

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1415

“Sixty-one, sixty-two ...”

Tang Hao took down two more.

“Mother! This kid was just pretending!” In the dark, someone witnessed the entire scene, and his scalp went numb and he was speechless.

At the same time, he was extremely glad that he did not rush up in a moment of rashness. Otherwise, he would have fallen down as well.

“This isn’t a fat sheep! They’re clearly evil wolves!”

He laughed bitterly, shuddered, and left in a hurry.

Tang Hao picked up the bag and continued on his way. However, fewer and fewer people took the bait. After all, they were not stupid. They could tell that something was wrong.

It had been more than an hour since the trial had started. This kid swaggered out like this. He should have been robbed long ago, but he was still fine. If it wasn’t a ghost, what was it?

This was probably a trap!

Perhaps there was a group of people from the equal heaven Department hiding behind this brat, and they were using him as bait!

Tang Hao walked around for a long time, but there was no one left.

“What a pity!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He was a little disappointed. He wanted to get more!

Seeing that this trick was no longer effective, he decisively gave up, put away the bag, and swept forward. He found a Valley and set up layers of arrays before sitting down.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

One by one, the split souls flew out and rushed in all directions. They used their divine arts, clairvoyance and clairaudience, to begin scouting the surroundings.

Nothing could escape Tang Hao's eyes and ears wherever the split soul was.

"This is ... The ancient herb garden?"

In a corner of the mountain range, Tang Hao discovered a place shrouded in mist. All kinds of colored lights shone out from within. That was the glow of precious medicine.

"That's ... The heavenly Fire pond!"

In another corner, Tang Hao found a cave with scorching heatwaves surging out of it.

After that, Tang Hao discovered many more ruins. There were many silhouettes moving around these ruins. Some were human disciples, while others were ancient beasts.

This realm was extremely vast and boundless. There were also many ruins. In the center of this realm, there was a divine mountain. It was completely green and there was multicolored light flowing on it.

One could vaguely see that it was covered with palaces and buildings.

Halfway up the mountain, there was a green pillar of light that was unusually eye-catching.

“What’s that?”

Tang Hao was stunned when he saw the light. He thought about it for a while and then realized something. “Green Emperor station!”

The Green Emperor stage could be said to be one of the most important things in this world.

It was said that this item was exceptionally wondrous and was the most precious treasure of the Green Emperor mountain. As long as one could step onto the stage, one could pray for a gift from the heavens and receive a treasure.

These treasures were of different grades. Some were ordinary Dao artifacts, some were tribulation artifacts, and there were even precious medicines. There were all kinds of rare treasures.

It was said that someone had once ascended the Azure Emperor stage and was bestowed with a divine medicine, which shook the entire Donglin sacred planet.

As for the theory behind it, no one could explain it clearly. They could only guess that it was related to talent and luck.

As for this cyan Emperor stage, everyone guessed that it was used by the cyan Emperor mountain to reward its disciples.

There were already quite a few people around the cyan Emperor stage. That beam of green light that shot into the sky was because someone had ascended the stage and triggered Tianci, which was why it appeared.

There was a commotion coming from the other side.

Upon a closer look, there were prehistoric beasts and humans. They were divided into two camps and were all waiting to go up the Green Emperor stage.

Looking up, many people were flying up and disappearing into the clouds.

“That’s the heavenly God arena!”

Tang Hao mumbled. His eyes glowed.

The heavenly God arena was an existence that was not inferior to the cyan Emperor stage. It was also the place where the human race and the untainted land tribe fought.

This arena was also quite mysterious. As long as one performed well, they could also be rewarded with treasures. This was also the reason why the two clans were so keen on fighting here.

“I’m not in a hurry to go to these places!”

Tang Hao looked around, then retracted his gaze from the peak and continued to look around.

He saw many people, some of whom were famous, such as ye Wudi and Yu Shixuan. When his eyes fell on Yu Shixuan, she seemed to sense it and suddenly turned around.

Then, his body moved and disappeared.

“This guy ... Is quite sharp!” Tang Hao mumbled.

This Yushi min was the reincarnation of an Almighty being, and he was one of the three magnates of the new batch of disciples in the equal heaven Academy along with Xiao Yan and Lei zhentian. He was quite capable.

“There it is!”

A moment later, Tang Hao found traces of the Lin clan’s genius and the others in another corner.

He narrowed his eyes, and killing intent burst out.

How could he not know that this fellow was secretly plotting against him? he had long had his eyes on this fellow and was prepared to get rid of this Lin fellow here.

“There are quite a few people ... It’s not easy to make a move!”

Apart from Lin fan, Lei zhentian was also present. There were more than a dozen people in the group, and with Tang Hao’s current strength, he was definitely not a match for them.

The sky-shaking Thunder light was already quite troublesome. The potential of a Saint was not to be trifled with. His combat power was unparalleled, and he did not have absolute confidence in a direct confrontation.

After some thought, he had a plan.

-----

“Damn it, where did that Shi guy go?”

“Someone saw him here just now, but he’s gone now!”

In the ancient forest, Lei zhentian and his men were searching around.

When they didn’t see anyone, they started to curse.

“Don’t worry, he can’t run away. This place is only so big! Where can he hide, and how long can he hide!” The Lin clan’s genius sneered and said viciously.

“That’s true!”

The crowd nodded.

They calmed down and continued their search.

Not long after, suddenly, not far ahead, a beam of light shot into the sky, dazzling and dazzling.

“That’s ... The treasure light?”

They looked up, and their expressions changed.

“There’s a treasure! Hurry up!”

Then, they revealed eager expressions and sped up, heading in that direction.

At this moment, they had forgotten about Shi Ritian. They could find him later, but they would not find the treasure if they missed it.

They didn't have the slightest doubt that this was a trap. After all, buried treasures often appeared here, so there was nothing strange about it.

At this time, the treasure would belong to whoever arrived first.

"Look! It's the valley in front!"

As they got closer, they could see clearly that the treasure light had rushed out from a Valley in front of them.

"Be careful, there might be restrictions or formations!"

They slowed down and raised their vigilance.

After entering the valley, there was a sudden explosion in all directions. Flames rose up into the sky and turned into fire dragons that pounced over. Then, it was followed by frost, sword Qi, lightning ...

Countless rays of light came over their heads and hit them until they were flustered.

“Not good!”

They shouted and dodged, but then they found that the space around them had changed. The others had disappeared, and they were the only ones left.

“An illusory formation!”

Their expressions changed in unison.

“Hmph! You want to stop me with a mere illusory formation?”

“Hmph!” The genius of the Lin clan snorted in anger and took out his tribulation weapon in an attempt to break the formation.

However, at this moment, the void behind him suddenly tore open, and a five-colored brilliance rushed out.

“Not good!”

The Lin clan genius 'reaction was also extremely fast. He activated his protective Dao artifact and blocked the five-colored light.

But then, another figure rushed out from the crack and threw a punch.

BOOM!

The protective light screen shattered immediately. The punch landed on his body, causing his flesh and blood to explode. A huge hole appeared on his body.

“You ... Who are you?”

He dragged his broken body and fled in a panic. After retreating a distance, he raised his eyes and saw clearly. His body trembled and his eyes widened, revealing extreme shock.

“It's you!”

He cried out in disbelief.

This guy in front of him, wasn't he the Shi Ritian he was looking for!

What was he doing here?

Right, baoguang! Could it be that all of this was a trap set by this fellow?

Tang Hao's face was cold. He dashed toward the Lin clan's genius and slammed his palm down on his head, killing him.
