

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1791

“The old monster of the Shen family has spoken. He’s calling for that brat surnamed Tang to come and fight!”

“The Xu clan has sent many more people to look for that kid!”

For the past few days, the spiritual wilderness was in a state of chaos.

And all of this was because of that lower realm kid surnamed Tang. He had single-handedly stirred up the entire spiritual wilderness.

Everyone in the spiritual wilderness knew of Tang Hao’s name.

Speaking of this person, everyone’s expressions were different. Some admired him, some hated him. Those who admired him were mostly disciples of the sect, and those who hated him were mostly clan disciples.

To the clan, that brat had defeated a hundred of their Holy Sons at the divine mountain Dao discussion, bringing shame to all the races in the spiritual wilderness. If they did not take revenge for this, they would not be able to wash away the shame.

Over the past few days, the various races had sent countless people and used various means to find the brat surnamed Tang. They wanted their Holy Son to defeat him and regain their face.

However, they didn’t have any gains, which made the various races a little anxious.

If this dragged on, the news would spread to the Tang Clan in the East wilderness. It would be difficult to deal with the situation if the Tang Clan interfered.

“Since we can’t find him, then we’ll provoke him!”

Very quickly, they changed their method. Groups of people brought along magical artifacts that could amplify sound and flew back and forth in the spiritual wilderness every day, shouting in all directions.

“Little Tang, you coward ... Get out here if you have the guts!”

“You, Tang kid, you ...”

They cursed him in all sorts of ways, but the kid still didn’t appear.

“That brat couldn’t have brought the Holy maiden out of the spiritual wilderness, right? How are we supposed to find him? Pangu continent is so vast, with the four Seas and eight wastelands, and an endless territory. It’s too difficult to find a person. ”

“Could it be that even the Qin clan can’t do anything? That Holy maiden Qin should have left a wisp of her soul in the Qin clan’s ancestral temple. By relying on the connection between the souls, wouldn’t we be able to find it easily?”

Everyone was extremely puzzled.

“Hmph! Even if that bastard runs to the ends of the earth, I’ll find him and save Holy maiden Qin!”

“This perverted Tang, I swear I will never forgive him!”

Among the pursuers, the Saint children were the most indignant. Not only did that fellow surnamed Tang defeat them and humiliate them, but he was also a perverted Bandit and an unpardonable demon in their eyes.

What about being taken away voluntarily? it was all fake. They didn’t believe that a figure like Holy Virgin Qin would take a fancy to a wild kid from the lower realm.

Holy Virgin Qin must have been frightened and panicked, which gave that bastard an opportunity.

When they thought about how Holy Virgin Qin was in the hands of that bastard, and that she might have been molested or tortured, they were all furious and even a little jealous.

“Defeat the demon Tang and save the saintess!”

The anger in their hearts was burning, and each one of them seemed to be injected with chicken blood as they frantically searched around.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the spiritual wilderness, Tang Hao was sitting cross-legged in a cave.

In front of him, the nine tribulations Shennong cauldron was standing. There were blood-red flames rolling in the cauldron, turning into the shape of a Dragon and then into the shape of a Phoenix. All kinds of forms kept changing.

He closed his eyes and moved his hands to control the flame in the cauldron to burn the elixir.

This pill was extremely large. Ordinary pills were the size of a pellet, and the bigger ones were the size of an egg. However, this one was the size of a fist, and it was the result of calcinating it for a day.

“This pill ... Is almost done!”

After a while, Tang Hao opened his eyes and examined the condition of the cauldron. He nodded slightly with a satisfied expression.

This Super Tonic pill was made by combining the flesh and blood of the few immortal fish, the seven divine herbs, and many other rare spiritual herbs.

The one he had refined with the Golden centipede’s flesh and blood was far inferior to the one in front of him.

After a while, Tang Hao changed his hand gesture, and the Shennong cauldron shook. The lid opened, and dazzling divine light burst out.

Then, two golden lights jumped out.

They were two golden divine pills!

Earlier, Tang Hao had used the pill division technique to split the pill embryo into two and obtained two divine pills.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao reached out and caught the two pills. He sensed the surging medicinal power inside and grinned.

He estimated that with the medicinal power of this pill, just one would be enough for him to reach the peak of the 3rd tribulation stage.

“I’ve gained a lot from this trip to the divine mountain!”

Tang Hao sighed.

This time, the opening of the tianlao sacred mountain had given him the most. Nine immortal fish, seven divine herbs, and the Enlightenment platform were all rare treasures.

After keeping the elixir, he closed his eyes and contacted his avatars and his soul that were wandering around the spiritual wilderness.

In a short while, he understood the situation of the spiritual wilderness.

“You want to provoke me? Buzzzzzz! It won’t be that easy!”

Tang Hao chuckled.

He wasn’t someone who was easily angered. With the current situation, if he took the initiative to jump out, he would definitely not have a good ending. After all, there were too many enemies, five to six thousand clans, all of them had their eyes on him.

It was better to keep a low profile for now. It would not be too late to go out after he had taken the elixir and successfully broken through to the fourth tribulation realm.

Tang Hao stood up after instructing his clones to keep an eye on the situation.

With a wave of his hand, he opened the door of his mobile abode and walked in.

“Lil Tang, you’re here!”

As soon as he stepped into the cave, a beautiful figure flashed out.

“Here! These are the pills I just refined!”

Tang Hao took out a nourishing pill and handed it to her.

“How about you?”

Qin Xiangyi was stunned.

“I refined two! Just one pill was enough to reach perfection! I’ll give the remaining one to you. The sooner you reach the 4th tribulation, the sooner I’ll be at ease.” Tang Hao took her hand and gave her a tonic pill.

Sis Xiangyi’s cultivation had just reached the 3rd tribulation not too long ago. Although she would not be able to reach the peak of the 3rd tribulation with this pill, it would at least increase her cultivation by more than half. It would be even easier for her to reach the peak of the 3rd tribulation.

As long as he refined a few more pills, he would be able to smoothly raise her cultivation to the fourth tribulation.

Qin Xiangyi hesitated for a moment, but she still accepted the call.

“You’re the best, Lil Tang!”

She clenched the pill in her hand, raised her pretty face, and smiled.

Then, she tiptoed and kissed Tang Hao on the cheek.

Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat.

The two of them had been on the run ever since they met. After settling down, Tang Hao began to refine pills. He did not waste a single moment.

“You, we’re already an old couple, why are you still so reserved!”

She pursed her lips and chuckled. As she spoke, she gave him a sidelong glance with a charming look.

Tang Hao’s heart warmed. He hugged her and the two of them rolled on the floor.

Very quickly, a low and melodious voice spread throughout the cave.
