

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1373

In the heaven's equal mountain range, a group was currently advancing. They were Grand and majestic, winding like a long Dragon.

The first round of assessment had eliminated nearly half of the people. However, because there were too many people taking part in the assessment, even if half were eliminated, there were still over a million people.

The crowd whispered to each other, their expressions excited.

Passing the first round meant that he was one step closer to the equal heaven courtyard.

"What a surprise! A Dark Horse had appeared in the first round! I thought that the first would be Lei zhentian!"

"Hey! Who would have thought! When they heard about that Lei zhentian and that group of evildoers, their faces turned green! It's embarrassing to be surpassed by a weirdo!"

Many people were discussing the first round.

As they conversed, they looked forward and swept their gazes over Lei zhentian and the others with a hint of mockery.

When they glanced at Tang Hao again, their expressions turned strange.

There was no doubt that this person with the surname Shi was a peerless oddball. When he signed up, his specialty was that he could eat a lot. During the assessment, he even took out his utensils and leisurely went for a picnic. He was a complete foodie.

However, he was not an ordinary weirdo. He was a powerful weirdo and could not be underestimated.

They were all secretly on guard, preparing to be careful of this guy in the second round.

The group of top geniuses' faces darkened when they heard the discussion among the crowd. They turned around from time to time and glared at Tang Hao.

"Wait, I'll kill this guy first!"

"Don't let me catch him, or I'll be the first to kill him!"

They were all filled with killing intent.

Snatching the first place, causing them to lose all face. This guy deserved to die!

"Flowing Cloud Star area? I've never heard of him, and I don't know which corner he's from."

They were even more disdainful.

Which one of them wasn't a disciple of the ancient clan with an illustrious and Noble status? as for this Shi guy, he was just a poor country bumpkin. If he were to be killed, nothing would happen to him.

Tang Hao did not even bother with them.

He lowered his head and walked over, baring his teeth and grimacing in annoyance.

"Al! If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have gotten first place!"

He sighed, frowning.

According to his plan, he would have to keep a low profile. However, things were great now. He had gotten first place in the first round, so he had become a target. He would definitely be targeted in the second round.

Most importantly, he had worked so hard to get the first place, but it was nothing.

"What a loss! What a loss!"

He mumbled, becoming more and more worried.

“We’re here! The trial grounds are just ahead!”

A few minutes later, the elders leading the group stopped. The leading elder raised his hand and pointed to the front.

This person’s surname was Wang, and his name was Yun.

Everyone stopped and looked up.

What he saw was a vast mountain range that connected the sky and the earth. It was shrouded in mist and looked like a realm of Immortals.

“This place is the exclusive trial ground of our heaven-reaching Academy. There are 100000 mountain peaks, and it’s boundless. Vicious beasts are all over the place, and there are even some archaic descendants with primitive bloodlines. It’s extremely dangerous.”

“Your task is to collect this item. It’s called the equal to heaven token. This item can be found anywhere, under the pond, in the cave, or even in the belly of a fierce beast.”

“As long as you can find one piece, you can pass this round of assessment. But remember, there are only 10000 equal to heaven tokens in total!”

At this point, elder Wang Yun paused.

The atmosphere in the crowd suddenly became tense.

They all knew what this meant.

There were only 10000 tokens, but they had a million people. If they wanted to get it, they could only Rob it.

Elder Wang Yun continued, "the time limit for this round is three days. The final ranking will be based on the number of tokens held. The one with the most tokens will be ranked first."

"Alright, let's start now!"

Then, he waved his sleeve, and the fog in front of him dispersed, revealing a wide passage.

"Shi, just you wait! I will kill you!"

The genius of the Thunder clan pointed at Tang Hao and shouted.

He glared at Tang Hao, then turned around and entered the trial zone.

"Shi, don't let me see you again!"

The genius of the Xiao family snorted angrily and glared at him as well, before floating into the trial zone.

"Shi, just you wait ...!"

"The one surnamed Shi,..."

Before the group of demons entered, they all made threatening remarks.

"This guy ... He's doomed!"

"With so many monsters targeting him, I'm afraid this guy won't have an easy time!"

Everyone said in a low voice. They all felt some sympathy for this Shi guy. Being targeted by so many monsters was really a terrifying thing.

"Little brat, you have to be careful!"

Elder Wang Yun warned Tang Hao.

“I’m not afraid!”

Tang Hao strode toward the entrance.

As he stepped into it, the void in front of him suddenly changed. When he looked up again, he was already in the middle of a vast ancient forest.

He looked around and saw no one.

“It seems like it’s a random teleportation.”

Tang Hao suddenly understood.

He flew up and looked around. He couldn’t see the end at all. This mountain range was simply too large and boundless. The majestic peaks reached the sky and were magnificent.

The ancient forest exuded a vast and ancient aura.

From the ancient forest, there were countless roars of beasts. The roars spread out and shook the wilderness.

He could feel countless powerful auras all over the mountain range. Some of them even made his mind tremble. Their auras were terrifying beyond compare. They were probably fierce beasts at the immortal realm.

“Be good! It’s indeed a little dangerous!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed.

“Let’s go find a token first!”

He pondered for a moment, then swept forward, releasing his soul consciousness to explore the surroundings.

“BOOM!” BOOM!”

It was an earthquake.

A giant ape walked over from the side and passed in front. It was several thousand feet tall, as tall as the mountain peak. Its entire body was silver, shining with a golden and iron-like luster.

His face was ugly and his eyes flashed with a Scarlet light. His entire body exuded a fierce, crazy, and brutal aura.

Buzzzzzz!

A sharp cry came from the sky, shaking the world.

In the sky, a dark cloud pressed down. It was a huge black bird covered in demonic flames. Its ferocious might was monstrous.

It screeched as it streaked across the sky. The pressure it exuded was as heavy as a mountain, and Tang Hao's expression changed.

These two beasts were both at the immortal realm.

He concealed his aura and carefully advanced. Along the way, he saw many giant beasts, many of which had rather ancient bloodlines.

This mountain range was a paradise for giant beasts.

Tang Hao's expression suddenly changed as he made a discovery.

There was a pond not far ahead. He had checked it and found a chest at the bottom of the pond. There must be a heaven's equal token in it.

He sped up, reached the top of the pool, and plunged in.

After a few breaths, he sank to the bottom of the pool and dug out the box from the mud. He lifted it up and opened it. A golden light bloomed from inside.

It was a heaven's equal token.

Tang Hao was overjoyed. He reached out and grabbed the token.

However, at this moment, there was a sudden movement from the side. Two dim lights lit up in the dark water, as big as lanterns.
