunned again.

Then, it was madness.

The immortal-grade Dao fruit was a Dao fruit that surpassed the tenth grade.

This also meant that the talent of that surnamed Shi was not only tenth grade, but it was very likely that it was above tenth grade, almost a dream-like immortal grade.

Even the tenth grade had shocked them so much. Now, an even more terrifying celestial grade had appeared, which was completely beyond their ability to bear.

“F * ck! Immortal-grade?”

Elder Xie’s jaw almost dropped to the ground.

Then, he beat his chest and stomped his feet, shouting in frustration.

At this moment, he wished he could stab himself a dozen times. What a sin it was to miss out on a God grade monster!

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. He realized that he could not control his body.

“It seems like this ancient Bell can also test one’s aptitude!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

After a while, the power disappeared, and he quickly put away the two Dao fruits.

“Dao pillar ... Immortal-grade? This is an immortal-grade Dao pillar?”

Tang Hao’s expression was strange. The Supreme Dao pillar should have been tenth grade, but after the green Lotus repaired it, the Dao pillar had undergone a great change. It seemed that even its grade had been upgraded.

It was also because of this that he was able to sever the celestial grade Dao fruit.

Tang Hao was a little relieved after he was clear about his rank.

However, he didn’t feel that it was very powerful. His immortal treasure was definitely not the only one. If he could cultivate it, others could too. This starry sky was too vast, so there must be other immortal treasures.

It was just that he couldn’t touch it yet!

The clock finally stopped after a while.

Tang Hao turned around and walked toward the graves.

There were a total of three tombs, one made of Yellow Earth and two made of bluestone, no different from the ones below.

“Perfected Lord Gu Xing was born on Dong Ling planet. He killed five Dao in his life and massacred millions of enemies ... He’s a killer!”

Tang Hao walked to the yellow Earth tomb and looked at the gravestone.

“He’s already cut down five. It looks like he’s failed to become immortal! This ... Good fellow, he had already cut down six! True Monarch Wenshan, this is simple enough, there’s nothing written. ”

“And this one, true Lord Chong Wu, is also in the six Dao! Chongwu? From the name, it seems that his physical body is quite powerful!”

Tang Hao guessed.

Then, he extended his soul consciousness and carefully sensed it.

“This is ... The ultimate flame Dao, this is the fantasy truth Dao, the heartless Dao ... And there’s even the withering glory Dao!”

He looked around and frowned.

There were quite a number of Dao souls in these three tombs. The true illusion path and the ultimate flame path were not bad. As for the heartless path, he did not want to cultivate it.

To cultivate this Dao, one had to cut off the threads of love. How could he do that?

As for the life and death Dao, he had already cultivated the life and death Dao, so there was no need for it.

He paced around and pondered. Suddenly, he caught a glimpse of a bulge on the ground from the corner of his eye. It was quite small, so he didn’t notice it just now.

“Why is there another one?”

He immediately walked over.

This bulge was just below the mountain wall and was completely unremarkable.

In front of the arch, there was a stone tablet that was erected askew, but there was not a single word on it.

“Strange!”

Tang Hao mumbled. He was puzzled.

Then, he noticed a few lines of words carved on the mountain wall.

When he took a closer look, he was stunned.

“What lousy Dao tomb? it’s too simple and boring. F * ck! Who carved this? what a bold tone! Xue qianchi ... Who is Xue qianchi?”

“Aiya! I’m here again! Xue qianchi was here!”

“The ninth guy, I came back specially to leave something for you. If it’s you, you’ll definitely be able to make it here. Remember to dig up the grave and take a look. You’ll know what’s going on after you see it!”

Tang Hao was confused when he saw that.

The ninth guy?

Who was he referring to?

Tang Hao scratched his head. He could not figure out what was going on.

“Forget it! Let’s dig it up first and see if there’s any treasure!”

Tang Hao’s eyes sparkled as he stared at the tomb.

The ordinary tombs here didn’t have any treasures. They only buried people and hid a few Dao souls. However, the one in front of him shouldn’t be a tomb. There should be something hidden inside.

He rubbed his hands, squatted down, and started digging.

After a few moments, the bulge was removed. After digging for a while, a blood-colored bead was revealed.

Tang Hao reached out to grab the blood bead.

At this time, the blood bead trembled and suddenly flew up, hanging high in the air. A blood light rushed out of it and turned into a figure in a blood-red robe. He had a handsome face and exuded a demonic aura.

He looked at Tang Hao and said with a smile, "the ninth king! You're here!"

Tang Hao's body shook as if he had been struck by lightning.

"I am Xue qianchi, the eighth King of the great void realm, The Blood King!"
