

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1739

“This Yao clan...Where did it come from?”

Tang Hao turned around and asked the person beside him.

“The Yao clan is not from our ancient desolate alchemy world, but from the spirit desolate land. You can tell from their name that the Yao clan is especially good at alchemy. They are the strongest alchemy force in the spirit desolate land and are very famous on the entire Pangu continent.”

The man introduced.

There was a hint of hostility in his tone.

The medicine God mountain was the most powerful force in the ancient desolate pill world, while the Yao clan was the most powerful force in the spiritual desolate pill world. The two of them had been competing with each other in secret for many years, and no one was willing to give in to the other.

“Why has the Yao clan come?”

“What are these bastards doing here?”

There was a commotion all around.

Tang Hao’s expression changed. This spirit desolate land was where the Qin clan was located.

A moment later, the giant ship arrived and stopped.

On the bow of the ship, there were many figures. They were all dressed in green and were all shining with celestial light. They were all in the Saint realm.

Upon closer inspection, most of them were old men, and there were a few young people.

There was a mark between the eyebrows of each member of the Yao clan, which looked like a lotus.

“An ancient alien race!”

Tang Hao exclaimed inwardly.

Tang Hao was not unfamiliar with this ancient alien race. The rain clan and the Thunder clan were all alien races from the ancient times. They were born with magical abilities that were stronger than ordinary humans. However, he did not know that the Yao clan was also an ancient alien race.

Back when he was at the heaven-equal Academy in Donglin, he had met a few members of the Yao clan, but none of them had such a mark between their eyebrows.

“Maybe it’s because of the bloodline!”

Tang Hao guessed.

“Old man Yao ting!”

The two alchemy Saints from the medicine God mountain flew out of the giant boat and stood in front. They shouted at the elder leading the group of the medicine clan.

“Hahaha! Long time no see, my fellow Daoists!”

The old man called Yao ting laughed heartily. He also flew out of the large boat and arrived in front of the two old men.

“What are you doing here?”

“The pill God Palace is the medicine God mountain’s territory. I’m afraid this is against the rules!”

The two pill Saints rebuked angrily, their tone unfriendly.

The elixir God Palace had been the exclusive territory of the medicine God mountain for 10000 years. How could he allow others to interfere?

In terms of strength, the medicine God mountain was no match for the Yao clan. After all, the medicine God mountain was only a loose alchemy force, while the Yao clan was a large clan with hundreds of millions of clans and countless experts.

The Yao clan was one of the most powerful clans in the spiritual wilderness. It was one of the top clans on the entire Pangu continent.

However, they would not allow the Yao clan to lay a finger on the pill God Palace.

“Al! My fellow Daoists, please calm down and let me finish. I’ve come to discuss a major matter with you. As long as it’s successful, it’ll be beneficial to both of us.”

Yao ting cupped his hands and laughed.

“Something big? Hmph! Is there anything that we can discuss?”

Yao ting laughed and replied, “of course I do!” Isn’t there something in the pill God Palace that the medicine God mountain has always wanted but couldn’t get?”

The two elders’ expressions changed.

“You want to get your hands on that cauldron?”

They shouted sternly.

The cauldron was the best treasure in the elixir God Palace, but they had never gotten their hands on it after so many years.

Every time the pill God Palace opened, they would try to get the cauldron but they failed every time.

“No, no, no! No matter how powerful that cauldron is, it is merely a nine tribulations cauldron. It’s not like our Yao clan doesn’t have one. Don’t forget that our Yao clan’s ancestor has an alchemy God. ”

Yao ting shook his head and smiled.

“Then what do you want?”

“Naturally, it’s the alchemy God token!” Yao ting said word by word.

“Pill God token?” The two elders ‘expressions changed again.

“What do you want the divine alchemy token for?”

“Woof! Naturally, he had to use it! My clan’s patriarch’s alchemy skills are profound, and he’s only a step away from the alchemy God Realm. He’ll make a breakthrough soon, so he’s in urgent need of an alchemy God token to summon the divine mountain and be conferred the title of God. ”

“Although my Yao clan had an alchemy God in the past, the alchemy God token was lost a long time ago. We don’t know where it was lost to. We have been searching for it bitterly for so many years but we couldn’t find it. We could only have this idea.”

Yao ting said.

The two elders looked at each other, shock in their eyes.

The Yao clan’s old ancestor was about to break through to the alchemy God Realm!

This news was too shocking!

At present, there was not a single alchemy God on Pangu continent. If this man could succeed in breaking through, it would surely shock the entire Pangu continent.

“Fellow Daoists, we only want the divine alchemy badge and not the cauldron. What do you think?” Yao ting said.

“This ...”

The two elders hesitated.

“Don’t worry. If we really get the alchemy God token, we will also compensate you. I guarantee that you will be satisfied!” Yao ting continued to persuade.

The two elders looked at each other again and nodded slightly.

To the medicine God mountain, this wasn’t a loss. They could work together.

“There’s no problem with cooperating, but the divine alchemy badge is with the cauldron. We can’t get it at all.”

An alchemy Saint said hesitantly.

Yao ting laughed and said, “just because the medicine God mountain can’t do it doesn’t mean that the Yao clan can’t. Look, I have brought the most powerful young people of the Yao clan. As long as they are here, the alchemy God’s test is not a problem.”

He turned around and pointed at the young men.

The few young men stepped forward, their heads held high and their chests puffed out, revealing a proud expression.

“How can a mere test do anything to us!”

“It’s been so many years and you still haven’t taken the treasure. What a bunch of trash. Why don’t you let my Yao clan take it? I’m sure we can take it immediately!”

These few people looked around and spoke arrogantly.

The medicine God mountain was in an uproar.

“Bastards, what are you talking about?”

“These little kids are too arrogant!”

The alchemists of the medicine God mountain cursed.

However, there were also some people who had grave expressions as they stared at these people.

“These few are not ordinary! Look, the young man leading the group is probably the Holy Son of the Yao clan! I heard that this fellow is extremely monstrous. Not only is his cultivation talent outstanding, he also possesses a peerless Dao body. His bloodline is also very strong, possessing the bloodline of the most ancient Yao clan.”

“Moreover, his alchemy talent is even more amazing. He was already a half-step alchemy Saint a long time ago. I’m afraid he has already become a saint now!”

“What? He is the Yao clan’s Saint child?”

When everyone heard this, they were all shocked.

The Holy Son was the most outstanding genius in a clan. Anyone who could become a Holy Son was a monster!

“That’s right! This is the Saint child of my clan, Yao Kong Xuan!”

“Kong Xuan is only fifty years old this year, but his cultivation base has long become a saint, and his alchemy has also broken through to the Saint realm. I’m not trying to brag, but no one on Pangu continent can be more powerful than him in the field of alchemy!”

When he heard the commotion, Yao ting revealed a smug expression. He turned around and pointed at the Holy Son of the Yao clan as he introduced him.
