

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1887

“Senior brother, please hold on. Let’s exchange our insights, okay?”

“Alright! Junior Brother, how many books have you read?”

“Ah! I’m ashamed to say this, but it’s only one book. Master Tang’s alchemy Scripture is easy to read, but it’s extremely difficult to fully understand it. I’ve studied it for so long, but I haven’t even understood half a book.”

“It’s already good enough that you’ve finished half a book. Come, come, come, let’s sit down and have a good chat. Master Tang said that in the study of alchemy, one must have the spirit of selfless dedication. We can learn from each other and improve together. Only then can we achieve a win-win situation!”

“As expected of Master Tang, his realm is so high! Compared to him, we’re like ordinary people!”

“Yup! Master Tang is truly a Saint!”

Similar conversations were happening all over the gate of fortune.

All the alchemists were studying hard, sparring with each other, and working hard to improve their alchemy skills.

In the past, alchemy could be said to be lifeless, but now, it was completely alive. Every Alchemist was hungry and thirsty, and even some of the older alchemists in the sect seemed to be rejuvenated, their enthusiasm no less than the young.

They kept Master Tang’s teachings in mind and did not hide anything from him. They shared all their insights and knowledge to improve together.

In such an environment, their progress was abnormally fast. Even those alchemists with average aptitudes seemed to have been enlightened, and their standards soared.

There was a saying among the alchemists that as long as one read Master Tang’s alchemy Scripture, even a pig could fly.

Such progress was quickly reflected in the assessment.

Half a month after the alchemy Scripture was released, nearly half of the alchemists had broken through their original ranks in the first assessment. There were eight level grandmasters, five new level nine tycoons, and an old Alchemist who had broken through to the Saint level.

This result greatly encouraged the group of alchemists.

Another half a month passed, and in the second examination, more alchemists made breakthroughs. There were more than ten New Alchemists, and all kinds of new talents emerged like bamboo shoots after the rain.

“The Dao of alchemy of today is finally starting to show some signs!”

Tang Hao was quite satisfied.

Even though the creation alchemy Dao had some Foundation and was slightly stronger than the alchemy Dao of ordinary sects, it was still too weak in Tang Hao’s eyes. Not only were there few alchemists, but there were even fewer high-level alchemists.

Now, there was a New Alchemy Saint, nearly twenty grandmasters, tyrants, and a group of young alchemists. They could be considered to be on the stage.

However, Tang Hao was still not satisfied. This bit of strength was far from the medicine God mountain, not to mention the Yao clan and the great void alchemy path.

In the alchemy world, the medicine God mountain of the ancient wilderness was considered a top tier sect. The Yao clan and the great void alchemy path were considered big shots.

The current creation alchemy Dao could not even be considered first-class.

However, in the eyes of Fu Yunzi, Zao huaizi, and the others, this was already a great achievement. Every day, they would smile from ear to ear. As long as Zao huaizi had nothing to do, he would go to the elixir Palace and the Scripture Depository to take a look.

“Very good! Very good!”

“All of you have to work hard and learn from Master Tang!”

He would also cheer the alchemists on.

“There are still too few people. We have to recruit as many as we can. We have to cultivate more alchemists. The more the better. The more people there are, the more prosperous alchemy Dao will be.”

Seeing the flourishing development of alchemy, Zao Huazi’s pride soared.

In the past, the level of alchemy was limited, so they couldn’t train too many disciples. Therefore, the number of alchemy disciples was maintained at around a thousand. But now the situation was different. With Master Tang’s alchemy Scripture, they could train more young alchemists continuously.

No matter what aptitude he had, they could nurture him into a genius even if he was a piece of rotten wood!

What they lacked now was manpower!

“Not just alchemy Dao, I’m also recruiting other disciples. The more the better. Accept as many as you can!”

With the development of alchemy, the sect would have more resources and would be able to cultivate more disciples.

Under his instructions, the elders ran in all directions to recruit disciples. Every time they returned, they would bring back boats full of young men and women to be accepted into the sect and arranged to be sent to the various peaks.

The number of disciples in the gate of fortune also increased dramatically. Originally, excluding the foreign disciples, the gate only had about ten thousand people. Now, it had more than thirty thousand people, and there were about twenty thousand new disciples.

As these new people entered the sect, the mountain Gate became lively again.

Half of these 20000 new people were assigned to alchemy and began to practice alchemy, which greatly increased the scale of alchemy.

It had been a month and a half since Tang Hao had finished writing the pill Scripture.

In this one and a half months, the creation alchemy Dao had undergone earth-shaking changes.

It had been more than three months since Tang Hao officially joined the gate of fortune and began to ripen the divine fruits. The first batch of divine fruits had finally ripened.

There were thirteen divine fruits in total, and Tang Hao had refined two divine pills.

He handed the divine elixir to Zao huaizi and let him make the arrangements.

“That’s great! This way, our gate of fortune will have two more geniuses!” With the elixir in his hands, Zao Huazi was ecstatic.

“How are Gao Dayong and the others?”

Tang Hao asked about Gao Dayong. He and the other handyman disciple had taken the creation divine pill and obtained divine bodies. They were brought to the sect by the two Supreme elders for cultivation, and Tang Hao wondered how they were doing.

“I’m good! Don’t worry, all the resources of the sect have been invested in them. They’ve already broken through to the sage realm. Da Yong has already passed the third tribulation in just three months.” Said Zao Huazi excitedly.

Tang Hao was slightly surprised.

Although the creation divine body was indeed magical, it was too terrifying to rise from the immortal realm to the third tribulation realm in just over three months.

Upon seeing Tang Hao’s surprise, Zao Huazi smiled and said, “What’s so strange about that? In the past, our path of creation was most famous for our creation divine body. There were many secret techniques and elixirs that specialized in cultivating the divine body. It was easy to cultivate it to the third or fourth calamity.”

“That’s true!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“However, at your level, these secret techniques and pills are not very useful.” “Although the creation divine body is miraculous, it’s not heaven-defying,” said Zao Huazi.

The two of them chatted for a while. After that, Zao Huazi put away the two divine elixirs and looked outside. He couldn’t help but sigh.

Only three months had passed since the Grand ceremony, but his creation sect had already transformed. This transformation was so great that he felt like he was dreaming.

And all of this was because of this young man in front of him.

When he had decided to cooperate, he had some doubts in his heart. He did not know if they would succeed. But now, he no longer had any doubts. As long as they continued to develop at this rate, there was hope for the rise of his creation sect.

“It seems that my vision was right! This young man is amazing!”

He thought to himself.

This young man was truly different from all the monsters he had seen before. His astonishing attainments in the alchemy Dao and the transcendent realm where he dared to share all his insights were truly different from the rest.

“Perhaps this is why he was able to reach this stage from the lower realm. Young master Taixu is inferior to him in terms of personality and magnanimity!”

“In time, he might really be able to surpass the eldest young masters of the heavens and stand at the peak of this world!”

In his heart, Zao huazi’s opinion of Tang Hao increased even more.
