

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1754

“Master Hao, where are you from?”

“Grandmaster Hao, how long are you going to stay at my medicine God mountain?”

The two elders surrounded Tang Hao and asked around.

Tang Hao laughed and did not answer directly.

Seeing that they didn't get anything out of him, the two elders gave up.

“He must be the successor of some hidden alchemy Dao. Otherwise, how could he have such amazing alchemy skills?”

They were getting more and more certain.

Pangu continent was a vast place with countless alchemy powers. It was not surprising that there might be some alchemy inheritances that even they did not know about.

As for the lower realm, they did not even consider it.

“Master Hao, let's go back to the mountains and celebrate! AI! You've just broken through the pill God tower and obtained the inheritance of the pill God. This is something worth celebrating. We must celebrate.”

The two old men pulled Tang Hao toward the exit.

The people of the medicine God mountain crowded around him in a Grand formation.

Their faces were red with excitement.

Today, Grandmaster Hao had destroyed the pill God tower. This was a major event that could shake the entire Pangu pill world. It was also a slap to the medicine clan's face and a great honor for the medicine God mountain.

When they passed by the members of the Yao clan, they all held their heads high and puffed out their chests, revealing a proud expression, causing the expressions of the Yao clan members to become increasingly ugly.

“Old man Yao ting, how is it? Do you accept it?”

“Master Hao, you have to hide that divine alchemy badge well. It's a treasure!”

One of the two elders shouted at the Yao family, while the other deliberately raised his voice at Tang Hao. Yao ting's face was red with anger.

“Hahaha! Let's go!”

The two elders opened up a path for everyone to enter. They boarded the ship and returned to the medicine God mountain.

“Investigate! Find out who this Hao fellow is. ”

Yao ting roared as he watched them leave. His old face was twisted.

“Yes! Elder!”

Someone immediately responded.

“Also, go to the medicine God mountain and keep a close eye on that kid. If he comes out of the mountain, report to me immediately!”

Yao ting’s face twitched as he spoke, revealing a dark expression.

The Yao clan would definitely not give up on this alchemy God token.

No matter what, he had to get this alchemy God token back.

When they returned to the medicine God mountain, the mountain was in an uproar. The news had reached the mountain first and caused a sensation. Everyone knew that Grandmaster Hao had appeared in the alchemy world and destroyed the alchemy God tower.

“As expected of master Hao!”

“Master Hao is truly our idol!”

They shouted excitedly and rushed to the entrance to welcome master Hao.

“What? The pill God tower has been broken?”

The remaining three alchemy Saints on the mountain were also alarmed, and they were so excited that they jumped up from the ground.

“Who is this genius called Hao?”

“That’s great! Our ancestor’s wish has finally been fulfilled!”

They were even more excited than the alchemists below.

When Tang Hao and the others returned to the mountain, the atmosphere was at its peak. It was extremely lively.

Everyone in the mountain rushed out, and there were cheers of joy everywhere.

“F * ck! He’s master Hao!”

When Deacon Li and those who had seen Tang Hao before saw master Hao's appearance from afar, they were dumbfounded.

"Aiya!"

Deacon Li slapped his thigh and felt so regretful that his intestines turned green.

He remembered this guy. His name was Tang Dali. He didn't have a pill card, so he had a deep impression of him. However, when he entered the mountain to take the test, his results were very bad. He was only a rank-10, so he didn't care much.

However, he had never expected that this unremarkable tenth realm Alchemist would actually be the once famous Grandmaster Hao!

For the next few days, the mountain was filled with a jubilant atmosphere.

Tang Hao's cave abode had also been moved to the top of the first peak. He received the best treatment.

The news spread quickly.

He had crushed the Yao clan's Holy Son and destroyed the pill Divine Tower. This magnificent feat had shaken the entire ancient desolate pill world.

The name of Grandmaster Hao was once again brought up by the crowd, and his Prestige Rose to another level. In the past, he was only a Grandmaster. No matter how powerful he was, his status in the alchemy world was still below those few alchemy Saints. However, things were different now. Grandmaster Hao was able to suppress the Holy Son of the Yao clan and break through the pill God tower in one fell swoop. His standard must have reached the Saint level.

More importantly, unlike what people had guessed, master Hao wasn't an old monster, but a young pill Dao genius!

Before this, the Holy Son of the Yao clan had always been known as the number one genius of alchemy in the eight desolates. However, master Hao had already surpassed him.

"For Grandmaster Hao to be able to break through the alchemy God tower, it's enough to prove that his talent far surpasses that Yao kongxuan. He can even match that alchemy God Bai Feng!"

"Grandmaster Hao has the potential to become an alchemy God! I'm afraid that it won't be long before a New Alchemy God is born in our land!"

The ancient desolate alchemy world was in an uproar.

Then, the news spread to the alchemy world of all directions, causing a sensation.

Tang Hao finally found some peace and quiet after half a month on the medicine God mountain. He had talked to the alchemy Saints and decided to leave in a few days.

Even though it was a pity, the elders of the medicine God mountain agreed.

The medicine God mountain couldn't keep a monster like him. He had to leave.

"You have to be careful. The Yao clan members will definitely not be willing to let you take the divine alchemy token!" They also warned.

"Don't worry!"

Tang Hao had thought of that.

The Yao clan was determined to get the divine alchemy token, but it was taken away by him in the end. They would definitely be unwilling.

Recently, he had also released a few clones to investigate the medicine God mountain and found traces of the Yao clan. They were spying nearby and waiting for him to go out so that they could get the alchemy God token.

Seven days later, Tang Hao released a few more clones and sent them out in all directions. Then, they changed their appearances and mixed in with the purchasing team. They swaggered out of the medicine God mountain.

After leaving the medicine God mountain and making sure that no one was following him, Tang Hao found a barren mountain and set up a cave abode.

He was going to attempt the third tribulation here!

Once he overcame this tribulation, his physical body would be strengthened several times over, and his strength would rise to another level. At that time, he would be considered a minor expert, and he would no longer have to fear venerable of myriad spirits, old man Gu tuo, and the others.

When everything was ready, Tang Hao released his aura and began to trigger the lightning tribulation.

About an hour later, the sky above the mountain range darkened. Dark clouds gathered and surged. Soon, the sky turned from day to night.

In the pitch-black night sky, there was thunder and lightning. A vast heavenly might spread out and filled the surroundings.

Within a radius of ten thousand miles, everything was affected by this heaven's might.

The cultivators in all directions raised their heads and looked at the sky, revealing shocked expressions.

"Guys, look! It's the heavenly transformation! Someone's going to undergo the heavenly Tribulation again!"

“This is the immortal tribulation! Which Saint is undergoing tribulation here?”

For a time, exclamations of shock rose and fell.
