

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1741

As soon as he entered the vortex, Tang Hao was pulled in by a strong suction force.

Tang Hao did not resist. He allowed the suction force to pull him in.

Plop!

A moment later, he fell heavily and landed on the solid ground.

He got up and looked around. He was surrounded by a dense ancient forest. In the air, people fell from time to time and fell into various parts of the forest.

“It’s a small world. It seems the pill God Palace is somewhere in this world!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

“Such dense spiritual energy!”

Then, he checked the spiritual Qi in this place, which was several times denser than outside.

“That’s normal. After all, it’s the ancient alchemy God’s territory. Back then, that alchemy God must have planted spirit medicines here!”

Tang Hao looked around and was about to find the elixir God Palace. There was not only the elixir God cauldron but also the elixir God token.

He’d asked around just now and knew what this divine alchemy badge was.

On Pangu continent, if one wanted to become an alchemy God, they could not just break through their own level, as that would not be recognized by the realm of alchemy.

There had always been a tradition in the world of alchemy on Pangu continent. If one wanted to become an alchemy God and be recognized by the world, he must use the alchemy God token to summon the legendary divine mountain and pass the test on it.

This had been the case since ancient times.

However, the alchemy world was in decline now. It had been a long time since an alchemy God had appeared, and no one had ever summoned that divine mountain.

“I must get this alchemy God token!”

There were very few divine alchemy tokens, and since he had encountered one, he had to get it. This way, if he wanted to become an alchemy God in the future, he could easily summon the divine mountain.

The sacred mountain was extremely ancient. It was said that there were many good things there. Tang Hao did not want to miss it.

He had only taken a few steps when he suddenly saw something flash not far away from the corner of his eye.

In an instant, his eyes widened as he looked over.

The next moment, his eyes lit up.

That was clearly the light of a treasure!

“Could it be a treasure?”

Tang Hao rubbed his hands together. He was excited.

He quickly walked over and saw that it was a cave. The treasure light was coming from the cave. As soon as he reached the entrance, he heard a loud roar. A Lion emerged from the cave and howled at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao stood there and looked at the lion.

The lion looked back at Tang Hao.

The man and the Beast stared at each other for a long time.

Tang Hao was a little surprised. Was the lion cub trying to eat him?

The lion was a little angry. Why didn't the two-legged insect look afraid at all? it was provoking it.

He opened his bloody mouth and roared.

“Little lion, be good!”

Tang Hao waved at the lion with a smile. In his eyes, it was a little lion.

The lion was instantly enraged. Little lion? This two-legged insect was too despicable, it actually dared to look down on him!

He howled and was about to pounce forward to bite the two-legged insect to death.

But at that moment, Tang Hao lightly stomped his foot, and a burst of energy burst out from his body.

Sensing this aura, the lion's body trembled and it almost jumped up. Its face was distorted with extreme fear.

F * ck!

He had hit an iron plate! This was a Saint realm monster!

He wailed, turned around, and fled. Because he was in such a hurry, he didn't see the road clearly and hit the wall. He was in a mess and saw stars.

"That's the way!"

Tang Hao retracted his aura and mumbled to himself. He then walked into the cave.

The cave was huge, and the treasure light came from the deepest part of it. Tang Hao was stunned when he found the source of the light.

"This ... This is ..."

His eyes were wide open and he was completely dumbfounded.

What appeared in front of him was actually a large box. It was covered in a green light and had a somewhat gorgeous shape.

"B-treasure chest?"

Tang Hao blurted out. He was dumbfounded.

After a while, he came back to his senses. He couldn't be blamed for this. The shape of the box was too unique, and the brilliant treasure light made him a little dazed.

"There must be a treasure!"

Tang Hao rubbed his hands together and took a step forward to open the treasure chest. However, the moment his hand touched the chest, it trembled, and a wisp of smoke rose from it.

"Young man, do you want to get the treasure inside?"

The smoke gathered and dispersed, forming the appearance of an old man.

The old man smiled at Tang Hao affably.

Tang Hao was surprised again. "Who ... Who are you?"

"Who I am ... It doesn't matter at all. I'm just a remnant soul. What's important is whether you want the treasure inside or not." The old man was still smiling.

"I want to!"

Tang Hao said.

Since there were treasures inside, he would definitely take them.

“Good! Since you want it, you have to pass my test first. Here, these are the questions I prepared for you. There are a total of 1000 questions. If you can answer half of them, I will open the treasure chest and give you the item inside.”

The old man said kindly.

As he spoke, his hand shook and a scroll fell from his palm and unfurled.

It was densely packed with words that dazzled one’s eyes.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. He had thought that the lion was guarding the treasure chest, and that he would be able to obtain the treasure easily if he could get rid of the lion. He did not expect there to be such a test.

However, thinking about it, this was the territory of the alchemy God. The test he set must be related to alchemy.

He looked at the scroll and his brows furrowed even more.

There were too many!

1,000 questions, how long would he have to answer? no matter how fast he was, he would still need some time.

“Why don’t we ... Just open this box?”

Tang Hao peeked at the box and had an evil thought.

The treasure was definitely inside, so why did he have to go through so much trouble to answer the questions? he could just smash it open directly, simple and violent!

The more Tang Hao thought about it, the more feasible it seemed.

“Let’s do this!”

Tang Hao rubbed his hands together excitedly.

“You ... What do you want to do?”

The old man seemed to have noticed something.

“Oh! It’s nothing!” Tang Hao smiled shyly. Then, he threw a punch at the box.

He was overjoyed, thinking that he could smash the box with one punch and take out the treasure inside, but what waited for him was a thud, and then he cried out in pain.

“F * ck! How can it be so hard?”

Tang Hao retracted his hand and kept rubbing it.

He cursed and looked at the box in front of him in disbelief.

He was a second-tribulation Saint, and his body was extremely strong. He could even pass the third tribulation, but he couldn't break the box with one punch?

"Hahaha!"

The old man held his stomach and laughed, "kid, you want to break this box with your level? I'm telling you, even a fourth or fifth tribulation Saint might not be able to break this box. "

"Just you? save it! Do you think that Lord alchemy God didn't consider this point and let a person like you casually smash open the boxes and take away the treasures!"

"You'd better stop dreaming and answer the questions properly. As long as you pass the test, I'll naturally give you a treasure. "

The old man said with a gloating expression.
