

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1411

“Brother Shi, what are you mumbling about?”

A few grassroots disciples asked curiously when they saw Tang Hao mumbling something.

If he really said it, he was afraid that he would scare these people.

The few of them didn’t mind and continued to stroll around.

As time passed, more and more people arrived, and the mountain became more and more lively. There were people everywhere, making a lot of noise. From time to time, there would be the sound of cursing and fighting.

Every time this happened, the people around them would gather around and watch the show.

“Fight! Good fight!”

Everyone was watching the show and didn't mind the commotion, so they all started to make a fuss.

Tang Hao and the others would also go over and shout.

When it was almost dark, a flood Dragon flew over in the sky. Its body was extremely huge, nearly five to six thousand feet long. Its scales were silver, shining with a bright light.

On its back, countless figures could be vaguely seen.

"The people from war god mountain have arrived!"

The mountain was in an uproar.

As one of the three great pure lands, war god mountain had a long history and a profound Foundation, which was no less than the heavenly Department and the primordial chaos Daoist sect.

In the past, the three great pure lands had always been the absolute focus when the Azure Emperor mountain opened.

“War god mountain?”

Tang Hao also raised his head and looked at the Dragon that was shining with silver light.

“Damn it, the way they made their entrance was much more impressive than us!”

“This year’s war god mountain isn’t any weaker than our equal to heaven Department. There are many geniuses here. What’s the name of the most powerful guy? Wudi? his name is awesome, and his strength is also awesome.”

“Ye Wudi, the genius of the ye clan!”

“Yes, yes! The ye clan’s golden body was quite awesome and had an invincible body! War god mountain is specialized in body cultivation. The ye clan has always entered war god mountain.”

A few grassroots disciples at the side started discussing.

As the flood Dragon descended, the figures on top of it became clearer. There were about 300 people, about the same as the people from the equal heaven Department.

“Look! That’s invincible ye!”

A burst of exclamations erupted from the crowd. Everyone raised their hands and pointed at the back of the dragon, their eyes landing on one person.

This was a tall and handsome young man. He stood in front of the crowd with his hands behind his back and his head held high. His posture and expression were proud and unparalleled, with an aura of invincibility.

“As expected of invincible ye!”

When everyone saw this, they were all full of praise.

Ye Wudi was undoubtedly the most dazzling existence among the new Disciples of War god mountain, just like Lei zhentian from the equal heaven Department.

“One of them is heaven-shaking, and the other is invincible. I wonder who is more powerful!”

“It’s hard to say. One has an invincible body, while the other has a shocking divine eye. It’s hard to say who is more powerful!”

The crowd was discussing, comparing ye Wudi to Lei zhentian.

“F * ck! Your nostrils are so high up!”

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. Invincible? he did not care about that at all. There was no invincible person in this world.

After the group of people landed, the atmosphere slowly calmed down.

The next morning, the people from the primordial chaos Daoist sect arrived on a giant bird, causing a commotion.

At this point, all three great pure lands had arrived.

By noon, the atmosphere had become lively again. People began to gather. Those young disciples were led by their respective elders to the foot of the cyan Emperor mountain.

There, there was a spatial crack. It was the passage that led to the real green Emperor mountain.

As the humans gathered here, the prehistoric behemoths were also gathering on the other side. Even though they had shrunk many times, they still looked like small mountains, and their aura was terrifying.

“Remember, be careful!”

“Is everything ready? did you bring everything?”

The elders of the various immortal sects were all exhorting their own geniuses, and some even took out various treasures to distribute to these geniuses.

Everyone was making their final preparations.

It was the same for the disciples of the equal heaven Department. Elder Wang Yun was telling the disciples about the things to pay attention to.

“Disciple, take this well!”

The elders also took out many things and stuffed them into their disciples 'hands.

“My good disciple, you must be careful! When it’s time to be scared, you must be scared! You can’t stand out!”

“My good disciple, take this well!”

“My good disciple, this is for you!”

The group of Masters surrounded Tang Hao and gave him instructions. At the same time, they shoved all sorts of things over to him. There were all sorts of treasure pills, all sorts of Dao weapons, and even tribulation weapons.

“If you’re injured, eat this. As long as you’re still breathing, you’ll immediately be revived with full health!”

The alchemy Masters had stuffed a few bottles of Supreme-grade treasure pills into their hands. They seemed to feel that it was not enough, so they rummaged through their pockets and took out a few bottles.

The others 'eyes turned red!

Especially Lei zhentian and the others. Their eyes were bloodshot and they were so jealous that they were going crazy.

When the people from the other forces saw this, they were dumbfounded.

What was going on?

Why did these old guys keep calling him 'good disciple'? could they all be this guy's Masters? Oh my God! How could this be possible? How could one person have so many masters!

And those things, damn, they were all treasure pills!

It was too extravagant!

This guy ... Who was he?

Seeing so many treasures, their eyes turned red, and their breathing became rapid. At the same time, they were extremely puzzled. They didn't even know this guy.

"He is Shi Ritian!"

Someone in the know said.

"What? Is he the Super all-rounded genius, Shi Ritian?"

Everyone's hearts trembled, somewhat aghast.

Shi Ritian's name had already spread across planet Dong Ling.

"No wonder the elders of Qitian Academy are so nervous!" They also realized that a super all-rounded genius would be treated like a treasure by any force.

Looking at this guy, and then looking at the treasures all over him, they all had the same thought.

This was a big fat sheep!

A guy who wasn't very strong, but was full of treasures, what was he if not a fat sheep! As long as we can Rob him and grab these treasures, wouldn't this trip to the Green Emperor mountain be much easier?

At the thought of this, they were all excited.

"We must find him first and Rob him!"

They were secretly plotting.

"All-rounded genius? Hmph! He's just a useless fellow!" On the side of war god mountain, many people glanced at him and laughed.

Ye Wudi also glanced at him, his face cold and arrogant, with some disdain.

He had never placed such a person in his eyes. The only opponents he had were people like Lei zhentian and Xiao Yan.

“My good disciple, I’m still worried! You can also take this!”

“My good disciple, you must return safely!”

The group of Masters kept searching through their pockets. No matter what they pulled out, they stuffed it into their hands. They were all worried that Tang Hao would get into an accident.

“Enough! That’s enough!” Tang Hao kept trying to persuade her.

He didn’t even know how many treasures he had stuffed into his body!
