

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2016

“Sect master! Sect master! Come quickly! We’ve kidnapped another one!”

Above the mountain range of fortune, several beams of divine light flashed over, and four figures appeared.

One of them was holding a person in his hand, who was covered by the golden net.

“Mud mountain four monsters, you four bastards” The man couldn’t move, so he could only curse.

“Shut up!”

“Believe it or not, we’ll beat you up again!”

The mud Mountain Brothers viciously said.

“You ... You will all get your retribution!” The man screeched.

“Tsk! Retribution?! If there really was retribution in this world, we four brothers would have died a few hundred times! Brothers, don’t you agree?” The one speaking was mud mountain’s boss, a burly man with a leopard head and round eyes. He was ugly and extremely vicious.

“Yes, yes, yes!”

The other three brothers all responded and laughed.

“You guys ... You’re simply shameless!” The man said in exasperation.

He was helpless. These four bastards were like cancer to the Saints “world.

“Al!”

At this time, master fortune walked out of the main hall. When he saw this scene, he couldn’t help but sigh. He felt a slight headache.

The other elders pulled people in with emotion and reason, pursuing the principle of free will. But these four people were good. Whether you were willing or not, they directly tied you up and brought you here.

“Al! Elders, it’s not good for you to be like this! Didn’t I tell you not to do this next time? Why can’t you guys remember?”

Zao huaizi stepped forward, pulled a long face, and chided.

“Sect ... Sect master!”

The four of them lowered their heads, not daring to make a sound.

“You’re their Supreme headmaster? That’s right, you’re the son of fortune! You still won’t let them put me down and let me go back. Furthermore, you have to compensate me. Otherwise, I will tell the world and let the world know how shameless your creation sect is.”

The man shouted excitedly.

However, who knew that when Zao Huazi walked over, he didn’t even look at him and continued to scold the four monsters, “You guys, why can’t you learn from your mistakes? Didn’t I tell you that the next time you want to kidnap someone, you have to do it quietly and not let anyone see it?”

“Look, you’ve made such a big commotion. It’s so easy for people to see, how bad is that! It will greatly affect the reputation of our gate of fortune!”

When the man heard this, he was stunned and revealed a stunned expression.

Wait, why did this sound a little wrong? what did he mean by coming quietly and not being seen by others?

This was not right in the first place, so you can’t do it, okay?

“Also! Look at how the four of you handle things. The four of you can’t even convince him?” Zao Huazi rebuked.

“Sect ... Sect master, it’s not our fault. This person’s skin is too thick. We can’t beat him up!”

Boss tu said, feeling wronged.

“Hey! In this world, there’s no one you can’t beat up. If you beat him up once and he’s not convinced, then you can beat him ten times, a hundred times, until he’s convinced!” Zao Huazi’s face was filled with disappointment.

The man was a little stunned, his mouth wide open.

F * ck! How could this damned old man from the gate of fortune be as shameless as these four freaks?

“Also, do you only know how to use brute force? There were many ways to make someone yield, such as ... Poisoning! We still have a lot of poison pills in our sect. If one pill is not enough, then we’ll have a few more!” Said Zao Huazi.

He looked like he was teaching her earnestly.

“Well said, sect master!”

“Sect master is wise!”

The four mud Mountain Brothers had looks of sudden understanding.

F * ck! How could this old man be more shameless and despicable than these four bastards!

The man was completely shocked.

“Are you willing to join my creation sect?” At this time, Zao Huazi looked at him with a smile on his face. He looked especially amiable.

But in the eyes of that person, this was extremely terrifying!

This old man was clearly a wolf in sheep’s clothing! The four monsters were nothing, this old man was the most terrifying!

“Not willing? Men! Drag him in!”

Shouted Zao Huazi with a stern face.

“Yes! Sect master!”

The four mud Mountain Brothers dragged the man and excitedly charged into the main palace.

“Wait a minute! Don ‘t!”

The man screamed like a pig being slaughtered, “I’m willing! I’m willing to!”

“Aiya! Since you’re willing, why didn’t you say so earlier! If he had said it earlier, then everything would have been fine! Come, come, let him go!” Zao huaizi hurriedly went forward and helped the man out.

Can I f * cking say no?

The man cursed in his heart.

“There’s no time to waste! Let’s hurry up and finish the entrance ceremony!” Zao huaizi pulled him up and walked toward the main hall.

That person was a little dumbfounded. Before he could react, he was pulled along. In a daze, he completed the entrance ceremony and entered the gate of fortune.

“We’re finished! We’re on a pirate ship!”

When he finally reacted, he wanted to cry but had no tears.

The gate of fortune was now a place of trouble. Because of that kid surnamed Tang, he was being watched by countless forces. Joining the gate at this time was simply courting death!

“Another mid stage of the sixth tribulation!”

Zao huaizi picked up a book and drew a line on it. He couldn’t stop smiling.

In addition to this new disciple, the number of sixth tribulation elders in the sect was a total of 153.

Among them, there were a total of five late-stage powerhouses, 80 middle-stage powerhouses, and 68 early-stage powerhouses.

Compared to the original number of elders, it was now four times more.

One must know that in an ordinary clan, there were only a few tens of 6th tribulation experts. In terms of the number of 6th tribulation experts, the creation sect had already far surpassed an ordinary clan.

The greatest weakness of the gate of fortune was that it lacked a seventh tribulation!

As long as they could reach the seventh tribulation, their creation sect would be able to catch up to those great clans.

“Sect master! Sect master! Elder Shi song returned, he brought back another one! He’s at the middle stage of the 6th tribulation!”

At this moment, a disciple came to report.

He was stunned at first, then he revealed a look of joy and hurriedly went out to welcome them.

He was busy with the welcoming and entrance ceremony.

Without waiting for him to rest, another elder brought people back, and he had to welcome them again. He was busy, and this was also his normal state for the past two months.

Seeing so many people joining in, he was naturally happy. However, as more and more people joined in, he started to worry. Would the treasures prepared by Master Tang be enough? would his creation sect be able to support so many sixth tribulation disciples?

“I wonder how his comprehension is going?”

From time to time, he would stand on the peak of fortune and look deep into the ground for a long time.

His expression was one of anticipation and apprehension.

When he raised his head and looked at the sky, he would reveal a look of worry.

He had also heard about the opening of the great void divine wheel. This would be a huge problem for Master Tang and the creation sect.

“I need more, the more the better!”

He muttered.

In the following period of time, he instructed the elders to continue recruiting people. At the same time, they continued to recruit disciples to expand the size of the creation sect and strengthen it.

In the blink of an eye, another month had passed.

It had been two months since Master Tang went into seclusion.

And the operation to recruit people also went on for a full three months.

The number of 6th tribulation disciples in the sect increased again, reaching 208 people.

At the same time, news came from the 33 heavens.

Just a few days ago, the Saint child of the hundred races had emerged from seclusion!
