

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1810

“This old devil is too vicious. He actually wants to possess great master Shi’s body!”

The crowd boiled over, and everyone revealed angry expressions.

At the same time, they also understood that master Shi was not an accomplice. This old monster’s physical body had been destroyed by Chang Liu Xian tens of thousands of years ago, leaving only his primordial spirit. He was in urgent need of a body to possess, and it just so happened that Chang Liu Xian had his eyes on master Shi.

“But ... Why is it master Shi?”

Someone asked doubtfully.

There were countless cultivators here, and many of them were Holy Sons, all of whom were extremely talented. Logically speaking, if this old monster wanted to possess a body, his first choice would definitely be such a monster, so why would he choose great master Shi?

This master Shi’s array Dao is indeed powerful, but he should be quite old. In terms of talent, he can’t compare to those young monsters!

Tang Hao stood where he was. His expression changed several times.

It was not good to be targeted by this old monster. Even a 5th tribulation expert was not his opponent, how could he, a mere 4th tribulation expert, block it?

“Senior, you’re not mistaken, are you?” A moment later, Tang Hao calmed down. “How can my body be worthy of your attention, senior? there are many bodies here that are better than mine!”

“Yeah!”

There was an uproar.

Everyone was extremely puzzled.

“Woof! Kid, stop acting! Do you really think no one can see through you?” Patriarch black sky sneered, “here, no one’s body is better than yours! Those so-called Holy Sons are also far inferior to you!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he heard that.

“It can’t be!”

“How is that possible?”

The crowd exclaimed in disbelief.

This master Shi was obviously a senior figure and should be more than a hundred years old. Otherwise, how could his attainments in the array Dao be so high? he was only at the fourth tribulation when he was more than a hundred years old, while those Holy Sons were only sixty or seventy years old and had already reached the fourth tribulation. Wasn't it obvious which one was more powerful?

There were also many people who revealed suspicious expressions as they looked at this master Shi, sizing him up.

Hearing the old Devil's tone, this person seemed to be hiding something. Could it be ... He wasn't a stone clan expert?

"Senior, You must be joking!" Tang Hao chuckled as he backed away. The situation was not looking good, and it was best to escape as soon as possible. As for the treasure in front of him, he was not lucky enough to enjoy it.

"You want to run?"

Patriarch black sky laughed and appeared above the crowd in a flash. He reached out his hand, and a monstrous aura pressed down, instantly sealing the void around Tang Hao.

Tang Hao's body trembled. He was almost forced to his knees by the terrifying aura.

This was the pressure of a 6th tribulation expert, two tribulations higher than his!

"Motherf * cker!"

Tang Hao cursed in a low voice. He felt extremely unlucky. He had never thought that he would be targeted by an ancient fiend, and that he would fall into a life-and-death situation.

A 6th tribulation cultivator, even if he only had an origin soul, was still an extremely terrifying existence!

"Little brat, no one can escape from this Lord's palm! You're no exception!" Black sky old ancestor laughed complacently.

After a pause, he continued, "Speaking of which, this Lord quite admires you. Your acting was so realistic that even this Lord has to feel ashamed of his inferiority!" It's no wonder these people didn't notice you. They really thought you were some senior or old monster!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the crowd burst into an uproar.

"Master Shi isn't a senior?"

"What's going on?"

The crowd burst into an uproar. Everyone was bewildered. Many of them took out all kinds of treasures and shone them at master Shi, trying to find out what was going on.

"Tsk! It seems like we can't hide it anymore!"

Tang Hao grinned and laughed.

He had originally planned to use master Shi's identity to continue his act and wait for an opportunity to seize the treasure, but with the appearance of this ancient demon, he could no longer hide.

Since it had come to this, it was better to reveal his identity openly.

He stood up and wiped his face, revealing his true appearance.

The crowd was stunned as they did not expect master Shi to actually change his appearance.

"It's him?"

When they took a closer look, they were stunned. They were all too familiar with this face.

"It's you, Tang kid!"

The group of Saint children reacted the fastest. They gritted their teeth, and their eyes were about to spit fire.

Isn't this the bastard surnamed Tang?

During this period of time, they had travelled all over the spiritual wilderness to find this fellow and take revenge. Even after coming to Mount Changliu, they were still searching. They had never expected that this fellow would actually be right under their noses and they had not discovered anything strange at all. They had really treated this fellow as their senior.

When they thought about how they had addressed this fellow as their senior, they were so angry that they almost spat out blood.

What a disgrace! It was simply a great humiliation!

They were so angry that they were trembling and their faces were red.

Those old monsters of the fifth tribulation were stunned for a long time. Finally, they came back to their senses and their old faces turned dark.

It was too embarrassing!

They were a group of 5th tribulation Almighties, but they were actually being coaxed by a young boy and really treated him as a fellow Daoist of the same generation!

They had yet to wash away their previous humiliation, and now they had another one. If this news spread, the world would laugh at them again.

"This detestable brat is too cunning!"

They cursed and were extremely angry.

At the same time, they were a little shocked. This kid's slyness was beyond their imagination. Also, this kid's attainments in array Dao shocked them even more.

He was clearly a wild brat from the lower realm. It was fine if his cultivation was high, but how could he have such profound array Dao attainments?

"It's actually him!"

The crowd burst into an uproar.

Everyone was in disbelief. This expert from the stone clan who was extremely proficient in array Dao was actually that brat surnamed Tang!

He didn't leave the spiritual wilderness, but instead sneaked into Mount Changliu and pretended to be an expert from the stone clan, deceiving them all!

"Awesome!"

Many people praised him sincerely.

This kid was really bold, but he was also as cunning as a Fox. His shrewdness was even deeper than those old monsters. He was really a powerful figure!

"It's rare to see someone with such ability in the younger generation!"

"No wonder he could come up from the lower realm and have such achievements!"

They all sighed with emotion.

In the path of cultivation, talent was important, but so was one's heart. Pangu continent had produced many geniuses over the years, but not many of them had grown up to become Giants. Many of them had died halfway, or at the hands of some old monsters.

"Tsk tsk! You little rascal ... You're really quite powerful!"

Patriarch black sky couldn't help but exclaim in admiration.

After listening to his surroundings, he understood this kid's situation and was shocked. He had thought that this kid was the Holy Son of some clan, but he did not expect that he was a wild kid from the lower realm.

"Brat, the more I look at you, the more I like you. Just obediently obey me and let me take over your body. This way, I will spare your life and let you find another body."

"If you stubbornly resist, don't blame this Lord for not being polite!"

“Die!” He shouted coldly. His body suddenly sank, and he turned into a stream of light that charged toward Tang Hao.
