

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1794

“What kind of treasure is that?”

“What a terrifying aura!”

In the distance, the cultivators who were watching all cried out in shock, their faces filled with shock.

They could vaguely see that the senior had taken out a mirror-shaped magic treasure to block the Tribulation lightning.

This was the last second lightning bolt, and its power was terrifying. Ordinary cultivators would have to use many methods and treasures to block it, but this senior had blocked it with a single treasure.

“Even an Emperor artifact doesn’t have such power, right?”

They were all a little bewildered.

The mirror’s power had completely exceeded their imagination.

After the lightning tribulation dissipated, the sea of lightning started to surge violently again, as if it was nurturing the last lightning.

Tang Hao waved his hand and put away the mirror. He was panting heavily, and his face was pale.

Although he had successfully blocked the lightning, he had also suffered great losses. His immortal essence had almost been drained by the Emperor Yan mirror.

He quickly took out a few pills and swallowed them, quickly recovering his immortal essence.

“This is the last one!”

Tang Hao raised his head to look, and his expression turned grim.

He had almost exhausted all his strength to block the previous one, and this one was undoubtedly several times stronger.

BOOM! BOOM!

In the sky, lightning rolled and surged, and the vast heavenly might enveloped the entire world, causing the atmosphere to be somber.

After an hour, the last tribulation lightning was born. When it struck down, the entire sea of lightning was sucked dry, turning into a huge beam of lightning. It fell from the sky, covering the entire mountain range.

Tang Hao’s expression changed slightly. This bolt of lightning was even stronger than he had expected.

In the next moment, he waved his sleeve, and countless rays of light flew out. The remaining treasures on him flew out to meet the Tribulation lightning.

Then, he activated the Emperor Yan mirror with all his might and shot out a beam of divine light.

Peng Peng Peng!

With countless loud bangs, rays of light exploded in the air. The power of the lightning of tribulation had been weakened a bit, but it was still fierce, striking down with the might of the heavens.

Tang Hao raised his hand, and a bow and arrow appeared in his palm.

He stood in the air and drew his bow. In an instant, the wind and clouds around him rolled and endless light gathered at the tip of the arrow, forming a blazing sun.

In an instant, the entire world was split into two. Below was the endless golden light, and above was the surging purple lightning.

“Go!”

When the Arrow’s energy accumulated to its peak, Tang Hao roared and released his grip.

In an instant, the blazing sun rose into the sky and welcomed the lightning tribulation.

Endless golden light and purple light instantly collided together, erupting into a shocking brilliance. With the point of collision as the center, a circle of terrifying ripples spread out, turning into a Gale that swept in all directions.

Even if they were only affected by the aftershock, the mountain range below was completely destroyed and turned into dust.

Tang Hao had used the full power of his supreme weapon, but it could not block the lightning bolt. Its power was reduced by more than half, and its size was reduced, but it still continued to come down.

Tang Hao quickly swallowed a pill, grabbed the divine spear of heaven reverse, and shot into the sky.

“Break!”

He roared and frantically activated the celestial core power in his body. Then, he released his true fire and attacked with his spear.

Bang!

Another earth-shaking explosion.

Tang Hao grunted. His body shook, and his face turned pale. He felt something sweet in his throat, and he almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

“Motherf * cker!”

“Damn it!” Tang Hao gritted his teeth and cursed under his breath. He roared madly and activated his immortal essence again.

Peng Peng Peng!

One spear after another, he attacked crazily, causing the Tribulation lightning to dissipate.

His skin and flesh were split open, and blood was spurting out.

In a short period of time, he didn't know how many shots he had fired. Finally, he fired another shot and completely blew up the lightning tribulation. His whole body trembled and he fell to the ground heavily.

Cough cough!

He coughed heavily a few times and saw the lightning in the sky gradually fading away. He immediately heaved a sigh of relief, feeling as if he had just survived a disaster.

The lightning of the fourth tribulation was much stronger than he had expected. No wonder so many saints were stuck here and couldn't pass it for the rest of their lives. If they didn't have some powerful means, they really couldn't pass this tribulation.

When his injuries were healed, he leaped up and rushed into the sky.

At this moment, the sky cracked open, and a huge beam of light shone down on him. This was the purest celestial core power in the world, which was constantly flowing in and being absorbed by his body and primordial spirit.

At the same time, a portion of it flowed into his dantian's sea of Dao, continuing to open up his sea of Dao.

The sea of the path rolled and continued to expand in all directions. When the sea of the path was first formed, it was just a small pool. Now, it was a vast ocean. As the celestial core power inside rolled, it became purer and purer, showing a bright golden color.

Above the sea of the path, the immortal abode also continued to absorb immortal Qi and became more solid.

At the same time, Tang Hao could feel a strange power in the light. It went into his body and changed his fate wheel.

Every cultivator, mortal, and even all living beings in the world had their own fate wheel, which represented their longevity.

Ordinary people would not be able to see it. But Tang Hao had once cultivated the mysterious art of life controlling at the southern Dipper sect. Naturally, he could clearly sense the change in his fate wheel.

“Boundless lifespan ...”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He looked a little emotional.

From then on, he would have a long lifespan, and his life would become extremely long. As long as there were no accidents, he could live for as long as twenty thousand years.

“Twenty thousand years ... Is too long!”

Tang Hao sighed.

He had only lived for 50 years, which was insignificant compared to the 20000 years of his life.

After a long time, the light finally dissipated, and the strange phenomenon in the sky also gradually faded.

“I’ve finally passed the fourth tribulation!”

Tang Hao clenched his fists tightly. He sensed his current cultivation base, and he could not help but feel a surge of emotions.

The difference in each tribulation would bring about a tremendous change in strength. He had spent some effort to kill that old man Gu tuo before, but with his current strength, he could easily crush him to death. He couldn’t even escape.

Tang Hao looked around and found that many divine senses were coming from all directions. If they stayed any longer, they would be discovered, and the pursuers from all the races would swarm over.

With a flash of his body, he disappeared from where he was.

After he left, several rays of light swept over from all directions, and many illusory figures appeared. These were all spiritual clones that had come to inquire about the situation.

“From afar, I can see that this person is passing the Tribulation very easily. He has several powerful tribulation weapons in his hands. He is definitely not an ordinary person!”

“It can’t be the Holy Son. He looks like an old monster!”

They looked around and communicated with each other.

“I’ve never heard of any third tribulation old monster going through his tribulation! I used my spirit eyes just now and vaguely saw that this person was holding a red battle spear. It’s very similar to the Emperor artifact of the lower realm kid. Could it be him?”

Suddenly, one of them said hesitantly.

“Lower realm kid? You mean him?”

As soon as he said that, the rest of the people were shocked.
