

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1694

Usually, this barren mountain was uninhabited, but it was quite lively now.

“Hey! Heyyo!”

Tang Hao was working hard in the mountains with a hoe on his shoulder. He was transforming the land into a medicinal field for planting herbs.

He had already built a thatched cottage at the foot of the barren mountain.

In the center of this barren mountain, he circled out a large piece of land and prepared to use it to plant medicine.

“Look! Isn’t that the idiot? Why did he stop?”

Someone passed by and was stunned when he saw this scene.

They couldn’t be more familiar with the burly man carrying a hoe. Wasn’t he the fool who had become famous recently? he had been walking around the mountain all day with a compass in his hand, whimsically looking for immortal veins, causing a sensation in the mountain for a while.

When they saw the barren mountains, they were overjoyed.

“Hahaha! How did he find such a broken land!”

The spiritual energy in the mountain in front of him was ordinary. It was really unremarkable. Most people would not choose this place to find a cave abode.

This guy said that he wanted to find immortal veins, but in the end, he found such a broken land. What a joke!

They pointed in their direction and laughed for a while before leaving.

After the news spread, there were even people who came over to take a look, causing a commotion for a while.

Tang Hao ignored them. He buried his head in the medicinal field. He only put down his hoe after everyone had left and began to set up a formation. In order to hide his identity, the outermost layers of the formation were very ordinary. They were suitable for his immortal status.

And inside, he used the strongest formation he had.

He had also created a spirit gathering formation to gather the spirit Qi from all directions.

Then, he started to create an array that could draw in the immortal veins.

He had once refined a formation that could activate spiritual veins, so it would be fine with a little modification.

“I’ll call it the great immortal-attracting array!”

Tang Hao randomly came up with a name, then walked around the barren mountain. He buried the materials for the formation in the place he had dug out earlier. When the formation was activated, Tang Hao could sense the movement of the immortal vein deep underground not long after.

Wisps of immortal Qi were drawn up and finally gathered under the thatched cottage.

As time passed, the immortal Qi continued to grow stronger.

Not only could the array absorb the immortal Qi from the immortal Meridian’s branch, but it could also continuously absorb immortal Qi from the immortal Meridian’s main trunk through the branch.

Tang Hao divided the immortal Qi into three parts. One part went under the futon in the thatched cottage for him to meditate and absorb, another part went into the mobile abode to nourish the herbs inside, and the last part spread to the herb field.

Tang Hao had modified the herb fields with celestial water. They were extremely fertile, and with the nourishment of celestial Qi, the best spirit herbs could be grown.

Tang Hao planned to plant ginseng, blood Lingzhi, Vermilion fruit, and other spirit herbs that could increase his cultivation in the field. That way, he could quickly improve his cultivation.

He had also set up a formation on the top of the barren mountain to absorb the essence of the sunlight and nourish the Jade bottle, thus speeding up the collection of the celestial water.

Not only was Pangu continent rich in natural energy, but the essence of the sun and the moon was also abundant. As such, the speed of collecting the celestial water here was several times faster than in the outside world, and even the quality of the celestial water was much higher.

Tang Hao praised.

After that, Tang Hao walked around the mountain. He was satisfied.

The array was ready, the medicinal field was also ready, everything was ready, the next step was to cultivate properly.

With the celestial water and the celestial Qi He absorbed from underground, it was no longer a problem for him to improve his cultivation level.

“Next, I should consider which pills to refine!”

It was not cost-effective to directly consume these herbs after growing them. They had to be refined into pills so that they could be better absorbed and bring out greater effects.

“I need a type of pill that can increase my cultivation level and a pill that can strengthen my body. My body is quite strong now, but I’m still a little bit away from crossing the Tribulation. If I can strengthen it a little more, it will be easy for me to cross the Tribulation.”

Tang Hao wanted to make two types of pills that could improve his cultivation and physical body at the same time.

He could only attempt the third tribulation when his cultivation had reached the great circle. Only when his physical body was strong enough would he be able to pass the Tribulation easily.

“I’ll just refine a nine Lotus pill and a Heavenly Devil body tempering pill!”

After considering all kinds of Saint grade pills, Tang Hao finally chose these two.

The nine Lotus pill, as its name suggested, was a Saint pill made by combining nine types of lotuses with 100 other spiritual herbs. The pill had very high requirements for materials, and all nine types of lotuses were rare.

However, Tang Hao had them all. He had grown many of them with the divine water.

This pill was used to increase one’s cultivation level, while the heavenly demonic body refining pill was naturally used to strengthen one’s body.

After deciding on the pills, Tang Hao began to plant the herbs. He transplanted all the required materials to the field outside, then nourished them with immortal Qi and watered them with immortal water.

Tang Hao handed all the cleaning tasks to his clone. He sat cross-legged in the thatched cottage and began to meditate and absorb the immortal Qi below.

He also sent out many clones to gather information.

Just like that, he settled down in this mountain, quietly cultivating and developing in a low-profile.

By meditating, his cultivation level had increased by quite a bit. When the first batch of nine Lotus pills was born and he consumed them, his cultivation level had increased by another level.

As the days passed, his cultivation continued to rise.

As his cultivation level increased, his primordial spirit also became stronger and stronger.

Almost every day passed, and his strength improved a little. It had been a long time since Tang Hao had experienced such a delightful feeling.

After reaching the sage realm, it wasn’t easy for him to increase his cultivation. He relied on godly medicine and immortal crystals. Normally, his cultivation would stagnate and not rise like it was now.

In the blink of an eye, two months had passed.

In these two months, Tang Hao's cultivation base had made great progress. He was already more than half of the second tribulation, and it seemed that he was not far from breaking through to the third tribulation.

"It's time to go out for a walk!"

Tang Hao stood up and walked around.

After being stuck here for two months, he was prepared to go out for a walk and then go to the devil Star City for a stroll.

With his clone here, he didn't need to worry about anything.

He left the mountain and headed towards the devil Star City.

The devil Star City was still as lively as ever. Two months had passed, and it seemed that many people had forgotten about him. They didn't even remember him when they saw him. After all, in the eyes of everyone, that fool who was searching for the immortal vein was just a joke. He was just a laughingstock for everyone.

Tang Hao wanted to go to a restaurant to gather some information, but he suddenly remembered that he did not even have a single Yuan. He was completely broke.

Crystals circulated on Pangu continent as well, but they were of extraordinary quality. They were all golden in color, and the energy contained in them was not comparable to those star crystals in the outer space.

The stellar crystals outside could not be used here.

"Money!"

Tang Hao sighed.

No matter where he went, money was an eternal need. Without money, he would not be able to go anywhere.

"Let's go and change!"

Tang Hao took out a few herbs and sold them. He earned quite a lot of money, enough for him to drink.
