

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1938

The world was deathly silent.

At this moment, whether it was the nascent soul formation cultivator, the Dao seeking cultivator, or the high and mighty seven tribulations expert, they were all speechless.

They just stared blankly at the dazzling ancient river on the fighting ring with an expression of extreme disbelief.

No one could believe their eyes.

Gulu!

After a long time, the sound of people swallowing their saliva could be heard.

The dumbfounded look on their faces faded away and was replaced with extreme shock and bewilderment.

“That’s a Dao law! He really comprehended it!”

“This ... How is this possible?”

The crowd couldn’t help but exclaim in shock.

The entire myriad tribe battlefield was in an uproar.

Even the sky burst into a clamor.

The Group of Seven tribulation powerhouses were all horrified.

“That’s the reincarnation great Dao! How did he comprehend it?”

“It’s impossible in such a short time!”

They were still in disbelief.

However, the Dao law on the ancient deity plateau and the ancient reincarnation River were real.

That kid really comprehended the reincarnation great Dao.

Moreover, he had comprehended the great Dao in just a few months.

“I’ve seen a ghost!”

Divine Lord Wu Ling was stunned for a long time before he regained his senses and let out a shrill scream.

He was about to go crazy!

What was going on with this kid?

First, it was a 6th tribulation heaven and earth origin core avatar. This was already shocking enough. Now, there was a Dao law of reincarnation. Was he still human?

“My Emperor artifact!”

After a while, he screamed again, feeling extremely pained.

If it was just now, he still had a glimmer of hope to win the bet. But now, there was no hope at all. An Emperor weapon had just flown away.

“This kid ... How did he do it?”

“The reincarnation Dao? He must have gone to the reincarnation Lake! He didn’t accept the challenge before because he was comprehending Dao at the reincarnation Lake!”

“I know about the reincarnation Lake, but it’s not easy to comprehend the great Dao there. It’s impossible to comprehend the Dao law there in a few months.”

The Group of Seven tribulations discussed, all unable to understand.

“This battle is over!”

When they looked at the fighting ring again, their expressions turned grave.

The two of them were perfected great Dao. One was a time Dao law while the other was a reincarnation Dao law. They were both Supreme great Dao. It was hard to say who was stronger.

“That brat from the great void heaven won’t lose, right?”

One of the seven tribulations said bitterly.

When everyone heard this, they all looked at each other in a daze.

Who would have thought that the battle would reach such a stage?

The thought that the great void heaven’s successor would lose was something they did not even dare to think about previously. But now, it could not help but appear in their minds, lingering there.

“No way! After all, he is the successor of the great void heaven!”

An old monster laughed drily, but his tone was a little weak.

Even he could not be sure of the outcome of this battle.

On the ancient deity plateau, young master Taixu was stunned for a long time. When he finally came back to his senses, his expression suddenly sank and became extremely ugly.

He had never expected that this fellow would comprehend the Dao law so quickly and catch up to him.

“Our Dao laws are both Supreme great Dao. Let’s try it out today and see if your Dao Law of Time or my Dao law of reincarnation is more powerful!”

“Break!” Tang Hao shouted. He waved his hand, and the Dao patterns around him expanded.

The ancient river of reincarnation above his head also surged forward.

“Hmph! Naturally, my great void heaven’s Dao Law of Time is more powerful!”

Young master Taixu snorted in anger. The divine Wheel of Time above his head immediately moved and welcomed the ancient river.

Ding ding ding!

It was accompanied by a crisp sound.

The Dao patterns between the two of them were the first to collide.

The Dao patterns on both sides continued to dissipate, but soon, they reappeared and continued to fight.

The ancient river of reincarnation and the divine Wheel of Time were facing each other in midair. The power of the Dao law on them kept surging out and colliding with each other.

The collision of the Dao laws produced an extremely terrifying energy. The void in all directions distorted and black cracks appeared from time to time.

As the two Dao laws clashed fiercely, their bodies trembled as they were under great pressure.

However, the two of them gritted their teeth and madly activated the power of the Dao law as they walked forward step by step.

As the two of them got closer and closer, the battle of Dao laws became more and more intense.

When there were only ten steps left between the two of them, the two forces of Dao law had completely blended together. Both of them were affected by each other’s Dao law, and their figures began to change.

The void around Tang Hao’s body froze and the Dao patterns dissipated. They were fixed in place by the time Dao law.

Young master Taixu’s body began to age after being attacked by the power of reincarnation. However, he recovered very quickly and the process continued.

In just a few moments, the two of them had turned pale and their auras had weakened.

The battle of Dao laws consumed the primordial spirit and immortal essence the most. In just a short while, the two of them had used up more than half of their immortal essence.

However, neither of them retreated. The two of them gritted their teeth, burned their celestial core power madly, and walked forward with a trace of madness on their faces.

“This is crazy! This was crazy! These two people ... Are they going to die together?”

The Group of Seven tribulations gasped at the sight.

The battle of Dao laws to such an extent was truly extremely tragic.

Moreover, both sides were so close to each other that there was a risk of death.

“Not enough! It’s not enough!”

Tang Hao stepped forward and burned the immortal essence in his body. He activated the Dao law of reincarnation and strangled his opponent’s Dao law.

When his celestial core power was exhausted, he began to burn his blood essence.

His opponent, young master Taixu, also burned his blood essence.

When the distance between the two of them was only three steps, the influence of each other’s Dao laws became even greater.

Tang Hao’s movements were constantly paused, becoming somewhat slow and stiff. His hands and feet were attacked by the time Dao law and were constantly annihilated.

First, it was the fingers, then the entire palm.

Young master Taixu wasn’t doing any better. His body kept aging, and soon, he turned from a young man to an old man in his 70s or 80s. His figure was hunched, and his aura was weak.

Moreover, with the invasion of the power of reincarnation, he was still aging ...

The two of them were about to die together.

However, the Nirvana Sutra in Tang Hao’s body began to take effect. His flesh and blood were quickly regrown.

His flesh and blood were constantly being destroyed and reborn.

Although his rebirth would consume a lot of his energy, it would consume even more of his opponent’s energy.

In this battle of attrition, he gradually gained the upper hand.

“No! I won’t lose!”

Young master Taixu’s shrieking voice became even more frenzied.

He was the successor of the great void sect. How could he lose to a barbarian from the lower realm?

However, no matter how crazily he burned his blood essence, he couldn’t save the situation. His body was shriveling and hunched. He was completely an old man with one foot in the grave. His hands and feet were trembling, and his entire person was lifeless.

It was as if he was about to be annihilated and turned into dust in the next moment.

“Enough!”

Just at this moment, a thunderous roar came from the sky.

Then, a huge Golden Palm fell from the sky and grabbed young master Taixu before disappearing.

This sudden turn of events made everyone somewhat unable to react.

They were stunned for a long time as they looked at the empty ancient deity plateau.

The battle was over just like that?

Young master Taixu was defeated?

They were all in a daze and in disbelief.

The surroundings were deathly silent.

Then, with a whooshing sound, an unprecedented clamor erupted from all directions.

The atmosphere instantly turned crazy!
