

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1897

“It fell! It fell again!”

“This heart burning grass was 2000 crystal stones a stalk yesterday, but it dropped to 1000 a stalk today. I heard that the people from the burning Spirit Valley were about to cry! This heart burning grass is their signature!”

The entire beihuang region was in an uproar, and wails of pain could be heard everywhere.

In just a few days, the prices of more than 60% of the spirit herbs in the entire spirit Herb Market had plummeted. The entire market was in chaos.

Those Chambers of Commerce and sects were all dumbfounded!

The sharp drop in the price of these spiritual herbs meant that a huge amount of these spiritual herbs had entered the market. But how could that be possible?

Dozens of them were still acceptable, but now it was a full 60%!

Sixty percent of the common spirit herbs on the market, that was twenty to thirty thousand types!

Where did so many spirit herbs come from?

It was simply impossible for a single force to grow so many spirit medicines.

They were even more anxious. If the price continued to fall like this, they would lose all their capital.

“Investigate! You must find out where these spirit herbs came from! I don’t believe that so many spirit herbs can appear out of thin air!”

The factions that were good at growing herbs, especially the alchemy factions, were the most anxious.

For example, the burning Spirit Valley was a well-known alchemy force in the beihuang region. The spiritual herb industry was their most important pillar. Now that the price of spiritual herbs had plummeted, they were the most affected.

These forces sent out large numbers of people to track down the source of these spirit medicines.

But in the end, they still found nothing.

These spirit herbs really seemed to have appeared out of thin air.

In the next few days, there was still a continuous influx of spiritual medicine into the market, causing the entire market to become more and more chaotic.

For the Chambers of Commerce and alchemy forces, this was a huge disaster. They were in terrible shape and worried every day. But for most xiuzhe, this was a good thing. The price of spiritual medicine had fallen, and they could buy more.

All the cities in the beihuang region were filled with joy and excitement.

In front of the Ling medicine shops, they were all packed with xiuzhe that had come to buy.

Golden core cultivators, Immortals, and Saints were all gathered together.

“Who cares who he is, as long as he’s cheap, it’s fine!”

“Good man! He’s definitely a good person!”

They were also curious about the source of these spirit herbs, and they were filled with gratitude and curiosity.

In their eyes, the act of pulling the price of spiritual herbs to half of its original price was simply the act of a Saint.

“Just bear with it for a few more days. I don’t believe that these people still have much stock in their hands. As long as their goods are sold out, the price will be pulled back!”

Those forces had no choice but to wait.

They firmly believed that as long as they waited for ten days to half a month, everything would return to normal.

However, to their surprise, even after half a month had passed, the situation still hadn’t changed. Not only did the low-cost spirit herbs entering the market not decrease, but it also seemed to be increasing.

Each batch was more numerous than the last, and the variety was also increasing.

“Who is it?”

“Which alchemy force is it that can grow such a wide variety of spiritual herbs in such a large number?”

They were more and more shocked and found it unbelievable.

In the entire beihuang region, there wasn’t a single force that could do this.

As the wave of spiritual herbs swept across the beihuang region, the mysterious force became the focus of attention.

People in all parts of the desolate north were talking about this mysterious force.

As for its origin, everyone had different opinions. Some said that it came from above, possibly one of the thirty-three forces. Some said that it was a hidden force from ancient times, but no one could say clearly.

This mysterious organization had not shown up either. They had only released batches of cheap spiritual herbs to disrupt the market.

As for the original focus, the gate of fortune, not many people paid attention to it. Even those sects and factions had no time to care about it. They were all frantically investigating the origins of this mysterious faction.

Just like that, another half a month passed.

To everyone's surprise, the situation of the spirit medicine market had not taken a turn for the better, and in the medicinal pill market, another drastic change came.

A large batch of cheap medicinal pills poured into the market, causing the price of medicinal pills to plummet.

Everything was the same as what had happened in the spiritual medicine market.

"That mysterious force has made its move again. This time, it's not spirit herbs, but medicinal pills!"

"Not only are those pills cheap, but their quality is also very good. Their medicinal effects are more than twice that of other pills!"

When the news spread, the entire beihuang region was in an uproar.

Compared to Ling medicine, dan medicine was more important to xiuzhe.

The entire beihuang region was in a frenzy.

"It fell! They've all fallen!"

The Chambers of Commerce and alchemy forces felt a chill in their hearts.

Previously, when the spirit herbs fell, they still had medicinal pills to support them. Now that the mysterious force had made a move on the medicinal pills, their last reliance was gone.

"This pill ... Is very unusual! The formula is extremely exquisite, and the technique is also ingenious. That's why all the medicinal effects are so strong!"

"This must be an ancient recipe. It doesn't look like it's from the thirty-three heavens. I think it must be a hidden alchemy recipe passed down from ancient times!"

In the pill realm, it also caused a huge commotion.

After the alchemists studied the pills, they were all amazed.

For a time, the theory of the hidden alchemy Dao was also acknowledged by everyone.

Those forces did not dare to act rashly. Such a hidden force was definitely not weak and could not be easily provoked.

They could only helplessly watch as the medicinal pill market fell bit by bit.

“Where did this abnormal force come from?”

“It’s really bad luck to encounter such a force!”

They lamented every day, feeling extremely depressed.

At this moment, a piece of news came from the gate of fortune.

“The gate of fortune? What’s going on over there?”

When they first heard about it, they were a little surprised. They had been paying attention to that mysterious faction recently and had almost forgotten about the gate of fortune.

“Are they finally unable to hold on and are going to surrender?”

“No... No, they sent out an invitation. They said that they’re organizing some sort of alchemy conference and are recruiting alchemists from all over the world to visit their creation sect. They also want to compare notes on alchemy! It’s not just us, the other forces have also received the invitation. ”

“The gathering of alchemists?”

When they heard this news, all the great clans and forces were stunned.

Why was there a need to hold an alchemy conference for no reason? furthermore, his small creation sect did not have the qualifications!

“Go! Of course we’re going. I’d like to see what the gate of fortune can do!”

After some consideration, these forces all accepted the invitation.

This news caused a small commotion in the beihuang region.

It also caused a wave of discussion in the pill realm.

This time, the gate of fortune had sent out invitations to all the pill Dao factions in the beihuang region, as well as itinerant pill cultivators. Even the famous pill Dao factions in the other barren regions were also invited. It was a grand event.

There was no lack of mockery and ridicule among the alchemists.

The creation alchemy Dao was not very famous in the alchemy world. There was only one alchemy Saint in the sect, and it could barely be considered a first-class one.

With just this bit of strength, he dared to invite all the alchemists in the world and said that he wanted to compare alchemy techniques and discuss alchemy Dao. If this wasn't a joke, what was it?

Many alchemists threw the invitation away after receiving it.

"The creation alchemy Dao has some Foundation and is very ancient. It was once as famous as the great void alchemy Dao. There's no harm in taking a look and experiencing it."

There were also many alchemists who accepted the invitation with the mentality of wanting to broaden their horizons. Then, they rushed to the gate of fortune.
