

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2013

Back in the cave, Tang Hao took out the spirit herbs he had just obtained and arranged them.

Then, he took out all the spirit herbs he had obtained in the heavenly Buddha courtyard, as well as the spirit herbs he had grown.

According to these spirit herbs, he started to make pills.

The main ones were the dark Dao pill, limitless Qi restoration pill, and four appearances true spirit pill. Most of the materials he asked young master Li to prepare were for these three pills.

There were also many other pills, all of which were made from the spirit herbs he obtained from the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard. He used his own spirit herbs to supplement some of the missing materials, and the rest were bought by young master Li.

“Dark Dao pill ingredients, fifty sets!”

“Infinite restoration pill, twenty portions!”

“Four appearances true spirit pill, thirty-nine portions!”

“Hundred immortal pill, 19 sets!”

“Nine yang spirit accumulation pill, twenty-one portions!”

“.....”

Tang Hao counted the ingredients after he was done.

This was the first time he had concocted the hundred immortal pill. This pill was even more powerful than the dark Dao pill. It required a hundred types of spiritual essence, such as ginseng, blood ginseng, Vermilion fruit, Snow Lotus, and so on. The age requirement was extremely high, all of them were ten thousand years old.

If he had not obtained so many ten-thousand-year-old spirit herbs from the heavenly Buddha courtyard, Tang Hao would not have been able to make it in such a short time.

The nine yang spirit accumulation pill was an upgraded version of the ordinary spirit accumulation pill. The ingredients required were all ten-thousand-year-old spiritual herbs, and the medicinal effects were also extremely amazing.

“A total of two hundred and ten portions. If I can refine all of them and consume them, I should be very close to the late stage.”

Tang Hao estimated that with his alchemy skills, he could make at least two hundred pills from two hundred and ten sets of materials. It was four times the number of pills he had taken when he was trying to break through to the mid-stage, and many of the pills this time were more powerful than before. They were enough to make his cultivation base soar.

However, Tang Hao had no idea if he could successfully reach the late-stage.

After some preparation, Tang Hao took out the Shennong cauldron and began the process.

He first refined the Dao dark Pill. He was most familiar with this pill, so it was very easy for him to refine it. He refined, fused, and calcined it in one go. Soon, the pill cauldron shook, and a huge, pitch-black, round pill leaped out and landed in his palm.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao looked at it and was satisfied.

Then, he continued to make more.

“Let’s refine it together!”

He couldn’t be bothered to refine them one by one, so he threw the remaining dark Dao pill materials into the cauldron.

A total of forty-nine sets of materials were refined, fused, and calcined together, forming a huge pill embryo.

If there were other alchemists here, they would probably be speechless.

One had to know that this was a six tribulation pill. An ordinary alchemy Saint would refine it one by one and carefully. But now, 49 of them were refined at once, which was a bit scary.

Tang Hao sat there with his legs crossed, his face calm. He used his true fire to burn the huge pill embryo.

The pill embryo was huge, so it was not easy to burn it. It took Tang Hao a day and a half to finish.

“Alright! It’s time to divide the pills!”

Tang Hao’s eyes shot open. He clapped his hands together and used the pill division skill.

Clang clang clang!

The pill cauldron began to shake violently. Then, with a clang, the lid of the cauldron burst open. Beams of black divine light shot into the sky and turned into black pills, floating in the air.

“Exactly 49!”

Tang Hao glanced at them, then reached out his hand. The pills flew toward him and landed in his pocket.

“If I were to refine them one by one, it would take me at least seven to eight days to finish this batch of dark Dao pills. But now that I’m refining them all at once, I only need about two days. My efficiency has greatly increased.”

“However, that’s only limited to the dark Dao pill. I’m the most familiar with that pill, and I’m the most confident in it. That’s why I dared to do this. If it were any other pill, it would be easy for something to happen. If the furnace explodes, then I’ll be finished!”

Tang Hao rested for a while, then continued making pills.

This time, he was refining the infinite restoration pill.

He didn’t dare to refine the pill in one cauldron, so he could only refine the pills one by one. After three days, he had successfully refined all twenty sets of materials and obtained twenty pills.

Next was the four appearances true spirit pill. Thirty-nine sets of ingredients, which took him a total of six days.

He had not failed in any of these three elixirs. However, he had failed once when he was refining the hundred immortal elixir, which made him feel very regretful.

It was already a month later when he finished refining all the pills.

Out of 210 sets of materials, he only failed once and obtained 209 pills of various types.

“I’ve finally finished refining!”

Tang Hao stood up and heaved a sigh of relief.

After continuously refining pills for a month, his mind was indeed a little tired.

“Next, it’s time to swallow it!”

After a short rest, Tang Hao sat down and began to consume the pills.

He was pressed for time and had to reach the late-stage as soon as possible.

He placed all the refined pills in front of him, opened his mouth, and inhaled. The pills flew up one by one and were swallowed into his stomach.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The pill exploded as soon as it entered his stomach. The amazing medicinal power contained in it turned into a raging wave, surging into his limbs and bones. After circulating through his meridians, it flowed into his dantian and sea of Dao.

One part was absorbed by the sea of the path, while the other part was absorbed by the immortal abode.

The aura on his body continued to rise, from the middle stage to the late stage. The speed was unbelievable.

When he finished absorbing the last pill, Tang Hao opened his eyes and looked inside himself. He felt sorry for himself.

“I’m only a little bit away from the late stage. I just need another 20 to 30 six tribulations pills.”

Tang Hao made a rough estimation.

Then, he closed his eyes and contacted his two clones.

On the way back from Emperor Pan City, he had sent his two avatars out to help him search for spiritual herbs and kill sixth tribulation beasts to make nourishing pills.

A month had passed, and both of his avatars had also gained something.

The combat strength of the origin core clone was stronger, and he had killed more sixth tribulation fierce beasts. He first called back the origin core clone, obtained the corpses of these sixth tribulation fierce beasts, and began to refine the great supplement pill.

After refining thirty pills, Tang Hao swallowed them.

After taking the last great supplement pill, Tang Hao’s cultivation base broke through to the late stage of the sixth tribulation as he had expected.

With the breakthrough in his cultivation, his confidence was greatly boosted. First, he had completed the moonlight Treasure King body. Now that his cultivation had increased, he was not afraid even if those Saint children had cultivated in the void divine wheel for hundreds of years.

“Go and collect some more!”

Tang Hao sent out his origin core clone.

He still needed more corpses of sixth tribulation fierce beasts to refine more great Supplement Pills.

Although he had reached the late stage, his two avatars were still in the early stage and needed to be improved urgently.

Moreover, he had promised Daoist yinfeng and the others that as long as they could pull people in, he would reward them with a great supplement pill. Therefore, he had to prepare more great Supplement Pills.

This matter could be left to his clone. He didn't need to go with his true body, as his true body had more important things to do.
