

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1752

“You’re not bad either!”

The incarnation looked up and sighed in admiration.

The Dragon Tiger pill refining technique was a rather common technique, but it had been executed to its most perfect level in this young man’s hands.

“You’re too kind!”

Tang Hao smiled humbly.

The two of them sat opposite each other, refining the pills in their hands. From time to time, they would change their techniques, and various pill refining techniques would take turns. The flames of the two of them would turn into the shape of a Dragon, and then into the shape of a Phoenix ...

There were also Vermilion birds, black tortoises, Qilin, and other auspicious beasts.

For a moment, the roars of various beasts filled the space.

The gorgeous flames dazzled the eyes.

“Amazing! Amazing!”

“You’re not bad either!”

The two of them praised each other and secretly exchanged blows.

If someone else was here and saw this scene, they would probably be speechless.

In the process of pill concoction, it was a taboo to be distracted. The two of them were observing each other while concocting pills, and praising each other was something unimaginable in the eyes of ordinary pill refiners.

After burning for more than six hours, the two of them had already used all the techniques they could change.

“It’s done!”

“Heavenly King pill!” Tang Hao shouted. The flame in his palm was extinguished, and a Heavenly King pill was formed.

He didn’t use any heavenly lightning to temper his pill, or any other techniques to refine spirit pills, and he just completed it so simply.

The pill in his palm was a little dull in color. It looked ordinary and unremarkable, but in fact, it contained amazing medicinal power.

Most alchemists were not skilled enough, so they needed to refine pills and refine spiritual pills to improve the medicinal effects of the pills. At Tang Hao's level, there was no need for that. The pill had been refined to the extreme during the process of refining pills, and the medicinal effects had also been unearthed to the extreme.

It was as simple as that, but it was also the most profound realm.

The incarnation was the same. At the end of the refinement, the flame was restrained, and a pill was formed. It was also ordinary-looking.

The two of them looked at each other and sized up each other's pills.

Suddenly, the incarnation laughed and stood up, sighing, "Great! This was great! It's been a long time since I've met an opponent like you!"

Tang Hao also stood up and cupped his hands.

In this competition, the two of them could be said to be evenly matched, with no clear winner.

"I'm very pleased that the future pill world can still produce a talent like you! I left some things at the top of the tower. My cauldron and a pill God token are inside."

"That cauldron is not bad. You can take it and use it. As for the divine alchemy token, I think it won't be long before you will need it!"

The incarnation pointed upwards and said.

Then, with a wave of his sleeve, he tore open the void, revealing a passage leading to the top of the tower.

On the outside, the Jade on the seventh floor had been destroyed.

In an instant, the square was in an uproar.

"Destroyed! Annihilate it!"

They held their breaths, so nervous that their hearts were in their throats.

Did he fail or did he succeed?

Many people looked at the gate of the tower, and many others looked at the top of the tower.

If he passed the test, the precious Jade at the top of the tower would light up!

Plop! Plop!

It was so quiet that they could hear each other's heartbeats.

It was only a few seconds, but to everyone, it felt like centuries.

Finally, at the top of the tower, the precious Jade suddenly lit up, emitting a brilliant light.

Witnessing this scene, everyone's entire body trembled, revealing dumbstruck expressions.

It lit up!

For tens of thousands of years, this piece of precious Jade that had never lit up before finally lit up today!

This also meant that the pill God tower had been broken!

Many of them still couldn't believe it. They rubbed their eyes hard, and after they confirmed it again and again, they couldn't help but exclaim.

"It's broken! It's broken!"

The square was in an uproar, and a deafening clamor erupted.

Everyone from the medicine God mountain was ecstatic.

No matter where Grandmaster Hao came from, he was now a member of the medicine God mountain. He had destroyed the pill God tower, so this was the glory of the medicine God mountain!

"Finally ... It's broken!"

The two old men couldn't help but feel excited, and tears flowed down their faces.

The pill God tower had been around for countless years. Generations of alchemists from the medicine God mountain had wanted to break it but they had never succeeded. Today, they had finally broken it.

"Why would I?"

The members of the Yao clan were all dumbfounded and in disbelief.

The pill God tower had actually been broken!

Then, their expressions became even more embarrassed.

They'd previously said that no one in this world could break the divine pill tower, but they didn't expect it to be broken in the blink of an eye. And it was Grandmaster pill demon, whom they'd previously ridiculed.

Yao Kong Xuan stared blankly at the top of the tower, at the precious Jade that was blooming with bright light. His face was extremely pale, and his body was trembling slightly.

He had always thought that his talent was unparalleled, and that he was the number one alchemy genius on Pangu continent. But today, he, the number one genius, had been defeated.

“Pill demon? Hao? Who are they?”

He gritted his teeth, his face full of unwillingness.

“As expected of master Hao!”

“Master Hao is mighty!”

Everyone from the medicine God mountain shouted in excitement.

“Hurry up! Go and welcome master Hao!”

“Master Hao is about to come out. We must stop him this time and not let him escape!”

Then, they swarmed out of the tower and rushed toward the gate.

They’d admired Grandmaster Hao for a long time and had long wanted to admire his glory, but their wish had never been fulfilled. Today, Grandmaster Hao had appeared once again and shocked the world with a single brilliant feat. He had destroyed the pill God tower and also done something that would shake the entire pill world. They had to stop him and admire his glory.

“All of you, move aside! I want to be apprenticed to a master!”

“Tsk! You’re like a pig head, do you think master Hao will take a fancy to you? You’re dreaming! Just let me do it!”

They pushed and shoved each other, trying to be the first.

“You bunch of good-for-nothing guys, how can you do this? get out of my way!”

Grandmaster pill fanatic couldn’t help but loudly rebuke.

Hearing the master speak, everyone was startled and stopped.

“Get lost, let me welcome master Hao!” Grandmaster alchemy fanatic scuttled forward and squeezed to the front with a fanatical expression. He had long admired this Grandmaster Hao and had always wanted to meet him. Now that he had gotten the opportunity, he naturally wouldn’t let it go.

“F * ck!”

Everyone was cursing.

At this moment, they didn’t care if they were Masters or not. They all squeezed forward, wanting to stand at the front and leave the deepest impression on master Hao.

“What a disgrace!”

Seeing this, the two elders’ faces darkened!

They chided him a few times and squeezed their way to the front. They squeezed out the most enthusiastic smiles on their faces as they waited for master Hao to come out.

To be able to destroy the pill Divine Tower, one must be a world-shaking genius. The Yao clan’s Saint child was far inferior to this Grandmaster Hao!

They had to treat such a talent well and try their best to keep him on the medicine God mountain.
