

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1893

“A second tribulation weapon!”

“There’s a bottle of pills here, they’re still in good condition!”

In the small world, the group of people rummaged through the place and occasionally discovered something. However, what disappointed them was that these things were not of high grade and could not be considered treasures.

“These palaces are well-preserved, which means that there was no battle here!” Zao huaizi looked around and muttered, “however, the mountain Gate outside is severely damaged. There are traces of a fierce battle, which means that in the ancient times, an external enemy invaded the Tian Luo sect. It’s just that they didn’t come here.”

“Looking at these messy marks, it’s obvious that they left in a hurry. Most of the treasures of the Tian Luo sect might have been taken away by the last of the disciples.”

“What a pity!”

Fu Yunzi and the others all sighed.

Tang Hao also felt a little regretful. In ancient times, the Tian Luo sect was the Overlord of a region. There must be many treasures in the sect. It would be a pity to miss it.

“Don’t be discouraged!” “They left in a hurry, so it’s impossible for them to take all the treasures with them,” said Zao Huazi with a smile. “There must be something that they missed. They might have left us some good treasures. Let’s look through them again.”

“That’s true!”

The group of elders became excited again and began to search with all their might.

They had their eyes on the treasure. At the very least, it had to be a tribulation equipment to catch their attention. But Tang Hao was different. No matter what it was, they would take it all, not even a brick or a tile.

Wherever he went, it was like a swarm of locusts, plundering everything. The shop-maker and the others were dumbfounded.

“Tang ... Master Tang, that’s just a worn-out magic tool. You want it too?”

“That’s just a brick, what’s the use of it?”

The elders could not figure it out.

This Master Tang was a five tribulation Saint and an alchemy Saint. He had so many treasures. Why would he be interested in these junk?

This really didn't match Master Tang's identity and temperament!

"Hahaha! I'm sorry! I'm used to it!"

Tang Hao scratched his head and chuckled. "Every time I see these things, I can't help but think, 'they're all free stuff, so why not?' Don't you guys agree?"

"This ..."

The expressions of Zao huaizi and the others were extremely strange.

Master Tang's habit was quite unique ...

"Hahaha! As expected of Master Tang! It's just so different!"

After a while, Fu Yunzi laughed and broke the awkwardness. He started to flatter.

"Yes, yes, yes! Master Tang was indeed different! This isn't picking up trash, this is called frugality!"

"Master Tang's realm is higher than ours!"

After being stunned for a moment, the rest of the elders also reacted. Each of them squeezed out a smile and began to flatter enthusiastically.

The current Master Tang was even more precious in their hearts. They all wanted to build a good relationship with him so that it would be easier for them to request alchemy services in the future.

"Master Tang, I'll help you!"

"Master Tang, I don't have much use for these tribulation weapons, so you can have them all!"

They crowded around Tang Hao. Some of them helped to collect the junk, while others took out all the things they had collected and shoved them into Tang Hao's hands. They were extremely enthusiastic.

"Cough, cough! What are you guys doing! Can't you see that Master Tang is very unhappy? All of you, get lost!"

Yun qingzi couldn't stand it anymore. His face darkened and he shouted in a low voice,

He squeezed through the group of elders and came to Tang Hao's side. He suddenly grinned, and his old face squeezed out a warm, even flattering smile.

"Master! Come! I'll help you. No matter what I get later, I'll give it all to you. And these are all the treasures I've collected over the years. I don't have much use for them, so you can have them all!"

Yun qingzi took out a bunch of rings and stuffed them into Tang Hao's hands.

“This ... How can I accept this!” Tang Hao was in a difficult position.

“Ah! Master, what are you saying? Who are we? If Grandmaster doesn’t mind, you can call me elder brother. If you have any problems in the future, feel free to come and find me!” Yun qingzi patted his chest and said forthrightly.

“F * ck! You’re too shameless!”

The elders rolled their eyes and cursed in their hearts.

The Grand Elder was almost a thousand years old, and Master Tang was only in his fifties. How could he still call him brother?

However, they only criticized him in their hearts and didn’t dare to say it out loud.

“Then ... I won’t be polite!” Tang Hao said after some hesitation.

“Brother, don’t stand on ceremony with me!” Yun qingzi laughed out loud in delight.

It’s not a loss to recognize this younger brother of his. Whether he can advance to the seventh tribulation in the future will all depend on him.

Tang Hao smiled shyly.

He didn’t lose anything. Not only did he get a treasure, but he also got a loyal 6th tribulation fighter, so why not?

“Let’s go! Brother, let’s go find the treasure!”

Yun qingzi enthusiastically pulled Tang Hao along and swept forward. Tang Hao didn’t even need to do anything. He directly flicked his sleeve and sucked everything from the surroundings, then put them into his dimensional ring and stuffed them into Tang Hao’s hands.

After a while, they finally arrived at the central area.

Here, they found the Tian Luo sect’s herb garden. There were many spiritual herbs left inside, all of which were over ten thousand years old. They were extremely precious, and there were many precious herbs and many divine herbs.

This was also the biggest harvest they had since they arrived.

Naturally, the spirit herbs ended up in Tang Hao’s pocket.

As they went deeper, they found a place where elixir and equipment were refined. They found many treasures, but the one that interested Tang Hao the most was the elixir and equipment Scriptures of the Tian Luo sect.

On the main peak, they even found the Treasury of the Tian Luo sect, but unfortunately, there was nothing left.

“What a pity!”

The crowd sighed and looked around before turning back.

While they were exploring the ruins, tens of thousands of clones and souls were refining immortal Jade. The number of immortal Jade they had refined had piled up into mountains, and Tang Hao could not even count how many there were.

“So many immortal jades. It’s enough for our creation sect to develop for a while!”

Said Zao huaizi in delight.

“It’s a pity to leave just like that. How about this? I’ll leave these clones and souls here and continue to make immortal Jade. This way, I can continuously supply immortal Jade to the sect.”

Tang Hao said after some thought.

“That’s good!” The beggar nodded and said.

“We’ve been out for more than a month. We have to hurry back!”

After receiving the immortal Jade, Zao huaizi led everyone out of this small world and started their return journey.

As soon as he left the tianluo mountains, he saw a ray of light coming from the sky and landing in front of Zao Huazi. Upon closer inspection, he realized that it was a jade talisman.

After receiving the Jade talisman, Zao huaizi’s expression suddenly changed and became gloomy.

“What’s wrong?” Yun qingzi said.

“The Yao clan ... Has made their move!” Zao huaizi clutched the Jade talisman and spoke word by word.
