

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1800

“Ah!”

There was another scream.

A xiuzhe was struck by the red divine light and fell down with a scream. The next moment, countless Five Element divine lights surged over and killed him.

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he turned around.

He was a third-trial Saint, but he couldn’t block the killing trial. His body was shattered, and only his primordial spirit escaped in a hurry.

His body flickered and dodged the beams of divine light. Finally, he made it out and landed outside the formation.

“Hu!”

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief.

If not for the fact that so many clan members had taken a portion of the formation’s power, it would have been very difficult for him to pass through this killing tribulation alone.

“Motherf * cker, you scared me to death!”

“This array breaking is really F * cking amazing!”

From time to time, there would be people who managed to survive the killing tribulation and land outside the formation, all of them with lingering fear.

“It’s really strange. I didn’t discover such a fearsome formation here before!” Someone suddenly said.

“It’s true. I’ve been here for a long time before, but there wasn’t such a dangerous formation here. It’s just that the depths are extremely dangerous, and no one has ever explored it. ”

Someone echoed.

The crowd immediately gasped in surprise.

Mount Changliu wasn’t a particularly dangerous place. Many people had come here before. Other than the central area, the other places weren’t too dangerous. Many of them had even ventured deep into this place before, but they had never discovered these ominous formations.

“The way I see it, the appearance of the immortal graveyard must have triggered these protective arrays!”

After some discussion, someone said.

This statement was reasonable, and it was quickly acknowledged by everyone.

“Let’s go! Continue!”

Everyone rushed forward, and another formation appeared in front of them. It was filled with sword light, and it was a sword formation. Everyone was still waiting for the main clan troops to arrive, and then rush over in the chaos.

There had been three tribulations so far. After each tribulation, the number of people had decreased by a lot, and even the number of clansmen had decreased.

After breaking through the sword formation, there was another formation in front of them that was covered with a dense white fog. It was misty and ethereal, like a dream.

“It’s an illusory formation!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He recognized it at a glance.

After everyone rushed in, he also walked in.

As soon as he stepped into it, his mind was in a daze. He was affected by the illusory formation.

Once hit, one would fall into an illusion and be trapped in the array.

He immediately bit the tip of his tongue, and the top of his head shone with a golden light. His primordial spirit rushed out and turned into a wizard God, emitting a monstrous power.

In an instant, he regained his consciousness.

“That was close!”

Tang Hao exclaimed in his mind.

It would be troublesome if one fell into such an ancient illusory formation.

He bit the tip of his tongue again, composed himself, and walked forward.

The fog was so thick that he couldn’t even see ten feet away, let alone figure out the direction.

“It’s actually a bewildering formation!”

Tang Hao clicked his tongue and furrowed his brows.

He released his soul sense and scanned the surroundings, but he did not find any trace of anyone else.

“Let’s turn around first!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself and started walking around.

He had to understand the structure of the formation before he could find a way to break it.

At this moment, in this illusionary formation, the group of cultivators were separated. They were running around in all directions, looking for a way to break the formation.

And in the mist, there was a pair of eyes hidden, peeking at them.

“Oh! This fellow is not bad ... He has sufficient qi and blood, and his primordial spirit is powerful. He’s a great tonic!”

He peeked at a four-tribulation Saint and muttered to himself.

“Eh? This kid is not bad! The flesh, blood, and primordial spirit of a person with an innate Dao body are great tonics!”

He swept his gaze and his eyes landed on another Holy Son. His eyes revealed a bit of greed.

“This one’s not bad either. There’s also a pair of God’s eyes!”

“This ... There’s a piece of God’s bone!”

He looked around and spied on the Saint children, drooling.

Each and every one of these Saint children was extremely talented. In his eyes, they were all great tonics.

“Swallow! He swallowed them all! As long as I devour these people, I can restore my supreme divine power!”

He mumbled, feeling extremely excited.

“Hahaha! These people probably didn’t expect this! What immortal tomb, I’ve already dug it out, it’s not up to you bunch of trash, come on! Come in! All of them will become my tonic to help me recover my Supreme magical powers!”

His eyes swept over the figures in the array, and he couldn’t help but lick his lips. He couldn’t hold it in anymore.

“No! “Now is not the best time. There are a lot of 5th tribulation cultivators here. If it was before, I wouldn’t care. Killing a 5th tribulation cultivator would be as easy as killing an ant, but now I’m only a remnant soul, so I’m not their match. It won’t be too late to deal with these people after I devour a few more origin souls and recover some strength.”

However, he quickly restrained himself.

“These should be the strongest geniuses of their respective races. They are also the most outstanding young geniuses in the current spiritual wilderness. I want to choose one to be my body! With my primordial spirit and this physical body, I might be able to surpass my previous realm!”

He began to scan the young geniuses in the array.

“Divine eyes? It’s alright!”

“Oh! This God’s bone is not bad, but it’s a little ugly!”

He went through them one by one as if he was picking cabbages.

His gaze soon fell on Tang Hao.

“Eh? This guy is a little strange!”

He studied Tang Hao for a while and suddenly furrowed his brows.

This guy looked middle-aged, but his bones didn’t look like it.

“Good fellow, he actually hid his appearance. This kind of transformation technique is quite brilliant, even I almost couldn’t see through it.”

He squinted his eyes and took a closer look, finally seeing through the disguise.

He looked at it again and raised his eyebrows. This was really wonderful! This kid was also a genius, a monster! This bone ... I can’t even recognize it. Its aura is very strange, like the aura of a God!”

“Could it be ... That it’s a God’s bone? But how was that possible? I’ve never heard of anyone who can embed a God’s bone into their body!”

“And this fleshly body is perfect! It was too perfect! Not only is it extremely powerful, but it also seems to have a special body constitution ...”

After examining it for a moment, he suddenly gasped and revealed an extremely shocked expression. “Oh my God! This ... Could this be ... The divine body of creation?”

He couldn’t help but exclaim in shock.

He found it even more unbelievable that this kid had a piece of God’s bone in his body that was similar to a God’s spiritual bone. It was actually the legendary Supreme God’s body. This ... What kind of monster was this!

Those freaks from before were not bad, and were considered to be famous geniuses at his time. However, compared to this kid, they paled in comparison.

“I’m rich! I’m rich now!”

He was so excited that he was trembling.

He had actually found such a peerless genius!

As long as he seized this guy's physical body and fused his spirit and body together, his achievements would surpass the past and reach the Supreme realm!
