

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1903

The matter of the gate of fortune quickly spread.

Not only did it cause a shock in the pill world, but it also set off a huge wave in the entire Pangu.

A small gate of fortune was at best a second-rate faction. Yet, under the encirclement of all the races in the world, it had managed to rise up. How unbelievable was this!

In just over two months, he had created hundreds of thousands of acres of top-grade herb fields and planted countless spiritual herbs!

More than a dozen alchemy Saints and thousands of high-level alchemy Masters joined the creation alchemy Dao!

This ... This was simply a miracle!

“It’s true. Right now, the entire pill world is in an uproar. Those pill refiners are going crazy. They want to go to the creation sect. They say that that place is their heaven, their Holy Land!”

“Those alchemists are like demons! They’re all talking about equality and the rise of alchemy!”

“They’re still talking about that little devil and calling him master Hao. They’re extremely respectful!”

The activity in the pill realm was even more shocking.

A small gate of fortune had actually stirred up the entire pill realm!

It was as if he was already at the center of the pill realm.

They could not understand. Even if that kid surnamed Tang from the gate of fortune had mastered many profound alchemy secret techniques, it was not enough to make these alchemists so fanatical!

It was fine for ordinary alchemists to be like this, but those alchemy Saints were all famous figures in the alchemy world. Why did they also pursue that kid so much?

That kid ... What kind of magic does he have?

The world was bewildered.

Meanwhile, in the alchemy world, this trend was getting more and more intense. More and more alchemists heard of the rumors and set off for the creation sect.

Every day, countless rays of light would come to the surroundings of the mountain range of fortune. They were all alchemists, and they were all in a hurry, travel-worn.

However, their eyes were extremely bright, with a trace of longing and fanaticism.

The gate of fortune in front of them was the Holy Land in their hearts!

There, everyone was equal, and everyone could learn advanced alchemy techniques!

There, countless high-level alchemists were gathered. They were all learning from master Hao and sharing their experiences and alchemy techniques. They would exchange knowledge and improve together.

“Master Hao’s mind is even wider than the starry sky!”

“Grandmaster Hao’s achievements are enough to leave your name in the history of alchemy!”

When master Hao was mentioned, all the alchemists had looks of reverence on their faces.

In their eyes, master Hao was already a saint-like existence.

They didn’t come here just to learn alchemy, but also to admire master Hao’s elegance.

“Al! I really have eyes but failed to see! I even laughed at master Hao in the past!”

In the past, no one knew master Hao’s identity. Many alchemists had been hostile to that kid from the lower realm surnamed Tang. Now that they thought about it, they were filled with regret.

“Master Hao is so young and comes from the lower realm, but he has such a broad mind. It really makes us blush with shame!”

“We must learn from master Hao’s spirit and work hard to revitalize the Dao of alchemy and restore the glory of ancient times.”

All the alchemists felt their blood boiling.

To revitalize the alchemy Dao and rebuild its glory, what a lofty ideal this was!

Every day, countless alchemists would enter the creation alchemy path. In order to accommodate these alchemists, the creation sect built a large number of new cave abodes and palaces in the mountain range.

However, this was still not enough. There were too many alchemists coming from all over the world. Even if the entire mountain range was filled with cave abodes, it would not be able to accommodate so many people. Thus, on the periphery of the mountain range, majestic cities were built.

Following these alchemists, the various Chamber of Commerces also settled in.

All the major forces had also sent their elders to stay here.

They all knew that in the future, the gate of fortune would be the true center of the elixir realm. It would also become the trading center of the elixir realm.

In just half a month, the mountain range of fortune had undergone earth-shaking changes.

Tang Hao walked around the cave abode. He was quite satisfied with the new environment.

His plan had succeeded!

He used his alchemy techniques and experience to exchange for the prosperity of the creation alchemy Dao.

With so many alchemists supporting them, it would not be so easy for the Yao clan and the other factions to deal with the creation sect. Furthermore, with the help of these alchemists, the development of the creation sect would be even smoother.

“Let’s give the pill to creation sect master first!”

Tang Hao went to see Zao huaizi.

During this period of time, he had been cultivating in seclusion in the cave dwelling and refining elixirs. Before this, Zao Huazi and the others had gone out once and killed many sage realm fierce beasts, bringing them back for him to refine elixirs.

He had consumed a lot of them, and his cultivation had increased greatly. The rest were for Zao Huazi and the others.

As for the creation divine pill, he had also refined a few.

When he saw Zao huaizi again, his face was red and he was in high spirits.

“He really can hold his head high! Our creation sect is now the Holy Land of the pill world. Every day, tens of thousands of pill refiners come. The mountain can’t even hold them anymore, so we can only expand outwards. ”

“With so many alchemists supporting us, our creation sect is stable!”

Said Zao Huazi excitedly.

A few months ago, he would never have dreamed that his creation sect would have such a huge development.

The creation sect had risen from a second-rate faction to a first-rate faction in an instant.

The standard of a first-class force was a seven tribulation expert. With the strength of the creation sect, they should not have been ranked. However, with the great influence of the creation alchemy path, they were recognized by the world.

“We have spiritual medicine, pills, and celestial jades. We’ve also been continuously producing them from the Tian Luo sect’s ruins. Our Foundation is already very solid. Next, it’s time for us to make a breakthrough in our high-end combat strength!”

Tang Hao muttered.

“That’s right!” The beggar nodded and said.

Without a true expert, the creation sect could not be considered to have truly risen.

“I heard that young master Taixu is coming out of seclusion!” As he spoke, his expression turned grave.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

That young master Taixu was indeed a huge threat. He had always felt pressured by him.

“I’ll go and meet the alchemy Saints first. After that, I’ll set off with the two elders. As for you, you can stay here!”

Tang Hao said after a moment of thought.

“Good! Just leave everything in the sect to me!” The beggar nodded and said.

After a while, Tang Hao left to meet the alchemy Saints who had joined the path of alchemy. He exchanged pointers with them.

After that, he set off with the two Grand elders.

There were still many more targets on black sky old man’s list. There were many dangerous places and desperate situations in the eight desolate lands, and there might be opportunities hidden in them.

He had to find an opportunity as soon as possible to improve his strength so that he could fight against young master Taixu.

In the following period of time, he brought the two elders to travel around the eight desolates, stepping into various dangerous places in search of opportunities.

From time to time, they would have some gains and find all kinds of treasures, which greatly improved their cultivation.

Tang Hao was also getting closer and closer to the peak of the five tribulations.
