

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1825

Somewhere in the spiritual wilderness, a ripple suddenly appeared in the void.

Tang Hao shot through the air and landed on the ground.

He staggered and his face was pale.

“My injuries aren’t light. It looks like I’ll need to recuperate for a period of time!”

He checked his primordial spirit and frowned.

His primordial spirit had just advanced, and his realm was not stable yet. Naturally, he could not withstand this. Now that his primordial spirit was severely injured and extremely weak, any Saint could kill him.

“But it’s worth it!”

Then, Tang Hao grinned from ear to ear.

This trip to the immortal graveyard was full of danger. First, there was the ancient demon who wanted to possess him. Then, thousands of old monsters of the fifth tribulation surrounded him and he almost died inside.

But fortunately, he still managed to pull through. On the contrary, it was a blessing in disguise and he gained a lot.

The nine-Dragon coffin and the Taiyi green divine streamer were both Supreme treasures.

The Taiyi green God armor was the most useful, which made up for his regret of not having a suitable armor.

However, to him, these were not the biggest gains. The primordial spirit of old monster black sky was the biggest gain. By devouring the primordial spirit of the old monster, not only did he raise his own primordial spirit to the 5th tribulation realm, but his strength also soared.

Moreover, he had also obtained the old monster’s memories. All the old monster’s cultivation techniques, ancient secrets, and treasure troves were naturally all obtained by him.

That old devil was an 8th tribulation expert when he was alive. He was also an amazing person in ancient times, so the things he had mastered were naturally extraordinary.

There was information on countless treasures in Tang Hao’s mind. There were rare divine medicines and peerless divine materials. Tang Hao’s heart burned with passion as he read them.

However, he also knew that tens of thousands of years had passed. Most of this information was definitely out of date, and the treasures inside were long gone.

“I still have to go and take a look. What if there are more? I’ll be rich!”

Tang Hao mumbled. He was still hoping for a fluke.

After all, the places mentioned in the information were all dangerous places, even Forbidden Lands. Even if tens of thousands of years had passed, no one might have visited them. As long as they could find one or two treasures, it would be worth it.

“But there’s no rush. I’ll look for it slowly in the future. The most important thing now is to leave the spiritual wilderness.”

Tang Hao turned around to look, and his expression turned grave.

He knew in his heart that what awaited him next would definitely be the crazy pursuit of those clans. He had blown up so many Holy Sons ‘bodies and snatched their treasures. How could those clans let him go? they would definitely kill him at all costs.

Previously, he was also hunted down by many clans, but they did not use their real power. Those clans all had tens of thousands of years of inheritance and had a deep foundation. They had many 5th tribulation experts, and even 6th tribulation and 7th tribulation magnates.

With his current realm, not to mention the seventh tribulation, as long as he encountered a sixth tribulation, he would be defeated.

Furthermore, once the news spread, it might not just be the spirit wilderness. The experts from the other wilderness might also come. He knew very well what two Supreme weapons meant.

“Let’s go!”

He leaped up, tore open the void again, and traveled toward the West.

That direction was where the West barren was located.

He had been prepared to go to the West barren to find assistant han. Mount Changliu was the border between the two barren lands.

Now that this had happened, he wasn’t going to go to the Han clan anymore. However, he could hide in the West barren. If he couldn’t, he could just keep going west and head to the sea.

At this time, with Mount Changliu as the center, countless 5th tribulation Almightyies spread out and searched frantically. Wherever their spirit sense reached, it caused a shock.

“What ... What is this aura?”

“What happened?”

On the ground, countless cultivators looked up at the sky with shock and apprehension.

In the sky, a dazzling immortal radiance spread out, and countless terrifying thoughts descended. They swept back and forth as if they were looking for something.

Many people knelt down and trembled under the terrifying pressure.

After searching for a moment, those figures left.

Immediately after, the earth was in an uproar. Everyone was in a heated discussion about what was going on.

“That aura, it’s definitely a 4th tribulation, or even 5th tribulation Almighty!”

“So many five tribulations, my God! Something big has definitely happened!”

They all exclaimed in shock.

“It should be that Changliu mountain!” Very quickly, some people thought of Mount Changliu.

Not long ago, news came from Mount Changliu and shook the entire spiritual wilderness. Countless clans had sent experts over and they had all heard about it.

Just a moment ago, many of them were still discussing the matter of Mount Changliu.

Looking at the situation now, it must be that the matter at Mount Changliu had come to an end. Someone had taken the treasure and was being chased by these powerful beings.

They began to wait for news from Mount Changliu.

The news came unexpectedly fast. In less than an hour, the news came.

But after hearing about it, all of them were dumbfounded.

“Surnamed Tang? How could it be him? Didn’t he leave the spiritual wilderness a long time ago?!”

“Isn’t he only at the 4th tribulation? how could he take away a treasure from thousands of 5th tribulation Almighties?”

Everyone was in disbelief.

It was Tang Hao!

It was him again!

Not long after, this name once again entered their line of sight.

Last time, Tang Hao had appeared at tianlao mountain and defeated 100 Holy Sons. He had shaken the entire spirit wilderness and was in the limelight, suppressing all the Holy Sons.

They had thought that he had already left. They had not expected that he would appear again and cause such a sensation by snatching the treasures from the hands of thousands of powerful beings.

“What? Two Supreme artifacts?”

“He still has a divine bow? A single arrow forced back thousands of powerful beings?”

When they heard more details, they were even more shocked.

If it wasn't for the reliable source of the information, they would have suspected that this was just a joke.

One person had two Supreme artifacts!

Devour the primordial spirit of the ancient devil, advance it to the fifth tribulation, and break the iron rule!

Then, he forced back thousands of powerful beings with an arrow!

Each piece of news was more shocking and explosive than the last.

It took everyone a long time before they could accept this fact.

“This is crazy! He was really crazy! Is that kid even human?”

“No wonder those old monsters are so crazy!”

After they came back to their senses, they all sighed.

He was the first person in history to break the iron rule of the sage realm and achieve the fifth tribulation primordial spirit while only at the fourth tribulation realm!

This fact alone was enough to make that kid famous. Furthermore, he had two Supreme weapons and could crush all the Holy Sons of the spirit wilderness. Even the fifth tribulation Almighty had to avoid him.

Such strength was terrifying!

“This kid's monstrous talent is truly somewhat shocking!”

“What Holy Son? I think he already has the strength to compete for the title of Supreme youth! I'm afraid another young Supreme Being is about to be born, and he's not from Pangu continent, but from the lower realm!”

When they talked about the boy surnamed Tang again, everyone's expression changed. There was less contempt and more respect.
