

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1981

“Did you hear? recently, all the races are looking for the same treasure! It’s a Buddhist treasure, like a Kasaya.”

“This Kasaya has a great origin. It came from one of the three Holy Lands of the ancient Buddhism, the heavenly Buddha courtyard. This heavenly Buddha courtyard had disappeared a long time ago, but this Kasaya has been passed down. It appeared a thousand years ago.”

“It’s said that this Kasaya is extremely powerful and contains the great power of Buddha. It can emit millions of beams of Buddha light and kill all evil in the world. With this treasure, we can easily break that pair of heavenly demon eyes. Therefore, all the races are determined to get it.”

Very quickly, a piece of news spread throughout the eight desolates.

A mysterious ancient Buddha Kasaya had become the focus of the world.

Everyone was talking about the Kasaya and the three Holy Lands of Buddhism that had disappeared in the long river of history.

“The heavenly Buddha court, dipamkara temple, and the Rulai divine sect were the three sacred grounds of the ancient Buddhism. In ancient times, Buddhism was as prosperous as the immortal Dao. Buddhist forces were everywhere. Besides these three sacred grounds, there were thousands of powerful Buddhist sects.”

“These Buddhist sects are scattered all over the eight desolate lands. The strength of the three Holy Lands is not inferior to that of the thirty-three heavens at that time. Each Holy Land has a Supreme of Buddhism!”

“Actually, at that time, the 33 heavens weren’t the only dominant force. Many forces could compete with them. The three sacred grounds of Buddhism and the ancient path of creation all had the ability to compete with the orthodoxy of the 33 heavens.”

“However, the three Holy Lands disappeared after that, and the entire Buddhism weakened as a result. Today, there are not many Buddhist cultivators on Pangu continent.”

“As for the reason for their disappearance, there are many different opinions. Some say that they fought among themselves for a Supreme treasure of Buddhism, which led to the decline of Buddhism. Some say that it was the work of the thirty-three heavens. At that time, Buddhism was too prosperous, which led to the war between Immortals and Buddhas.”

“I can’t tell what the reason is now.”

The disappearance of the three Holy Lands and the decline of Buddhism once again piqued the interest of the world.

However, so many years had passed, and no one could figure it out.

They investigated for a while and then focused their interest on the Kasaya.

All over the world, countless cultivators began to move. They went around looking for information in search of this ancient Buddha Kasaya.

“The Kasaya of the Supreme Buddha?”

Tang Hao was also the first to receive the news.

He muttered to himself for a long time, and his expression became somewhat grave.

If it really was the Kasaya of the Supreme Buddha, then it would contain the mighty power of Buddhism and could easily break his heavenly demon eyes.

“If they really find it, then we’ll be in trouble!”

Tang Hao found it a little tricky.

The heavenly Demon Eye was one of his most powerful weapons. Once it was disabled, his strength would be greatly reduced.

“I can’t let this Kasaya fall into their hands. I have to get it first!”

Tang Hao said with determination.

Tang Hao stood up and rushed back to the gate of fortune.

“This Kasaya should be called Moonlight Treasure King Kasaya. It belongs to one of the three great Supremes of the ancient heaven Buddha Temple, Moonlight Treasure King Buddha.”

When he met the beggar, they exchanged a few pleasantries and then talked about the Kasaya.

“This Moonlight Treasure Buddha was famous in ancient times,” said Zao Huazi. “He cultivated one of the Supreme Buddhist scriptures of the Buddhist League, the moonlight Treasure Buddha Scripture. He could absorb moonlight and sunlight and cultivate a Supreme Buddha body.”

“That Kasaya was personally refined by him. It followed him on his conquests and made a name for itself. It became one of the most precious treasures of the ancient Buddhism.”

“With the disappearance of the three Holy Lands and the weakening of Buddhism, this treasure also disappeared. However, just a thousand years ago, this treasure once appeared and caused a fight. But very soon, this treasure disappeared again. Its whereabouts are still unknown.”

“Moon treasure light King Sutra?” Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

He had some understanding of Buddhism and had also cultivated some Buddhist techniques and martial Scriptures.

Although Buddhism was rarely seen on Pangu continent, it was still the world of Buddhism in the lower realm, the West Sea astral.

He had heard of this Moonlight Treasure Buddha before. He was one of the Buddhas in the legends of Buddhism.

“This Kasaya is a supreme weapon,” Tang Hao said after a moment of silence. “The Taiyi mind-clearing banner I have is also a supreme weapon. Which one is stronger?”

“This ...”

“It’s hard to say. Regardless of whether it’s Moonlight Treasure Buddha Lord or Changliu Xian, they were both Supreme experts from the ancient times. Their methods were extremely powerful. People like them could shatter the void and pluck the stars with a single hand. However, they could do it with ease. The treasures they refined were all very powerful.”

“But if we want to compare which one is stronger, there’s no way to compare. We can only say that each supreme weapon is very strong.”

Tang Hao chuckled when he heard that.

It was as if he had not said anything.

“However, according to my analysis, that Kasaya is more offensive. Wearing it will increase one’s strength even more than your Taiyi mind-clearing armor. Your one is more focused on defense.”

“If you can get that monastic robe, your combat power will increase by a few times,” the beggar said.

“Then I’ll definitely take this Kasaya!”

Tang Hao was tempted.

“If there’s a chance, I’ll definitely get my hands on such a treasure.” The shop-maker nodded and said, “the news has been out for a few days now, and everyone is looking for it. I think it won’t be long before we find some clues. It won’t be too late for us to take action then.”

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded. He took out some pills and gave them to Zao Huazi, who then distributed them to the elders.

There were many great Supplement Pills, 4th tribulation, 5th tribulation, and even a few creation divine pills.

Tang Hao cultivated in peace after he returned to the cave abode.

Seven days later, there was news from the outside that someone had found the location of the Suan ni.

“Demon burial abyss? It sounds familiar, isn’t this the famous forbidden land?”

“That’s right! It’s there. A thousand years ago, the monastic robe was born and was obtained by a Buddhist cultivator. He was chased down and had no other choice but to enter the demon burial abyss. Once he entered, he never came out again.”

“Therefore, everyone in the world has concluded that the Kasaya is definitely in the demon burial abyss.”

“This demon burial abyss is extremely evil. Even a seventh tribulation expert doesn’t dare to enter it casually. However, you can still enter the outer area. Back then, that Buddhist cultivator only had the strength of a third tribulation, so he wouldn’t have gone too deep. The Suan ni must also be in the periphery of the demon burial abyss.”

“The news has already spread. Many forces have already rushed over.”

“In that case, let’s go too!” Tang Hao thought for a moment and made a decision.

The trip to the demon burial abyss must be extremely dangerous because all the other clans would be going. They were looking for Tao Wu to deal with him. Even so, Tang Hao was not afraid at all.

He had to go to the demon burial abyss. He also had to get his hands on that Kasaya.
