

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1899

In the sky, a large ship landed.

On the ship, a flag fluttered in the wind. It represented the number one pill Dao force in the ancient wilderness, the medicine God mountain!

Upon seeing this flag, there was a commotion.

The faces of the members of the Yao clan darkened. They looked at the large ship with hostility.

The people around them were used to it. These two forces were the number one in their respective waste regions. In alchemy, neither was convinced by the other. They had been secretly competing for many years. This was a well-known thing in the alchemy world.

“That’s ... One of the divine Alchemist’s five elders?”

When they saw the figure standing at the bow of the ship, they were in an uproar.

The divine Alchemist’s five elders were all senior alchemy Saints with revered positions in the alchemy world. How could such figures lower themselves to come here?

But then, the surprise in everyone’s heart turned into shock.

There was more than one!

But three!

Behind the figure stood two old men in the same uniform. This also meant that they were also one of the five elders.

“Heavens! Three of them came! I’m not seeing things, am I?”

Everyone was shocked and confused.

Not only did the medicine God Mountain Travel thousands of miles, but the three elders had also arrived!

However, this was strange. The medicine God mountain knew about the Fortune sect’s situation. This so-called alchemy conference was a joke. Just one of the five elders was enough. Why did they have to send three?

“The way I see it, these old guys are too bored and can’t stay on the medicine God mountain, so they came out to see what’s going on!”

Yao Cheng sneered as he said.

Then, he cupped his hands and shouted at the ship, "Long time no see, everyone from the medicine God mountain!"

"Yo! It's a fellow Daoist from the Yao clan!"

"Long time no see!"

At the bow of the ship, the three old men cupped their hands and spoke in an indifferent tone.

"I wonder what wind blew the three of you over?" Yao Cheng continued, "I'm really curious!"

"Hey! It's nothing much, I'm just here to watch the fun. "

"Old Cheng, aren't you here too?"

The three old men laughed.

Then, they raised their eyes and looked at the mountain Gate in front of them.

"I wonder.....Is it really him?"

"I think it's 80% true!"

"If it's really him, then this conference is not simple!"

The three old men muttered to themselves, their eyes revealing a bit of anticipation.

This monstrous talent who had shaken the entire Pangu continent reminded them of someone-master Hao, who had once made a stunning appearance in the ancient wilderness and caused a sensation!

Grandmaster Hao wasn't very old, but his alchemy skills were unfathomable. With his profound alchemy skills and his varied styles, he was famous in the world of alchemy and was known as the pill demon.

What was even more amazing was that he had broken through the alchemy God's test. This was a great feat that no one in the alchemy world had been able to achieve for thousands of years. Even the Holy Son of the Yao clan, who was once known as the number one monstrous talent in the alchemy world, was not as good as him.

Unfortunately, he soon left the medicine God mountain and disappeared.

Later on, when the monster from the lower realm named Tang Hao appeared out of nowhere, they had yet to connect the two together.

After all, they had always thought that master Hao was a reclusive inheritor of the Dao of alchemy, a person from Pangu continent. Only Pangu continent could produce such a peerless genius Alchemist.

However, as the news of the Fortune sect's alchemy conference spread, they began to suspect whether this Tang Hao was that Grandmaster Hao.

His name had the word "Hao" in it, so it was hard not to be suspicious. Moreover, it was said that Tang Hao was also a genius in alchemy, which deepened their suspicion.

They had come here today to verify this guess.

"Go down! We'll know in a while whether it's true or not!"

The three old men flicked their sleeves and led the medicine God mountain disciples to the entrance of the sect.

As time passed, more and more people arrived. The elders of the major clans and many famous people in the alchemy world gathered here.

After noon, the mountain Gate opened, and a group of people walked out. The one in the lead was the beggar, and behind him were Fu Yunzi and the other elders.

"Fellow Daoists, I've been waiting for a long time!" Zao Hua Zi cupped his hands in greeting and said enthusiastically, "it is the Fortune sect's honor that everyone has travelled thousands of miles to participate in this alchemy conference."

As his voice fell, the atmosphere around him turned cold, only a few responses were heard.

Everyone's expressions were a little indifferent, and many of them were even a little impatient.

"Stop talking nonsense and let us in!"

"Didn't you say you wanted us to take a look? we can't wait to see the ability of your nature alchemy Dao!"

Someone in the crowd shouted, but there was a hint of mockery in his tone.

The word "visit" was emphasized, causing everyone to burst out in laughter.

When the gate of fortune had sent out the invitation, they had invited them to visit and Exchange their alchemy techniques. However, what was there to visit in the gate of fortune? this was also the reason why everyone had mocked the gate of fortune.

"Don't worry, everyone," said Zao huaizi with a smile. "I'll bring you in now so you can have a good look!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the laughter became louder.

"Old creation, aren't you ashamed? What's there to see in your creation sect?"

"It can't be those fields, right? Aiyo! Who didn't have a few medicinal fields! Do you think that you're amazing just because you flattened half of the mountain and created hundreds of thousands of acres of land? Who doesn't know how to do this!"

“You’re right!” Zao Huazi laughed. “This time, I’m really going to show you those fields!”

“F * ck! It’s really Tian!”

“This is ridiculous. I’ve come all the way here just to see a few broken fields?”

There was an uproar.

“Don’t worry, you’ll know when you see it!” Zao huaizi turned around and walked toward the door.

“I’d like to see what this old man is up to!”

“Since we’re already here, there’s no harm in going in to take a look!”

The crowd hesitated for a moment before following him.

“This gate of fortune is truly preposterous! Was it worth showing off just a few pieces of broken land? In terms of herb fields, our Yao family is the most powerful. We have ten thousand mu of top-grade herb fields, which are the best in Pangu. ”

In the crowd, the members of the Yao clan were disdainful.

In terms of alchemy knowledge, the Yao clan was the most powerful. The medicine God mountain could not compare to them in this aspect. Only forces on the level of the thirty-three heavens could compete with them.

“This should be the work of that stinky brat. I’ve heard that his talent in alchemy is pretty good! If you run into him later, don’t be polite, just mock him to death!”

As Yao Cheng led the way, he warned the people behind him.

“Hahaha! That’s only natural!”

“Don’t worry, elder Cheng. Even if we can’t kill that kid, we can defeat him. When it comes to talking, that kid is far from good! Today, we’re going to make him lose face in front of everyone!”

The elders of the Yao clan puffed out their chests as if they had been injected with chicken blood. Their fighting spirit was high.

They followed closely behind the main force and swarmed into the mountain Gate.
