

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1904

West barren.

In a Savage ancient land.

Two long rainbows broke through the sky and landed in a barren Valley.

In the valley, there were two figures sitting cross-legged. One of them was a handsome young man in white. In front of him was a cauldron with a blazing fire inside. He was refining an elixir.

The other person was dressed in fine clothes, but she was a dainty and moving woman.

She was meditating with her eyes closed.

“Little friend Tang, miss Qin, we’re back!”

Two rainbows landed on the ground, and two old men appeared. They both had white hair and white beards, and they looked like Immortals.

The two of them were the two Supreme elders of the gate of fortune, Yun qingzi and Yun Lanzi.

“Two seniors!”

Qin Xiangyi opened her eyes and stood up.

“Lady Qin, what do you think? the secret technique of the gate of fortune is a perfect match for your creation divine body. As long as you cultivate the secret technique of the creation Scripture to the deepest level, you will be able to unleash great power.”

Yun qingzi said with a smile.

“You’ve improved a lot!” Qin Xiangyi said.

“That’s good!” Yun qingzi nodded and said, “we were lucky this time. We killed a few fifth tribulation ones and encountered a few sixth tribulation ones. However, they were too difficult to deal with. We couldn’t kill them with just the two of us.”

“This is the desolate ancient land, even older than the Tian Luo mountain range. We can often see the bloodline of the desolate, and every one of them is extremely powerful!”

Yun Lanzi said with a hint of regret in his voice.

The corpses of the ancient bloodline were the best materials for alchemy. Unfortunately, they were not strong enough and could only watch from afar.

“There! This is the harvest of this trip!”

Yun qingzi waved his sleeve, and several huge beast corpses flew out and landed in the barren Valley.

One was a 10000-feet-long Python covered in pitch-black scales. The other was a mountain-like Lion with purple fur. There was also a golden ape and a Black Lizard.

“Oh right, we’ve also found a few stalks of spirit medicine, and they’re not too old!”

Yun Lanzi also flicked his sleeve, and balls of divine light flew out. Inside them were stalks of spiritual medicine, all of which exuded an astonishing immortal spirit Qi.

This Savage wildland was extremely ancient. Not only were there many bloodlines of the wilderness, but there were also many kinds of spirit herbs. Not only were they rare, but they were also very old. The spirit herbs that Yun Lanzi took out were all over a thousand years old.

“Two seniors have worked hard!”

Qin Xiangyi said respectfully as she bowed.

“Ai! Miss Qin, you don’t have to be so polite!”

“We’re all family, no need to be so polite!”

The two elders hurriedly waved their hands.

“Lady Qin, have you encountered any difficulties in your cultivation?”

“If there’s anything you don’t understand in the Scripture, you can ask me!”

The two elders said with a warm smile, as warm as they could be.

Miss Qin is little friend Tang’s cultivation partner!

And who is little friend Tang?

She was the great benefactor of their creation sect and also the hope of the path of creation’s rise. Her status in the sect was even higher than that of the sect master. As his Dao partner, lady Qin’s status was naturally extremely high.

Furthermore, this lady Qin also had a creation divine body. She had a deep relationship with the creation sect.

More importantly, not only was this girl beautiful, but she was also polite, which was why they liked her.

“There are a few things I don’t understand, I’ll have to trouble two seniors to clear up my doubts!” Qin Xiangyi said.

“Ai! You’re welcome!”

The two elders hurriedly said.

The three of them sat down and began to discuss the problems in the Scriptures.

After a short while, a loud boom was heard from the side. Then, a beam of divine light shot into the sky, causing the wind and clouds to roll.

“The pill is done!”

The three of them raised their eyes and looked to the side.

There, Tang Hao stood up. He reached out his hand, and the divine energy fell and turned into a crystal-clear pill in his palm. The pill’s divine light was dazzling, and the pill’s fragrance wafted in all directions.

“Little friend Tang!”

The two elders bowed and greeted him respectfully.

Although they were at the 6th tribulation, their cultivation was one tribulation higher, and they were more than a generation older, this little friend Tang was now the sect’s great benefactor. His status in the alchemy world was also extremely high, and he was known as the great alchemy Saint. He was worthy of such a great bow.

“Two seniors have worked hard!”

Tang Hao said with a smile as he glanced at the monster carcasses in the valley.

“What are you saying!”

The two elders said politely.

“Four fifth tribulation ... Hmm? This one is a little special, and its bloodline seems to be even more powerful!” Tang Hao’s gaze fell on the giant Purple Lion.

“This Lion is not simple. It can be considered to have half of the bloodline of the ancient era!” Yun qingzi said.

“Not bad!” Tang Hao nodded. “I’ll be fine after I take these four pills.”

When the two elders heard this, they were a little happy and also a little emotional.

“How old is little friend Tang? he’s already at the peak of the fifth tribulation. It seems that he has just advanced to the fifth tribulation, right?” Yun qingzi mumbled, feeling a little upset.

When he was at the 5th tribulation, it was so difficult for him to cultivate. He spent hundreds of years to break through to the perfection stage. Later, he spent another hundred years to successfully advance to the 6th tribulation.

However, this kid was good. He had cultivated all the way up and his speed was like flying, making him both jealous and envious.

“Not too long ago, it hasn’t even been a year!”

Yun Lanzi’s mouth twitched, and his heart was filled with panic.

In less than a year, he had charged to the peak of the fifth tribulation. This speed was simply too abnormal!

Even the young master of the great void heaven was not so fast back then!

“Freak! He’s really a F * cking demon!”

The two of them muttered in their hearts.

Tang Hao also smiled happily.

This speed had far exceeded his expectations.

An ordinary Saint would take more than a hundred years to go from the beginning stage of the five tribulations to the completion stage. Some faster ones might take decades or even decades. However, it was extremely rare to see someone like him take less than a year.

The reason he was able to progress so quickly was partly due to the endless supply of Super Tonic pills, and partly because of old man black sky. He had found many spiritual essences from his memories, which had greatly improved his cultivation base.

“I’m not looking! I’m not looking! Let’s hurry up and leave!”

“Yes, yes! If the eyes don’t see, the heart won’t be annoyed!”

Yun Qing and elder Yun LAN mumbled to themselves before turning around to continue their hunt for Saint realm beasts.

Tang Hao rested for a while, then continued to make pills.

Very quickly, four great Supplement Pills were formed.

Tang Hao swallowed the pills together with the ones he had made earlier and began to absorb them.

As he swallowed seven great Supplement Pills at the same time, the extremely powerful medicinal power spread out and turned into wild waves that rushed to his limbs and bones. After completing the Qi circulation, it flowed into his dantian and sea of Dao.

The calm sea of the path was once again in turmoil.

The immortal abode above the sea of the path, the gods 'Palace, also lit up and bloomed with divine light, greedily devouring the celestial core power that was pouring into the sea of the path.

The aura on Tang Hao's body kept rising.

After a long time, he finally stopped.

At that moment, his aura had risen to its limit, and the sea of the path in his body could no longer hold any more celestial core power.

"Five tribulations, perfect!"

Tang Hao opened his eyes and smiled.
