

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1850

“How can one be enough!”

Tang Hao waved his hand again, and another silver god statue appeared. It was the silver God that had descended on planet Dong Ling.

Following that, the third god statue was formed. It was completely golden, and its skin was covered in golden patterns. Looking at its appearance, it was even more powerful and intimidating than the first two.

This was the Dragon count giant God!

The three statues were the three that Tang Hao had created earlier. They were just being reconstructed.

Tang Hao stood there and thought for a while. He raised his hand again, and the fourth statue appeared. It was not in the shape of a human, but a flying rain-Dragon!

The winged Dragon was one of the overlords of the ancient times and was qualified to be on par with these gods.

As soon as the Yinglong statue was formed, the hall shook again, and the roar of a Dragon shook the sky.

At the same time, a rolling Dragon’s might spread in all directions.

“That’s ... A Winged Dragon?”

“Isn’t that just a statue? how can it have the true might of a Dragon? That’s right, this brat seemed to have had a piece of Winged Dragon Bone in the past, but it was taken away later on, and that’s how he got that piece of Divine Spirit bone.”

Cries of alarm rang out from all directions.

“Three godly spirits and a Winged Dragon ... This kid is really generous!”

Some higher-beings exclaimed.

These four statues weren’t just statues. Each of them had their own true aura. In other words, this kid had integrated the God spirit and the Qi of the winged Dragon into this immortal mansion, which was enough to increase the power of this immortal mansion.

“Four ... That should be enough!”

All of the mighty figures discussed as they looked at the immortal estate, their hearts filled with shock.

However, Tang Hao did not stop as they wished. He raised his hand again, and another statue was formed.

“The fifth one!”

“That’s ... The Golden-winged great Peng from ancient times?”

All of the mighty figures were once again left speechless upon seeing this.

First, it was a God, then it was a Winged Dragon, and now it was the Golden-winged ROC. This kid ... How many opportunities did he have?

Before they could recover from their shock, the sixth statue had already formed. It was a divine Phoenix with beautiful wings, and its entire body was enveloped in Crimson flames.

“It’s a divine Phoenix!”

“There’s actually divine Phoenix Qi too. It looks like this kid has also obtained the opportunity of a divine Phoenix!”

The crowd exclaimed again.

“Six, that’s enough! Let’s leave it at that for now! There would be more in the future. Since it was called the gods Palace, it naturally could not only have these! One day, I’ll fill this Palace with all kinds of gods.”

Tang Hao looked up at the Great Hall, his heart surging with emotions.

Then, he raised his hand and made a few strokes on the plaque in front of the hall. Three large words appeared.

“Gods Palace? What a big tone!”

There was an immediate uproar from all four sides. Some were disdainful, while some were amazed.

At that moment, the immortal Qi descending from the sky had not stopped. It continued to surge in. Part of it entered Tang Hao’s body and continued to transform his physical body and his sea of the path, while the other part flowed into the immortal abode.

Above the Holy realm dwellers “mansion, the light brightened, and the aura became stronger.

Soon, the light was as bright as the sun, illuminating the entire world.

“That’s the light of the immortal estate!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

At this point, this immortal mansion could be considered to be truly complete.

And this kid has really entered the fifth tribulation realm.

A moment later, the immortal Qi dissipated, and heaven and earth gradually returned to normal. Only the figure remained standing in the sky. The immortal mansion floated above his head, and the immortal light was dazzling and shining in all directions.

The entire world was silent for a moment.

Thousands of eyes were focused on this figure.

Everyone's expression was somewhat absent-minded. They had clearly come to kill this brat, but this brat had not died. Instead, he had advanced to the fifth tribulation, and his strength had increased greatly.

This ... What the hell was this!

What a disgrace! It was simply a disgrace!

"He actually succeeded! He's still so young, and he advanced to the 5th tribulation on his own!"

"Under such circumstances, he was still able to have a fortuitous encounter and increase his cultivation. This child's luck is extraordinary! It seems like ... We were all wrong!"

A few sighs could be heard from the Tang clan's warship.

The group of elders from the Tang Clan felt a little regretful. They had discussed it before and concluded that this boy was not worthy of their Tang clan's rescue. However, they were a little shaken now.

"Perhaps we were wrong!"

At the bow of the ship, the Grand Elder of the Tang Clan shook his head and sighed.

"However, since things have come to this, there's no point in regretting it. If we had appeared before, we might have had a chance to protect him. But now, we don't even have the slightest chance!" He sighed again, feeling even more regretful.

Before this, this kid was still at the 4th tribulation. They had an agreement that only 4th tribulation or those of the same generation could fight. But now, this kid had advanced to the 5th tribulation, which undoubtedly broke the agreement. All 5th tribulation cultivators could fight now.

Moreover, this child had displayed such astonishing luck that it made all the other races even more fearful. They would definitely eliminate him at all costs.

Even if he, the master of the Tang family, stepped in, it would be impossible to protect this kid.

"This is out of my expectation. However, even if he has advanced to the fifth tribulation, the situation has not been solved. Instead, it has become more dangerous!" From the sky, a pair of beautiful eyes looked down with worry in them. It was Yu Shiling.

Many people in the crowd started to worry again.

As the crowd gradually came back to their senses, the atmosphere around them began to boil.

The expressions of the five tribulations Almightyies were somewhat strange, but they were eager to make a move.

“This kid is already at the 5th tribulation. He can’t keep to the previous agreement!”

“With his current realm, a 4th tribulation cultivator is no match for him at all. There are only a few 5th tribulation geniuses in his generation who can fight with him. Naturally, this agreement can not be counted.”

The magnates in the sky also started to discuss among themselves.

“Since I’m already at the fifth tribulation, the agreement naturally doesn’t count. I can change it. All of the fifth tribulation cultivators can attack. Whoever can kill me will get the treasure.” Tang Hao shouted loudly as he looked around.

“Little brat? Is this true?”

One of the hostages asked.

“Really! However, I’m afraid that you so-called senior Almighty experts won’t dare to agree!” Tang Hao shouted coldly.

“Hmph! What’s there to be afraid of?”

“You brat, don’t be so arrogant! You’ve just advanced, and you want to compete with us seniors? You’re still a few decades too early!”

The group of 5th tribulation experts were furious.

“Surnamed Tang, don’t be happy too early. Even if you have advanced to the fifth tribulation, so what? I can still kill you!”

With a loud shout, the Yao clan’s genius rushed out from the crowd and provoked.

The aura around his body was released and he also revealed the aura of a fifth tribulation.

“And me!”

The genius of the Jiang family followed closely and also passed the fifth tribulation.

Among the young people of this generation on Pangu continent, many of them had advanced to the fifth tribulation, and all of them were the descendants of super clans. The heritage of these clans was so deep that ordinary clans could not compare with them.

“Tang kid, I’m going to tear down your immortal mansion and take back all the treasures that belong to me!”

Liu heihu also jumped out and cursed angrily.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

One after another, figures rushed out and surrounded Tang Hao. They were the group of monsters who had been chasing him just now.

“Very good! I’m just about to test the power of this immortal mansion of mine!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao snorted as he looked around. His cold eyes were filled with murderous intent.
