

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1761

Tang Hao headed north.

The spirit wilderness was located to the North of the ancient wilderness.

He had set out from the South and crossed the entire ancient wilderness.

The land was boundless. It would take a primordial spirit several days to fly through it. Tang Hao stopped and walked for more than ten days before he left the ancient wilderness and entered the spirit wilderness.

Just like the ancient wilderness, the spiritual wilderness was vast and had countless ancient countries and clans.

The Qin clan was located in the spiritual wilderness.

After entering the spiritual wilderness, Tang Hao slowed down and scouted around. He understood the situation in the spiritual wilderness and also found out the Qin clan's exact location.

Tang Hao passed by many ancient countries and cities along the way and heard a lot of news.

It had been almost a year since the ceremony of blood source. Many of the geniuses from the lower realm had already shown their brilliance and were well known by the world.

There were many names that Tang Hao had never heard of. After all, the ceremony of blood source covered the entire starry sky, especially the five sacred planets of the North, South, East, West, and central. Many people had been transported over.

Among them, the most famous and paid the most attention to were the geniuses of the Liu Clan. They were the biggest winners in the ceremony of blood source, as they had brought two peerless geniuses to Pangu continent, one of whom was the son of blood source, and the other had a peerless divine body.

Therefore, the Liu Clan had always been the center of attention.

Among the two geniuses of the Liu Clan, the son of blood source was the most famous. It was said that the Liu Clan had carefully examined him and found that his bloodline was the oldest and purest of the Liu Clan's bloodline. He had successfully awakened the ancestral blood.

Under the Liu Clan's vigorous cultivation, the young man's cultivation base had improved by leaps and bounds, and he had passed several tribulations in a row, catching up with the original geniuses on Pangu continent.

"It can't really be that Liu heihu, can it?"

The premonition in Tang Hao's heart grew stronger and stronger.

He had also heard that in the distant mu clan, a new Star was rising, and his name was spreading everywhere.

There was also the Thunder clan. It was said that they had also produced a new Star. He was born with the potential to become a saint and was heavily nurtured by the Thunder clan.

There was a lot of such news, and a large number of new stars had emerged on Pangu continent.

These geniuses who were brought to Pangu continent were often compared with the geniuses who were born and raised on Pangu continent. People were discussing how many of them would eventually grow up and step into the ranks of the young supreme beings.

Supreme-being. It was a title commonly given to nine tribulations experts. They were the Supreme experts of the world and Supreme existences.

In the younger generation, there were also young Supreme Masters. Each of them was an unparalleled genius, a future venerable sovereign, and even a nine tribulation Supreme.

The four Seas and eight desolates were so vast that there were countless geniuses and numerous Saints. However, there were only a few people who could be called young Supremes, and every one of them had unparalleled talent.

“A young Supreme Being? I think it’ll be difficult! So, how many are there on Pangu continent? It’s too difficult to have another one!”

“Our Pangu continent is full of outstanding people and abundant immortal energy, but there are only a few of them. How can such a figure come from a mere lower realm? If you want to become a young Supreme Being, just having a bloodline and a divine body is far from enough!”

Most people shook their heads. It wasn’t that they looked down on the people of the lower realm, but the gap between the two realms was too huge.

Through the ceremony of blood source, they had searched the entire starry sky, and only then had they found such geniuses. And on Pangu continent, there were countless geniuses like him.

The greater the number of geniuses, the higher the probability of giving birth to a top-notch genius. Based on the number of geniuses in the lower realm, it was definitely impossible to produce a figure at the level of a Supreme youth.

However, the quality of this batch of lower realm geniuses was not bad. There were many eye-catching figures. They were born with the potential to be Saints, had peerless divine bodies, and many were Children of Blood. It was not difficult to become a top genius.

Tang Hao had also heard more legends about the four corners of Pangu continent.

“It is said that there is a river on Pangu continent called the ancient river of time. It is very magical. Once people step into it, some will regain their youth and be reborn, while others will age. Many people who are at the end of their lifespans will search for the ancient river and take a gamble.”

“At the end of the eight desolations, there is a mountain called the immortal mountain. The secret of immortality is hidden inside!”

“And the reincarnation spring ...”

All kinds of dangerous places and Forbidden Lands were everywhere in the eight desolate lands.

Tang Hao was surprised when he heard about the undying mountain. He was familiar with the name. There was one on the Qi Yuan planet. He had entered the mountain to deal with Ji Wu.

It was also there that he had obtained the clone of the origin core realm and the undying flame.

“Could it be that this undying mountain is related to that mountain?”

Tang Hao guessed.

He knew that this was very possible, because everything here originated from Qi Yuan.

Just like that, he continued forward and finally arrived at the middle of the spiritual wilderness.

“Qin country!”

What appeared before him was a vast land. Countless majestic cities could be seen all over this land. There were billions of Qin clan’s citizens living on these cities.

In the spiritual wilderness, the Qin clan was also a well-known clan. Among the thousands of clans, they could be ranked in the top hundred.

After entering the state of Qin, Tang Hao did some more research. There was not much news about sis Xiangyi. She had caused quite a stir during the ceremony of the blood source. The entire state of Qin was shaken.

After that, there was very little news.

“I wonder how sis Xiangyi is doing?”

The closer he got, the more eager Tang Hao became.

“How do I find her?”

The Qin clan was a huge existence with many 4th tribulation and 5th tribulation experts. There were even 6th tribulation experts. He, a mere 3rd tribulation expert, couldn’t just barge in and take them away!

“Let’s go to the Qin clan first and see if we can see her!”

After some thought, Tang Hao decided to go with the normal plan and meet sis Xiangyi first.

He then headed towards the capital of the state of Qin.

The Qin clan's main camp was naturally not here. This ancient country was different from the divine dynasties and imperial dynasties in the lower realm. They were all one entity. For example, in the great Qin divine dynasty, the Qin Emperor was the one and only leader.

The Qin clan there was also the royal family of the great Qin divine dynasty.

In this place, the main clan and the ancient country were separate. The king of the ancient country was merely chosen by the main clan and assigned to the ancient country.

The Qin clan's main clan was located in an ancient majestic city named Qin city. It was not in the same place as the capital of the Qin country. However, only by going to the capital of the Qin country would he be able to find out the location of Qin city.

He came to the capital of the state of Qin and asked around for a long time, but he did not get anything, which made him quite puzzled.

“Hey! If you want to go there, you have to find someone to bring you there. Don't you know that there's an office in the Royal Palace that is specially used to receive people like you? if you have any matters, you can go there and tell them to bring you to the ancient city.”

After inquiring for a while more, he finally had some clues.

Tang Hao immediately went to the palace and found this place.

“F * ck! So many people!”

In front of this so-called office, a long line was formed. It was a majestic sight.
