

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1629

The flame immortal looked at Tang Hao in a daze.

Was this ... Really the King of Qin?

The unparalleled monster who had once caused a sensation on the Qi Yuan planet!

What was he doing here?

Flame immortal's heart was in turmoil. He was both excited and emotional.

The feeling of meeting an old friend in a foreign land touched him deeply.

"It seems like ... He's not doing too well either!" Flame immortal sighed in his heart as he examined Tang Hao.

When he left Qiyuan, he was full of ambition and wanted to make a name for himself in this starry sky. But now, he was in a miserable state.

This person was once a monster whose name shook Qi Yuan. He had advanced to Dao severance in his twenties. Back in Qi Yuan, he was so awe-inspiring and was known as a legend, a legend. But now, he was also being chased by people and ended up in such a sorry state.

Only after leaving Qi Yuan did he know that this starry sky was so vast, and there were monsters everywhere. Severing Dao in their twenties, such geniuses could be found everywhere. Those monsters from the large clans and sects, which one of them was not comparable to this monster?

"Long time no see!"

He gathered his thoughts and cupped his hands.

"Brother tai-Shu, it's been more than twenty years since we last met. I didn't expect to meet you in the starry sky. How have you been?" Tang Hao said with a smile.

"It's alright!"

Flame immortal grinned, but his smile was a little bitter.

The green-robed young master looked at the two of them again and asked in a low voice, "Elder li, what's the matter? do you know each other?"

Flame immortal nodded. "Yes, we're from the same place!"

"Oh," the young master in green replied. He looked at Tang Hao with a disdainful expression.

He knew that elder li came from a broken place where the spiritual energy was thin and the treasures were scarce. There were only a few Dao severing cultivators. Since he came from that kind of broken place, he couldn't be that powerful.

The other people of the Tai-Shu family were the same, showing a look of disdain.

The Tai-Shu family was a large clan on the central sacred planet. They had been around for tens of thousands of years and had a deep foundation. They had always looked down on small cultivators from such a broken place who had neither strength nor background.

"Tsk! I thought he was some powerful person, but he's just trash!"

"I heard it's some Qiyuan! It's very broken, and there aren't even many Dao severing experts. I think this one is at most at the early immortal realm!"

"Hahaha! That's for sure. With their lowly status, it's already a great fortune for them to cultivate to immortal!"

They sneered in their hearts.

In their eyes, this guy who was born in Qiyuan was just lowly trash. In front of their noble tai-Shu family, he was not even an ant.

The green-robed young master sneered to himself for a while. Suddenly, as if he had thought of something, he grinned and his expression suddenly changed. He revealed a warm look and said, "Aiya! In the vast starry sky, to be able to meet a fellow townsman, it was really fate! Elder Li, you still don't welcome him?"

Yan Xian's expression immediately changed, becoming somewhat unsightly.

The others also realized something, and their faces all changed, revealing enthusiastic expressions.

"Hahaha! What a coincidence!"

They all laughed and acted like they were hospitable guests.

The man in the green robe shouted at Tang Hao, "Fellow Daoist, you're being hunted down, right? don't worry, you're safe now. With my tai-Shu family here, who would dare to touch you? You're a friend of elder li, which means you're a friend of the Tai-Shu family!"

"Fellow Daoist, if you don't mind, please come up and have a seat. We'll escort you out later."

He was very enthusiastic, but the flame immortal's expression became uglier and uglier.

"This ... Young master, there's no need. I'm not very familiar with him." Yan Xian stammered.

The green-robed young master laughed and said, "ah!" Elder li, how can you be like this? we're from the same village, don't you want to help him?"

“Ah! Elder Li, you really are ...”

The others all began to criticize.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he saw that.

He could tell that the situation was a little off. These people from the Tai-Shu family didn't seem to have good intentions towards him. He had naturally noticed their disdainful expressions and their fiery gazes when they looked at him.

Also, there seemed to be something wrong with the flame immortal's behavior.

Thinking back to the past, this flame immortal was so graceful and full of spirit.

But now, he was a little down and out, and his expression was even more timid. Although he was called an elder, he seemed to have no status in the Tai-Shu family.

Those people's gazes when looking at him were not the slightest bit courteous.

After a moment's thought, he rushed forward with a grateful expression.

“Thank you so much. I was unlucky to have come to the star ruins to dig up some treasures, but I didn't expect to be found by my enemies. I was hunted down for a long time, but with the Tai-Shu family here, there won't be any problems.”

The green-robed young master's smile became even more enthusiastic, but a hint of ruthlessness flashed across his eyes.

He didn't care about the life of such an ant. What he cared about was the treasured clothing. Perhaps this guy had some other treasures on him, and all of them would be his.

If he attacked rashly, he might scare this guy away, but if he lured him onto the boat, he would definitely eat him up.

When he saw Tang Hao land, he smiled even more warmly, but he was overjoyed in his heart.

This guy was still a little stupid. He trusted others so easily!

He laughed in his heart.

He thought for a moment, but he didn't make a move immediately. Since this guy had already come in, he was like a turtle in a jar. There was no way he could escape. He still had to explore the depths of the star ruins later. Perhaps he could use this guy as cannon fodder.

At that moment, he gave his subordinates a look, asking them to be more patient.

“Fellow Daoist, how should I address you?”

He smiled at Tang Hao.

“Surnamed Tang!” Tang Hao said.

“Oh! Daoist Tang, we’re here to explore the depths of this place. Why don’t you come with us? we’ll escort you out when we come out. What do you think?”

The young man in the green robe said.

“That’s good!”

“Yes,” Tang Hao agreed.

The flame immortal opened his mouth several times, but he stopped.

In the end, he sighed and did not say anything more.

“Alright, there’s nothing else here. Let’s continue to move forward and take a look at the depths.” The green-robed young master shouted. After a while, the ship started to move and headed towards the depths of the star ruins.

Every time they passed by a Broken Star piece, they would stop and send someone to explore it, and just like that, they went deeper.

This group of people was quite powerful. There were many perfected heavenly Lords and this big ship, which was also a very powerful treasure. Although there were dangers along the way, they managed to avert them.

“This is the depths of the star ruins. Ordinary people can’t enter at all. Our tai-Shu family has many experts and such a peerless good ship, so we can come here.”

The green-robed young master stood at the bow of the ship and shouted with pride.

“Fellow cultivator Tang, I bet you’ve never seen such a powerful warship!”

An elder of the Tai-Shu family said.

His tone was full of pride, and his expression was high and mighty, full of a sense of superiority.

“Yup! What a good ship!”

Tang Hao said, pretending to be impressed.
